TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable upon, for, or in respect of letters, newspapers, Parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers, transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post; and by the same Act powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of postage therein mentioned.

And whereas further powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas it is expedient to authorize the transmission by the post between the United Kingdom and Australia of certain packets, and for that purpose to make certain regulations in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the power reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore-recited Acts of Parliament, and every of them, and of all other powers enabling them in this behalf, do, by this Warrant under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners (by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided), order and direct as follows ; that is to say :—

1. All packets consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize, of no intrinsic value, posted in the United Kingdom addressed to Australia, or posted in Australia addressed to the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Australia, by British packet boat direct, or viâ Egypt, subject to the several rates of postage hereinafter mentioned (that is to say) :

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid an uniform single rate of postage (British and colonial combined) of four pence ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, for such transmission thereof respectively as aforesaid, the several progressive and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

2. All packets consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize, of no intrinsic value, posted in the United Kingdom addressed to Australia, or posted in Australia addressed to the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Australia, in closed mails, viâ France (the sea conveyance being by British packet boat), subject to the several rates of postage hereinafter mentioned (that is to say) :

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid an uniform single rate of postage (British, colonial, and foreign combined) of sixpence ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, for such transmission thereof respectively as aforesaid, the several progressive and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

3. Every packet which shall be transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, if exceeding four ounces in weight, shall be subject to the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned (that is to say) :

On every such packet, if exceeding four ounces, and not exceeding one half of a pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two rates of postage ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding one half of a pound, and not exceeding one pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid four rates of postage ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound, and not exceeding one pound and one half of another pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid six rates of postage ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and one half of another pound, and not exceeding two pounds in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid eight rates of postage ;

And for every additional half of a pound in weight of any such packet above the weight of two pounds, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two additional rates of postage ; and every fractional part of such additional half of a pound in weight shall be charged as an additional half of a pound in weight ; and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

4. Every packet which shall be transmitted by the post, under the authority of this Warrant, shall be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereinafter contained (that is to say) :

5. No such packet which in length or breadth or depth shall exceed the dimensions of two feet shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant.

6. No such packet posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to New South Wales, exceeding the weight of three pounds, shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant.

7. No pattern or sample, being of any intrinsic value, or being an article or thing of a saleable nature, or having a value of its own apart from its mere use as a pattern or sample, shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant.

8. There shall not be any enclosure, sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure, not authorized by this Warrant, sent in or with any such packet.

9. There shall be no writing or printing in or upon any such packet, or on the cover thereof, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender thereof, a trade mark, and numbers and prices.

10. All such packets shall be sent in covers open at the ends so as to be easy of examination: Nevertheless samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles and things as cannot be sent in open covers, may be enclosed in bags of linen or of other material, but bags so closed that they cannot be readily opened, even although they be transparent, shall not be used for that purpose.

11. Every packet transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant and posted in the United Kingdom shall be put into the Post Office at such hours in the day and under all such regulations as the Postmaster-General may appoint.

12. The postage of all such packets as aforesaid, posted in the United Kingdom, shall in every case be paid at the time of the same being posted, not in money, but by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon under or by virtue of this Warrant.

13. The postage of all such packets as aforesaid, posted in Australia, shall in every case be paid at the time of the same being posted, either in money or by the proper colonial postage stamp or stamps being affixed thereto.

14. If any packet sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be sent otherwise than in conformity with the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinbefore contained, every such packet shall and may (except as hereinafter otherwise provided) be detained and opened and shall be returned or given up to the sender thereof, and every such packet on being so returned or given up shall, at the option of the Postmaster-General, be either free of postage or be charged with any rate of postage he may think fit, not exceeding the postage to which it would have been liable as a letter, and such postage (if any) shall be paid by the sender of the packet.

15. If any packet sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be posted in the United Kingdom having thereon or affixed thereto a stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under and by virtue of this Warrant, but not less in amount than the single rate of postage chargeable under the provisions of this Warrant, on a packet not exceeding four ounces in weight, every such last-mentioned packet shall be forwarded, charged with the amount of the difference between the value of the stamp or stamps so being thereon or affixed thereto, and the postage to which such packet would be liable as aforesaid, together with a further and additional rate of postage equal in amount to such single rate of postage as aforesaid.

16. In order to prevent any obstacles to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, any officer of the Post Office may delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, either for the space of twenty-four hours after the time at which the same ought to be dispatched in due course of the post, or (at his option) until the dispatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought, in due course of the post, to be forwarded by him.

17. In all cases in which any question shall arise whether any packet, or any pattern or sample contained therein, transmitted under or by virtue of this warrant, is entitled to the privileges of this Warrant, and to be so transmitted within the intent and meaning thereof, such question shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final and conclusive upon all parties.

18. The term "Australia," used in this Warrant, shall be construed to mean and include the colonies hereinafter named ; that is to say : New South Wales. Tasmania, Western Australia, Victoria, South Australia, and New Zealand, but shall neither mean nor include the colony of Queensland ; and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-six.

19. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, revoke, or modify any of the rates of postage hereby fixed, or any of the regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time may appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to paid.

20. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable upon, for, or in respect of letters, newspapers, Parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post; and by the same Act powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of postage therein mentioned.

And whereas further powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas it is expedient to authorize the transmission by the post between the United Kingdom and Labuan of certain packets, and for that purpose to make certain regulations in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore-recited Acts of Parliament, and each of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners (by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided), order and direct as follows ; that is to say :

1. All packets consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize, of no intrinsic value, posted in any part of the United Kingdom addressed to Labuan, or posted in Labuan addressed to any part of the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Labuan, by British packet boat, subject to the several rates of postage hereinafter mentioned (that is to say):

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, an uniform single rate of postage (British and colonial combined), of four pence ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, for the transmission thereof respectively as aforesaid, the several progressive and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

2. All packets consisting of patterns or samples of merchandise, of no intrinsic value, posted in any part of the United Kingdom, addressed to Labuan, or posted in Labuan, addressed to any part of the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Labuan in closed mails, viâ France (the sea conveyance being by British packet boat) subject to the several rates of postage hereinafter mentioned (that is to say) :—

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, an uniform single rate of postage) British, colonial, and foreign combined) of sixpence ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, for such transmission thereof respectively as aforesaid, the several progressive and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

3. Every packet which shall be transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, if exceeding four ounces in weight, shall be subject to the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned (that is to say) :—

On every such packet, if exceeding four ounces, and not exceeding one half of a pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, two rates of postage ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding one half of a pound and not exceeding one pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid four rates of postage ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and not exceeding one pound and one half of another pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid six rates of postage ;

And for every additional half of a pound in weight of any such packet above the weight of one pound and one half of another pound, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two additional rates of postage, and every fractional part of such additional half of a pound in weight shall be charged as an additional half of a pound in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding four ounces in weight ;

4. Every packet which shall be transmitted by the post, under the authority of this Warrant, shall be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereinafter contained (that is to say) :—

5. No such packet which in length, or breadth, or depth shall exceed the dimensions of two feet shall be transmitted by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant.

6. No pattern or sample, being of any intrinsic value, or being an article or thing of a saleable nature or having a value of its own apart from its mere use as a pattern or sample, shall be transmitted by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant.

7. There shall be no enclosure, sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant, sent in or with any such packet.

8. There shall be no writing or printing in or upon any such packet, or on the cover thereof, except the name and address of the person for whom it is intended, the name and address of the sender thereof, a trade mark, and numbers and prices.

9. All such packets shall be sent in covers open at the ends, so as to be easy of examination. Nevertheless, samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles and things as cannot be sent in open covers, may be enclosed in bags of linen, paper, or of other material, tied at the neck, but bags so closed that they cannot be readily opened, even although they be transparent, shall not be used for that purpose.

10. Every packet transmitted by the post under this Warrant, and posted in the United Kingdom, shall be put into the Post Office at such hours in the day, and under all such regulations, as the Postmaster-General may appoint.

11. The postage of all such packets as aforesaid posted in the United Kingdom, shall in every case be paid at the time of the same being posted, not in money, but by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet, near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon under or by virtue of this Warrant.

12. The postage of all such packets as aforesaid, posted in Labuan, shall in every case be paid at the time of the same being posted, either in money or by the proper colonial postage stamp or stamps being affixed thereto.

13. If any packet sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall in length or depth or width exceed the dimensions of two feet, or shall consist wholly of patterns or samples of any intrinsic value, as in the sixth clause of this Warrant mentioned, or if there shall be any writing or printing in or upon any such packet, or on the cover thereof (except the name and address of the person for whom it is intended, the name and address of the sender thereof, a trade mark and numbers and prices), or if any such packets shall not be sent in covers open at the ends so as to be easy of examination (except samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles and things as cannot be sent in open covers, and which may be enclosed in bags of linen, paper; or of other material tied at the neck), or in case of bags being used, if such bags shall be so closed that they cannot be readily opened, every such packet shall be chargeable and shall be treated in all respects as a letter.

14. If any packet sent or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall contain any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant, every such enclosure may be taken out by any officer of the Post Office and either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be forwarded to the address on the packet charged not only with the full rates of postage as an unpaid letter, but also with a further and additional rate of postage equal in amount to the single rate of postage chargeable under the provisions of this Warrant on a packet not exceeding four ounces in weight, and the remainder of the packet, if duly prepaid by stamps, may be forwarded to the place of its address without any extra charge.

last-mentioned packet shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the difference between the postage so paid thereon or postage stamp or stamps so being thereon or affixed thereto, and the postage to which such packet would be liable as aforesaid, together with a further and additional rate of postage of four pence; but if any such packet shall be posted in the United Kingdom or Labuan without any postage having been paid thereon, or without having thereon or affixed thereto any postage stamp, every such respective packet shall be forwarded charged with a postage of double the amount of postage to which it would have been liable, under and by virtue of this Warrant, if the postage had been paid when posted.

16. In order to prevent any obstacles to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, any officer of the Post Office may delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant for the space of twenty-four hours after the time at which the same ought to be dispatched in due course of the post, whenever it may be necessary so to do, (or at his option) until the dispatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought, in due course of the post, to be forwarded by him.

17. In all cases in which any question shall hereafter arise whether any packet, or any pattern or sample contained therein, transmitted under and by virtue of this Warrant, is entitled to the privileges of this Warrant, and to be so transmitted within the intent and meaning thereof, such question shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final and conclusive upon all parties.

18. The term "weight," used in this Warrant, shall mean British weight; and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-six.

19. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, revoke, or modify any of the rates of postage hereby fixed, or any of the regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time may appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

20. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the thirtieth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of JANUARY 6, 1865.

Foreign Office, January 4, 1865.

EARL RUSSELL has received from Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires in Mexico copy of the following Decree issued by the Mexican Government : —

(Translation.)

MAXIMILIAN I, EMPEROR OF MEXICO.

Considering that, while carrying out the greatest economies in the budget, it is still necessary to increase the public revenue ;

In view of the deliberations of the Commission of Finances and of our Council of State :

We have decreed and decree what follows :

Art. 1. The diminution of fifty per cent. on importation duties established for merchandise imported through Vera Cruz, by Article 2 of the Decree of May 1, 1863, and extended by subsequent orders to all other ports, is discontinued provisionally and until the Customs Tariffs of the Empire undergo successive diminutions in conformity with the true principles of the political economy of our time.

In consequence, there remain in force the arrangements of the general establishment of maritime and frontier Custom-houses which existed at the above-mentioned time, in so far as they have not been since reformed.

Art. 2. For the sake of justice, the present Decree shall take effect at the following periods, dating from its publication in this capital :

One month for steam-vessels coming from the continent or islands of America ;

Two months for those coming from Europe ;

For sailing vessels one month and a half and three months respectively.

Our Minister of Finance is charged with the execution of the present Decree, which shall be deposited in the archives of the Empire, and published in the official journal, so as to be made known to those whom it concerns.

Done at our Palace of Mexico, the 23rd November, 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 7th day of January, 1865.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council was pleased to order with reference to the representations of the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that burials be forthwith discontinued in the burial-ground attached to the workhouse of the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch.

Also that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued (except as is herein otherwise directed), as follows, viz.:

CHAPEL HADDLESEY, BIRKIN, YORKSHIRE.—From and after the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the burial ground, with the exception of now existing family vaults and brick graves. WATH-UPON-DEARNE.—Forthwith in the church; and from and after the first of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the churchyard, with the exception of now existing vaults and brick graves which can be opened without disturbing human remains, and in which each coffin shall be entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented. PERSHORE.—In the churchyard of Saint Andrew, and in the Baptist Chapel burial ground on the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, except in now existing vaults and brick graves in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately enclosed by stone or brick work properly cemented; also burial to be forthwith discontinued in the churchyard of Holy Cross, with the like exceptions, and except so far as is in accordance with the observance of the regulations for new burial grounds. PRESCOT.—In the churchyard of Saint Thomas, Eccleston, in the parish of Prescott, at Saint Helen's, on the first of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and in the meantime one body only to be buried in each grave.

Also, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in the under-mentioned churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed, as follows, viz.:

In the churchyard of Gildersome to the thirtieth of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five. In the churchyard of the parish of Hogs-thorpe, Lincolnshire, to the thirtieth of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five. In the churchyard of All Saints, Fulham, Middlesex, to the thirtieth of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five. In the churchyard and in the Wesleyan and Independent Burial-grounds, Middlewich, to the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five. In the churchyard of Saint John, Hensingham, to the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

And whereas by an Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, it was directed that, with certain exceptions, burials be discontinued, amongst other places, in the churchyard of Etruria, and in the burial-grounds of Hope Chapel, of the Bethesda and Brunswick Chapels, and of the Tabernacle Chapel, Stoke-upon-Trent; and whereas it seems fit that the said Order be varied so far as regards burials in the said churchyard and burial-grounds:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that interments, except in vaults and walled graves to be used in the manner directed by the said Order of the twenty-first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, be discontinued in the said churchyard and burial-grounds, on and after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six; and that in the meantime the conditions specified in the said Order, under which burials are allowed in the said churchyard and burial-grounds, in graves other than vaults and walled graves, be observed:

And whereas by an Order in Council, bearing date the sixth of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, burials were directed to be discontinued from and after the sixteenth of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven (with certain exceptions), amongst other places, in the churchyard of Saint Mark's, Shelton, Staffordshire; and whereas it seems fit that the said Order be varied so far as regards burials in the said churchyard:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that interments in the said churchyard, except in vaults and walled graves, to be used on the conditions specified in the said Order of the sixth of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, be discontinued on and after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six; and that in the meantime the conditions specified in the said Order, under which burials are allowed in graves other than vaults and walled graves in the said churchyard, be observed.

Also, that the churchwardens or such other persons as may have the care of the vaults in the undermentioned church do adopt or cause to be adopted, the following measures, viz.:

That the coffins in the vaults under ST. MARY'S CHURCH, Ealing, Middlesex, be covered with earth and a layer of concrete of suitable thickness.

Also, that the representation of the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that no new burial-ground should be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that interments in the same should be discontinued, with the following modifications; viz.:

HESSLE.—Forthwith in the church; and from and after the thirty-first of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the churchyard of the said parish, with the exception of now existing vaults and family earthen graves which can be opened without exposing human remains. LEEDS.—Forthwith in the Roman Catholic Chapel of Saint Patrick. LUDFORD, LUDLOW.—Forthwith in the church; and in that part of the churchyard between the church and Ludford House, and in the rest of the churchyard, except in graves not less than five feet deep, and which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or the disturbance of undecayed remains. EYE, NORTHAMPTONSHIRE, —From and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the churchyard, with the exception of now existing family vaults, brick graves and earthen family graves which can be opened without exposing human remains.

should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twentieth day of February next.

Foreign Office, January 7, 1865.

The Queen has been pleased to approve of Mr. Alfred Lloyd Fox as Consul at Falmouth, Mr. Albert Hugo Adolf Zeden as Consul at Liverpool, and Mr. Peter Romyn as Consul at Hartlepool, Stockton-on-Tees, and Middlesborough, for His Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Oldenburgh.

The Queen has also been pleased to approve of Mr. William L. Raymond as Consul at Leeds for the United States of America.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
January 9, 1865.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of the following Programme of an International Exhibition of Objects connected with Fisheries, and which is to be held at Bergen during the present year :—

Programme of the International Exhibition of Produce, Instruments, and other Objects connected with Fisheries, to be held at Bergen, in Norway, from the 1st of August to the 16th of September, 1865.

THIS exhibition is to be held by the Municipal Authorities of Bergen, with assistance of the Royal Norwegian Government, its object being to make generally known the various kinds of produce of fishing, and the means by which the fisheries, and the branches of industry connected with them, are exercised in various countries.

In accordance to the exhibition held at Amsterdam, in 1861, this exhibition will include :—

1. All fisheries in the sea, from the whale and seal fishery to the smallest fishery along the coast.
2. All fisheries in gulfs, bays, friths, and mouths of rivers.
3. All fisheries in lakes, large and small rivers, and canals.
4. The artificial increase of sea and river fish.

Of the various fisheries named above, are wanted :

- a.* All articles derived from fish, those used as victuals as well as those which are employed in agriculture, in fabrics, or by manual industry.
- b.* The instruments used in preparing the produce of fishing, as in the curing, salting, etc., the fish, or models of these instruments.
- c.* Models or designs of the buildings or implements in or about which the preparation is made, as smoking-houses, steam-cooking-apparatus, instruments for drying the fish, etc.
- d.* The objects needed for the conservation of the fish, as salt, brine, etc.
- e.* The instruments for the expedition and preservation of the fish, as tuns, baskets, boxes, etc.
- f.* The various ships and boats used by fishermen, with all their rigging, and also the various parts of the rigging separately.

g. Models of the objects named in f.

h. All articles belonging to the outfit of a fishing ship or a fishing boat, as tuns, baskets, and the objects to preserve the fish, the bait, etc.

i. All instruments used in taking fish in the widest sense, with the materials out of which these instruments are made, and those which are used in tanning the nets, or in any other way preserving the instruments used in the fishery.

k. The artificial bait, with all which is needed for the preparation and preservation of natural bait.

l. Models of the rooms inhabited by fishermen in houses or ships on the fishing-places, garments, and provisions.

m. Popular writings concerning the fishing-industry.

The management and ordering of the exhibition is, by the Municipality of Bergen, assigned to the undersigned Committee, who hereby earnestly invites all shipowners, fishermen, merchants, and industrial men, who may be willing to contribute objects to this exhibition, to address themselves by letter, before the 1st of July, 1865, to the "Committee for the International Exhibition of Produces connected with Fishery, at Bergen, in Norway," with the mention of the nature of the objects they mean to send in.

The Committee, as well as every member of the same, is ready to give all information that might be wanted.

It is desirable that the objects to be exhibited, which may be sent in before the 20th of July, 1865, should be accompanied by a statement of the prices for which they can be sold, and, if possible, by a short description of their nature, object, and use.

The freight by sending forth and back the objects destined to the exhibition is paid by the Committee.

Board of Trade, Whitehall,
January 18, 1865.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Ambassador at St. Petersburg, enclosing a copy of regulations relating to quarantine in Russian ports, and of which the following is a translation :—

1. THE protection of the coasts of the Baltic against the introduction of the plague is entrusted to the Swedish Quarantine Establishment at Kinsö, in the Cattegat, which is required to take, for the disinfection of vessels destined for Russian ports, for their cargoes, crews, and, in general, everything on board, the same precautions as are prescribed by the Swedish statutes for vessels entering Swedish ports.

2. All vessels entering Russian ports upon the Baltic, from whencesoever arriving (those only being excepted which are specified in Art. 9 of the present regulation), are required to be provided with a clean bill of health, delivered in the port of departure, and signed by the Russian Consul or Consular Agent, and in the case where no such officer exists, by the Swedish Consul, and failing this last, by one of the other Consuls to be designated by the Minister for Foreign Affairs.

3. In cases where a vessel shall have touched at several ports, the sanitary condition of each port shall be noted upon the bill of health by the Russian Consul, Agent, or other authorised person.

4. In cases of complete absence of the plague, such absence being declared and recognized by the Swedish Government notifications, all vessels, from whencesoever they may arrive and if permitted by the Swedish quarantine regulations for Swedish ports, may repair directly to the Russian ports of the Baltic, where they will be admitted without delay upon presenting the clean bill of health required by the preceding Articles. In the event of the non-production of such document they will not be admitted.

Note. Captains of vessels destined for the Russian ports of the Baltic are required to have on board a copy of the Swedish quarantine regulations in force (Royal Ordinance of the 20th September, 1859), the 4th section of which clearly sets forth the circumstances under which vessels may proceed direct to the Swedish ports for which they are destined, and those which make necessary their touching first at Kinsö for examination and disinfection.

5. In time of plague, or suspicion of plague, when the Swedish Government notification declares certain places or ports infected or suspected, all vessels coming from such places or ports are required to touch at the quarantine establishment of Kinsö, in the Cattegat, to undergo quarantine, and the processes of disinfection, in conformity with the rules of that establishment; and, upon continuing their voyage to the Russian ports of the Baltic, they will be admitted to those ports only upon presentation of a bill of free pratique from the Kinsö establishment.

6. Vessels leaving healthy ports (which are recognized as such by the Swedish Government notifications) in time of plague, or suspected plague, may, even under these circumstances, if provided with their clean bill, proceed directly to the Baltic ports without stopping at Kinsö.

Upon arriving at any of these ports they will be required to undergo examination as to their communications with other vessels at sea since their departure from the last port where they received the consular signature, up to their arrival in a Baltic port.

If, upon interrogation, it appear that no meeting doubtful in nature has taken place upon the voyage, then the vessel will be admitted without delay.

Under contrary circumstances all communication with land will be interdicted for a certain time by authority of the port; or, in cases where serious doubts exist, the vessel will be sent back to Kinsö, to be replaced in quarantine by the Consul or Commercial Agent of Russia.

The examination of the vessel, and generally the verification of the bills of health, is undertaken by the commander of the cruiser when he receives the passports and other ship's papers.

7. Consuls and agents are required to be careful that no vessel shall possess more than one bill of health. Should the bill be old or dirty, or entirely covered with signatures, it should be cancelled, and a new one given to the master, upon which the former ports of departure should be briefly enumerated, together with a statement of the principal remarks on the previous bill.

All the Russian Custom-houses and Customs-barriers, as well as the commanders of the revenue cruisers and the river authorities of the Baltic Sea and its gulfs, should be provided with models of the clean bills of health which the Swedish Government delivers to vessels to certify that their crews and cargoes have been disinfected and are free from risk, together with impressions of the seals used for these bills, and forms of the certificates delivered to the vessels which are not obliged to touch at Kinsö.

9. Vessels which have laden cargo at the foreign or Russian ports of the Baltic, or vessels in ballast from the same ports, are admitted to the Russian Baltic Ports without quarantine certificates.

10. For facility of distinction, all vessels proceeding from the North Sea to the Russian Baltic ports, should carry a green flag upon one of their masts, and are required to present their bills, during the voyage, to the commander of the first revenue cruiser they may encounter, as well as to the other commanders of such cruisers who may require their production.

11. Masters of vessels arriving at a port without bills, with irregular bills, or with bills showing erasures, or with interlineations, and who by reason of their port of departure are bound to produce bills in due form, are liable to a fine of 25 roubles, if unable to prove that they have lost their bills by violence, or other causes beyond control. A similar fine of 25 roubles will be imposed upon masters of vessels whose bills do not exhibit the signatures of Consuls, Russian Agents, or other authorised persons, setting forth the sanitary condition of the ports at which their vessels have touched.

12. Should the master insist upon the regularity of his bill the commander of the revenue cruiser shall immediately seize it, together with his papers, and forward them to the superior river authority, at the same time keeping the vessel at a distance and interdicting communication with her.

13. Upon the arrival of vessels at their destination their bills of health should be delivered by the commanders of the revenue cruisers to the Custom-house authorities to be cancelled.

14. (Relates to Russian vessels of war).

15. Consuls are required to communicate, without delay, to the Minister of Foreign Affairs and to the department of Foreign Commerce, detailed information with respect to the exhibition of symptoms of any contagious disease in their districts.

VENEZUELA AND GUAYANA.

NOTIFICATION.

Foreign Office, January 20, 1865.

IT is hereby notified that Earl Russell, K.G., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has received from Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Carácas, a despatch, transmitting a communication which he had received from the Foreign Office of the Venezuelan Government, announcing that the blockade of the ports and coasts from the mouth of the Vagres to Navios, the canals formed by the Delta of the Orinoco, and the banks of that river to Ciudad Bolivar, had been raised, and also transmitting a copy and translation of a decree of the Venezuelan Government, raising the blockade of the said ports and places.

The following are copies of the communication addressed to Her Majesty's said Chargé d'Affaires from the Foreign Office at Carácas, and of the Decree of the Venezuelan Government, both above referred to:—

(Translation.)

UNITED STATES OF VENEZUELA.

Foreign Office, Caracas, December 14, 1864.

ON the 13th of September last Her Britannic Majesty's Legation was informed that, by a Decree of the 13th of that month, the ports and coasts from the mouth of the Vagres to Navios, the canals formed by the Delta of the Orinoco, and the margins of that river to Ciudad Bolivar, were declared closed and blockaded.

The Undersigned has now to communicate to Mr. Edwardes that the treaty of peace concluded in Puerto Cabello, on the 24th of October last, between the Commissioners of the Great Citizen Marshal and those of the Executive of Guayana, having been ratified by both parties, the above-mentioned Decree is repealed in all its parts.

The Undersigned, &c.,

(Signed) RAFAEL SEIJAS.

The Honourable R. Edwardes.

Board of Trade, Whitehall,
January 26, 1865.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Helsingfors, stating that rye, corn, oats, wheat and barley, flour, grits, malt, peas and potatoes, may be imported into, and exported from, the Grand Duchy of Finland, free of Customs duty.

(126.)

Board of Trade, Whitehall,
January 26, 1865.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the following copy of an Amended Regulation relative to Trade with the Southern States, which has been received from Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Washington : —

AMENDED REGULATIONS, SERIES OF JULY 29, 1864,

No. LV.

*Treasury Department,
December 22, 1864.*

Regulation LV, concerning Commercial Inter-course, series of July 29, 1864, is hereby amended as follows :

LV. All existing authorities to purchase products in insurrectionary States are hereby revoked, except that products purchased in good faith under such authorities, and paid for in whole or in part, prior to the 29th day of July, 1864, may be transported to market as before the passage of the Act of July 2, 1864, subject to the following limitations and conditions and included in the following classes :

1st. Those which have been wholly paid for.

2d. Those upon which part payment has been made, coupled with a legal obligation to pay the residue, so that the articles purchased are at the risk of the purchaser, and such payment is in no wise dependent upon their delivery.

3d. Where part payment has been made without such obligation as to the balance, so much of the products alleged to have been purchased, as the amount actually advanced will pay for at the stipulated price.

The original permits must be produced in such case, and proof furnished to the satisfaction of a proper permit officer and a Supervising or Assistant Special Agent for the Agency or District in which proof is to be made that the property desired to be moved comes within one of the classes named above, and that the privilege conferred by the original permit has been in no way violated or abused—a certificate of which facts must be endorsed upon the permit over their official signature, which permit, so endorsed, will then be considered as revived and in full force, to the extent specified in the endorsement, in accordance with this rule.

W. P. FESSENDEN,
Secretary of the Treasury.

WHEREAS it appears to me, the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that the use of Locomotives unless restricted as hereinafter mentioned on or along the roads in the townships of Thornthwaite with Padside and Menwith with Darley, in the West Riding of the county of York, is dangerous and inconvenient to the public :

I do hereby, by virtue of the provisions of "The Locomotive Act, 1861," by this Order under my hand, prohibit the use of any kind of Locomotive whatever propelled by steam or any other than animal power on the above roads except between the hours of twelve o'clock at night and six o'clock in the morning.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this

(Signed) G. Grey.

GONZALEZ.

Admiralty, January 23, 1865.

IN accordance with the provisions of the Harbour Transfer Act of 1862, published in the London Gazette of the 5th May, 1863, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty hereby give notice, that the boundaries of their jurisdiction over the Naval Station at Portsmouth is, from and after this date, to be changed as follows, – so much as is comprised within the following limits, viz :—

On the east, a line drawn from the Coast Guard Station at $1\frac{1}{4}$ nautical miles to the westward of Eastoke Point, and running eastward of the Dean Tail Buoy and Nab Light Vessel, in a direction S. $\frac{2}{3}$ W. (true), for a distance of $7\frac{1}{4}$ nautical miles.

On the south, a line passing southward of the S.E. Buoy of the Princeessa Shoal, in a direction W. $\frac{1}{4}$ N. (true), to high water mark at Culver Cliff, on the eastern side of the Isle of Wight.

On the south west, the high water mark of the eastern and northern shores of the Isle of Wight from Culver Cliff to Old Castle Point.

On the west, a line drawn from Old Castle Point to a Point named Hill Head.

The northern boundary is the line of high water mark between Hill Head and the Coast Guard Station as aforesaid, near Eastoke Point, including Portsmouth and Langston Harbours.

By command of their Lordships,
C. PAGET.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, for the regulation of the duties of postage certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and were made chargeable and payable upon, for, and in respect of letters, newspapers, Parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers, transmitted and forwarded by the post. and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post. And by the said Act power was given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury (amongst other things), from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage, payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters, or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and, from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any of such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which might be payable were to be paid.

And whereas the provision fixing the maximum weight of letters to be sent by the post in the said before recited Act was repealed, and further powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury in that behalf by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers vested in them in and by the said two before-mentioned Acts of Parliament, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, did, by two certain Warrants in writing respectively, under the hands of two of them the said Commissioners (by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided) bearing date respectively the 28th day of March, 1860, and the 18th day of May, 1861, fix certain rates of postage and make certain regulations under and subject to which packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial, or foreign, and packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament posted in the United Kingdom addressed to Gothenburgh, or to any of the several places within the Kingdom of Sweden, mentioned and set forth in the schedule to the now reciting Warrant of the 18th day of May, 1861, annexed, or posted at Gothenburgh, or at any of the places in the said schedule to the said now reciting Warrant of the 18th day of May, 1861, annexed, respectively mentioned, within the Kingdom of Sweden, addressed to the United Kingdom, might be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Gothenburgh (the sea conveyance being by British or foreign packet boat direct).

And whereas it is expedient to extend the transmission by the post between the United Kingdom and Gothenburgh of packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, and other printed papers, to other places within the Kingdom of Sweden not included in either of the said two hereinbefore recited Warrants, and for that purpose to repeal the said two last-mentioned Warrants, and to make such other rates and regulations in lieu thereof as are hereinafter mentioned and contained.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers vested in us in and by the said two before-mentioned Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners (by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided) order, direct, and declare as follows :—

1. The said two hereinbefore recited Warrants, bearing date respectively the 28th day of March, 1860, and the 18th day of May, 1861, and every clause, matter, and thing therein contained shall be and the same are hereby respectively repealed.

2. All packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial, or foreign, and all packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament posted in the United Kingdom addressed to Gothenburgh, or to any of the several places within the Kingdom of Sweden, mentioned and set forth in the schedule to this Warrant annexed, or posted at Gothenburgh, or at any of the several places within the Kingdom of Sweden, mentioned and set forth in the schedule to this Warrant annexed, addressed to the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Gothenburgh (the sea conveyance being by British or foreign packet boat direct); and all such respective packets shall be transmitted between the United Kingdom and Gothenburgh in conformity with and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinafter mentioned and contained; and the single rate of postage (British and foreign combined) for the transmission of such packet from the United Kingdom to Gothenburgh, or from Gothenburgh to the United Kingdom as aforesaid, shall be the sum of three pence. And all such respective packets so transmitted and chargeable with postage as aforesaid, shall be subject to the several progressive and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned, that is to say :—

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged taken, and paid for the transmission thereof respectively as aforesaid, the uniform single rate of postage (British and foreign combined) of three pence ;

And on every such packet exceeding four ounces in weight there shall be charged, taken, and paid progressive and additional rates of postage as follows, that is to say :—

On every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight and not exceeding eight ounces in weight, two rates of postage ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding eight ounces and not exceeding one pound in weight, four rates of postage ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and not exceeding one pound and one half of another pound in weight, six rates of postage ;

And for every additional half of a pound in weight of any such packet above the weight of one pound and one half of another pound, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two additional rates of postage, and every fractional part of such additional half of a pound in weight shall be charged as an additional half of a pound in weight. And each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding four ounces in weight ;

No such packet which in length or breadth or depth shall exceed the dimensions of two feet shall be forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant ;

The terms “books, publications, or works of literature or art,” in this Warrant used, shall, for the purposes of this Warrant, mean and comprise all such articles as in their general character are either literary or consist of printed, written, engraved, or lithographed matter (although not strictly literary), including books (whether printed, written, or plain) publications or compilations (whether in print or in manuscript), almanacks, printed or lithographed letters, and such artistic productions as prints, maps (whether on paper or canvas, or cloth, and whether printed or written), and photographs, when not on glass or in frames containing glass, and any description of paper, parchment, or vellum (whether printed, lithographed, written upon, or plain, or any mixture of the four), together with any binding, mounting, or covering of, or upon, or belonging to, any such article or production, or any portion thereof, or of or belonging to any paper, parchment, or vellum, and including also any cases or rollers of prints or maps, book markers (whether of paper or otherwise), pencils, pens, or other things usually appertaining to any such article or production, paper, parchment, or vellum, or necessary for its safe transmission, which shall be sent in the same packet with any such article or production to which they or it shall belong. And all letters, notices, and other communications, whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum, partly printed or partly lithographed, and partly written, which if wholly written would not be considered letters or communications in the nature of letters: Provided nevertheless that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorise the sending by the post under the provisions of this Warrant of any letter, notice, or other communication (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed or partly lithographed, and partly written, which, if wholly written, would be considered a letter or a communication in the nature of a letter ; nor of any patterns or books of patterns, or papers of patterns of any article or thing whatsoever, unless such patterns shall consist merely of paper ; nor of any packet consisting of or containing any photographs, drawings, prints, or other contents, which may be obviously of an obscene character ;

Every packet transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant shall be sent open at the ends or sides, and either without a cover or in a cover or envelope open at the ends or sides ;

No packet transmitted by the post, under the authority of this Warrant, shall contain any written letter, either closed or open, or any written communication in the nature of a letter, either closed or open (whether such letter or communication be addressed to, or intended for the person to whom the packet shall be directed, or any other person), nor any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant, sent in or with any such packet, nor shall there be any written letter or written communication in the nature of a letter in or upon any such packet, or on the cover or envelope thereof ;

Every packet transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant and posted in the United Kingdom shall be put into the Post Office at such hours in the day, and under all such regulations as the Postmaster-General may appoint ;

Upon every packet transmitted by the post, under the authority of this Warrant, which shall be posted in the United Kingdom, the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted.

3. Every letter, notice, or other communication (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum) partly printed, or partly lithographed, and partly written, which, if wholly written, would be considered a letter or a communication in the nature of a letter, sent by the post, shall be deemed and considered to be a letter, and shall be chargeable with postage as a letter.

4. If any question shall arise whether any such letter, notice, or other communication as last hereinbefore mentioned, is entitled to the privilege of a printed paper, so far as respects the transmission thereof by the post, or of being sent by the post under the authority of this Warrant, the same shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

5. If any packet sent or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the authority of this Warrant, shall in length or breadth, or depth, exceed the dimensions of two feet, or if any such packet, or the cover or envelope thereof, shall not be open at the ends or sides, or if any such packet shall be sent otherwise than in conformity with the terms, conditions, and regulations hereinbefore contained, every such packet shall and may be detained and opened, and, at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned, or given up to the sender thereof, and every such packet on being so returned or given up, shall, at the option of the Postmaster-General, be either free of postage, or be charged with any rate of postage he may think fit, not exceeding the postage to which it would have been liable as a letter.

6. If any packet sent or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the authority of this Warrant from the United Kingdom to Gothenburgh (any such packet posted in London, and sent from any department, or office, in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty, which shall keep a postage account with the General Post Office in London, and the postage thereof being charged in such account only excepted), shall be posted in the United Kingdom without any postage being paid thereon, or with a postage paid thereon less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet shall be liable under and by virtue of the regulations hereinbefore contained, every such packet shall be detained and opened, and, at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be dealt with and chargeable in like manner as is hereinbefore directed with respect to any packet not open at the ends or sides, or which may exceed in length, or breadth, or depth the dimensions of two feet.

7. All packets transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant (other than packets posted in or addressed to Gothenburgh), shall be subject and liable, in addition to the postage imposed by this Warrant, to any other rate or duty of foreign postage or payment which may be imposed thereupon for the transmission thereof between Gothenburgh and any other place within the Kingdom of Sweden to or from which the same shall or may be sent or conveyed.

8. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respect as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty.

9. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the orders, directions, regulations or conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations or conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time may appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

!0. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
February 3, 1865.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the following copy of a Proclamation forwarded by Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Washington, respecting the Port of Saint Albans, Vermont :—

OFFICIAL.

THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas the Act of Congress of the 28th of September, 1850, entitled "An Act to create additional collection districts in the State of California, and to change the existing districts therein, and to modify the existing collection districts in the United States," extends to merchandise warehoused under bond, the privilege of being exported to the British North American Provinces adjoining the United States, in the manner prescribed in the Act of Congress of the 3rd of March, 1845, which designates certain frontier ports through which merchandise may be exported, and further provides "that such other ports situated on the frontiers of the United States, adjoining the British North American Provinces, as may hereafter be found expedient, may have extended to them the like privileges on the recommendation of the Secretary of the Treasury, and proclamation duly made by the President of the United States, specially designating the ports to which the afore-said privileges are to be extended."

Now, therefore, I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States of America, in accordance with the recommendation with the Secretary of the Treasury, do hereby declare and proclaim that the port of St. Albans, in the State of Vermont, is, and shall be entitled to all the privileges in regard to the exportation of merchandise in bond to the British North American Provinces adjoining the United States, which are extended to the ports enumerated in the seventh section of the Act of Congress of the 3rd of March, 1845, aforesaid, from and after the date of this proclamation.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this tenth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, (L.S.) and of the Independence of the United States the eighty-ninth.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

By the President,

WILLIAM H. SEWARD,

Secretary of State.

(170).

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
February 3, 1865.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Greek Royal Decree, assimilating, with certain exceptions, the Customs' Tariff of the Ionian Islands to that which is now in force in Greece.

The following are the exceptions maintained by the Decree in question :—

Export duties on currants and oils, 18 per cent.

Export duties on wines, 6 per cent. ad valorem.
Avélanèdes (Valonia), exported from Corfu,
6 per cent. ad valorem.

Soap, exported from Zante, 8 per cent. ad valorem.

Native produce and manufactures exported,
 $1\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. ad valorem

The existing import duties on wines and spirits transported from one Island to another are maintained.

It is not permitted to import salt from the Islands into the ports of Continental Greece.

WHEREAS it appears to me, the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that the use of Locomotives, unless restricted as hereinafter mentioned, on or along the highways in the Division of Bulmer West, in the North Riding of the county of York, is dangerous and inconvenient to the public :

I do hereby, by virtue of the provisions of "The Locomotive Act, 1861," by this Order under my hand, prohibit the use of any kind of Locomotive whatever, propelled by steam or any other than animal power, on the above roads, except between the hours of twelve o'clock at night and six o'clock in the morning.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 2nd day of February, 1865.

(Signed)

G. GREY.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of JANUARY 24,
1865.

Duchy of Lancaster, February 4, 1865.

THE Queen has been this day pleased to appoint William Preston, Esq., of Ellet Grange, and of Rock House, to be Sheriff of the County Palatine of Lancaster for the year ensuing.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 4th day of February, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable William Nathaniel Massey was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

Arthur Helps.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 4th day of February, 1865.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council was pleased to order, upon the petition of the Justices of the Peace in and for the county of Durham, in quarter sessions assembled, that Saint John's Chapel, in Weardale, shall be an additional polling place for the said southern division of the county of Durham.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 4th day of February, 1865.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council was pleased to approve the representation duly prepared (as set forth in this Gazette) by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England—

For altering and extending the boundaries of the district chapelry of Saint Jude, Massingham, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon.

Also the representation of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Turncroft, in the chapelry district of the Holy Trinity, Over Darwen, sometime part of the parish of Blackburn, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, to be named "The District Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Turncroft."

Also a representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Paul, Finsbury, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

Also a representation for altering the boundaries of the district chapelry of Saint Mary, Laister Dyke, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Laister Dyke."

Also a representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Cefn, in that part of the parish of Saint Asaph, in the diocese of Saint Asaph, which lies in the county of Denbigh, to be named "The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Cefn."

Also a representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Emmanuel, situate in Clarke-street, in the out-parish of Saint Philip and Saint Jacob, Bristol, in the county of Gloucester, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, to be named "The Consolidated Chapelry of the Unity, Bristol."

Also a scheme of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

Also a representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate at Bwlch-y-cibau, in the parish of Meifod, in the county of Montgomery, and in the diocese of Saint Asaph.

Also a representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate at Arthington, in the parish of Adel, otherwise called Addle, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint Peter, Arthington."

Also a representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Saviour, situate in London-street, in the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Upper Charlotte-street, Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

Also a representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate in the parish of Saint Clement, in the county of Cornwall, and in the diocese of Exeter, to be named "The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Truro."

Also a representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, situate at Higher Walton, in the parochial chapelry of Walton-le-Dale, in the parish of Blackburn, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, to be named "The District Chapelry of All Saints, Higher Walton."

Also a representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate in Great Windmill-street, in the parish of Saint James, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

Also a representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate at Ottershaw, in the new parish of Addlestone, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester, to be named "The District Chapelry of Ottershaw."

Also a representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate in the parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, in the county of York, and in the dioese of Ripon, to be named "The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Bradford."

Also a scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

Also a scheme for authorising the sale and disposal of certain property now vested in the said Commissioners.

Also a certain other scheme for authorising the sale and disposal of certain property vested in the said Commissioners.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 4th day of February, 1865.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council was pleased to order with reference to the representations of the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued (except as is herein otherwise directed), as follows, viz.:

TAUNTON.—Forthwith, wholly in the church of Saint James, and in the churchyard, except so far as is compatible with the Regulations for new Burial-grounds (omitting No. III); also interments in the old part of the churchyard to be limited to the burial of the widowers, widows, parents, and children of those already buried therein. SUTTON FOREST, YORK.—Forthwith in the church, and from and after the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the churchyard, with the exception of now existing family brick graves. DENTON, LANCASHIRE.—Forthwith in the churchyard of Christchurch, except so far as is compatible with the Official Regulations for new Burial-grounds, omitting that numbered III.

Also, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in the under-mentioned churchyard be postponed, as follows, viz.:

In the churchyard of the parish of Swanscombe, Dartford, Kent, to the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 4th day of February, 1865.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council was pleased to order that the representation of the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that no new burial-ground should be opened in the parish of Upton-on-Severn, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that interments in the undermentioned parishes should be discontinued with the following modifications; viz.:

UPTON - ON - SEVERN.—Forthwith in the church, and on the thirty-first December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the old and new churchyards, and in the Baptist burial-ground, except in now existing vaults and walledgraves, in which the coffins shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately entombed by stone or brickwork properly cemented.

STOKE-UPON-TRENT.—In the burial-ground of Providence Chapel on the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, except in vaults and walled graves which can be opened without the disturbance of soil that has been buried in, in which each coffin shall be embedded in powdered charcoal and separately entombed in an air-tight manner. HOUNSLOW.—From and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the church and churchyard, with the exception of now existing vaults and brick-graves and deep earthen family-graves.

should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twentieth day of March next.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of FEBRUARY 10,

The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Tuesday, February 7, 1865.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

WE are commanded to assure you that Her Majesty has great satisfaction in recurring again to the advice and assistance of Her Parliament.

The negotiations in which the Emperor of Austria and the King of Prussia were engaged with the King of Denmark were brought to a conclusion by a Treaty of Peace ; and the communications which Her Majesty receives from Foreign Powers lead Her to entertain a well-founded hope that no renewed disturbance of the peace of Europe is to be apprehended.

The civil war in North America still unhappily continues. Her Majesty remains steadfastly neutral between the contending parties, and would rejoice at a friendly reconciliation between them.

A Japanese Daimio, in rebellion against his Sovereign infringed the rights accorded by Treaty to Great Britain and to certain other Powers ; and the Japanese Government having failed to compel him to desist from his lawless proceedings, the Diplomatic Agents and the Naval Commanders of Great Britain, France, the Netherlands, and the United States of North America, undertook a combined operation for the purpose of asserting the rights which their respective Governments have obtained by Treaty. That operation has been attended with complete success ; and the result has afforded security for foreign commerce and additional strength to the Government of Japan, with which the relations of Her Majesty are friendly.

Papers on this subject will be laid before you.

Her Majesty regrets that the conflict with some of the native tribes in New Zealand has not yet been brought to a close ; but the successful efforts of Her Majesty's regular forces, supported by those raised in the colony, have led to the submission of some of the insurgents ; and those who are still in arms have been informed of the equitable conditions on which their submission would be accepted.

Her Majesty has had great satisfaction in giving Her sanction to the meeting of a Conference of Delegates from Her several North American Provinces, who, on invitation from Her Majesty's Governor General, assembled at Quebec. Those Delegates adopted resolutions having for their object a closer union of those Provinces under a Central Government. If those resolutions shall be approved by the Provincial Legislatures, a Bill will be laid before you for carrying this important measure into effect.

Her Majesty rejoices at the general tranquillity of Her Indian Dominion ; but Her Majesty regrets that long-continued outrages on the persons and property of subjects of Her Majesty, and for which no redress could be had, have rendered it necessary to employ a force to obtain satisfaction for the past and security for the future.

Her Majesty deeply laments the calamity which has recently occasioned great loss of life and property at Calcutta and at other places in India. Prompt assistance was rendered by the officers of the Government, and generous contributions have been made in various parts of India to relieve the sufferings which have thus been occasioned.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

Her Majesty has directed the estimates for the ensuing year to be laid before you.

They have been prepared with every attention to economy, and with due regard to the efficiency of the public service.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Her Majesty commands us to inform you, that the general condition of the country is satisfactory, and that the revenue realises its estimated amount. The distress which prevailed in some of the manufacturing districts has greatly abated; and the Act passed for the encouragement of public works in those districts has been attended with useful results.

Ireland during the past year has had its share in the advantage of a good harvest, and trade and manufactures are gradually extending in that part of the Kingdom.

Various measures of public usefulness will be submitted for your consideration.

Bills will be laid before you for the concentration of all the courts of law and equity, with their attendant offices, on a convenient site; a measure which Her Majesty trusts will promote economy and despatch in the administration of justice.

The important work for the revision of the Statute Law, already carried to a considerable extent by recent Acts of Parliament, will be completed by a Bill that will be laid before you. Her Majesty hopes that this work may be a step towards the formation of a digest of the law.

Bills will also be submitted for your consideration for the amendment of the laws relating to patents for inventions, and for conferring on the county courts an equitable jurisdiction in causes of small amount.

Your assistance will also be invited to give effect to certain recommendations made to the House of Commons, after inquiry directed by that House, into the operation of the laws regulating the relief to the poor.

A Bill will be laid before you founded on the report of the Commission for inquiring into public schools; and Her Majesty has directed that a Commission shall be issued to inquire into endowed and other schools in England, which have not been included in the recent inquiries relating to popular education.

Her Majesty commits with confidence the great interests of the country to your wisdom and care; and She fervently prays that the blessing of Almighty God may attend your councils, and may guide your deliberations to the attainment of the object of Her constant solicitude, the welfare and happiness of Her people.

Foreign Office, February 10, 1865.

EARL RUSSELL, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has received a Despatch from Sir A. Buchanan, Her Majesty's Ambassador at St. Petersburg, enclosing a copy of a Ukase, published in the Journal de St. Pétersbourg, of the 24th of January, 1865, in accordance with which foreigners provided with passports issued by a Russian Legation or Consulate may reside and travel in Russia for six months without exchanging their passports for a police permit of residence :—

UKASE.

December 30, 1864.

January 12, 1865.

Par un oukase du 31 Décembre dernier, le sénat dirigeant promulgue une décision du conseil de l'empire, sanctionnée par S. M. l'Empereur le 7 du même mois, et qui remplace par les dispositions suivantes celles des Art. 15 et 17 de l'annexe à l'Art. 436 du règlement sur les passe-ports et les fugitifs (t. XIV du Corps des lois, suppl. de 1863), relatifs aux délais pendant lesquels les étrangers peuvent séjourner en Russie et la quitter avec leurs passe-ports nationaux :

“Les étrangers arrivant en Russie, par mer, dans des lieux situés sur les frontières de terre ou dans des ports, avec les passe-ports exigés, dûment visés par nos légations et consulats, peuvent séjourner dans ces lieux ou partout ailleurs en Russie avec leurs passe-ports nationaux pendant six mois, sans demander le permis spécial établi pour le séjour des étrangers dans l'empire. A leur arrivée, chacune d'eux est tenu de présenter à l'autorité locale du port son passe-port national pour qu'elle y inscrive que ‘tel étranger est autorisé à séjourner en Russie jusqu'à telle date (pas plus de six mois) ; s'il veut y demeurer plus longtemps, il est tenu de solliciter le permis établi pour le séjour des étrangers dans l'empire.’ Les étrangers qui ne sont pas restés plus de six mois dans un lieu situé sur la frontière, un port de mer ou à l'intérieur de l'empire, peuvent ressortir du pays, soit par terre, soit par mer, quel que soit d'ailleurs le point par lequel ils y étaient primitivement entrés, avec les mêmes passe-ports qu'ils avaient a leur arrivée, après l'apposition sur ces passe-ports d'un visa de l'autorité locale de police constatant que rien ne s'oppose à leur départ."

(Bulletin annexé à la Gazette du Sénat).

(Translation).

By a Ukase of the 31st of December last, the Directing Senate promulgates a Decree of the Council of the Empire, which has received the Emperor's sanction on the 7th of the same month, and which substitutes the following arrangements for those of Articles 15 and 17 of the Annex to Article 436 of the regulation concerning Passports and Fugitives (vol. 14 of the Corps des Lois, supplement of 1863), relative to the period during which foreigners are permitted to stay in Russia and to leave it provided with their national passports.

"Foreigners arriving in Russia by sea at places situated on the land frontiers, or at seaports, provided with the requisite passports, duly viséd by our Legations and Consulates, may stay at those places or anywhere else in Russia, with their national passports during six months, without having to demand special permission prescribed for the residence of foreigners in the Empire. On their arrival, each of them is bound to present his national passport to the local authority of the port, in order that the latter may inscribe thereon that 'such foreigner is authorized to remain in Russia till such date (not more than six months); should he desire to remain there longer, he is bound to apply for the permission required for the residence of foreigners in the Empire' Foreigners who have not resided more than six months in any place situated on the frontier, in a seaport, or in the interior of the Empire, may quit the country, either by land or by sea, whatever be the point at which they originally entered, with the same passports which they had on their arrival, after having had the visa of the local police authority attached to them, certifying that there is no obstacle to their departure."

(Bulletin annexed to the Gazette du Sénat.)

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 16, 1865.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold Levees at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday, the 7th of March next, and on Wednesday, the 22nd of March next, and on Wednesday, the 22nd of March next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at these Levees shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

SYDNEY,

Lord Chamberlain.

DESPATCHES relating to the Destruction by Fire of Her Majesty's ship "Bombay":—

"Triton," Monte Video,

Sir,

20th December, 1864.

I INFORMED you by my letter of the 15th instant, No. 91, of the total loss, by fire, on the previous day, of Her Majesty's ship "Bombay." I have now to transmit for their Lordships' information, Captain Campbell's account of the disaster, and a list of the officers and ship's company lost, which, I regret to say, amounts to 89. I also forward a copy of the sailing orders under which Captain Campbell was acting.

2. The origin of the fire has not been ascertained, and as the circumstances connected with the loss of the ship must be fully inquired into by court-martial, I shall not comment upon them more than by saying that the quickness and order with which, as reported to me, the boats were got out, almost in the midst of the flames, by those on deck, while parties still worked at the pumps, and when it was believed the magazine would instantly blow up, showed a striking example of maintenance of discipline and of self-devotion.

3. I beg to call the attention of their Lordships to the names of those officers and men specially reported to me by Captain Campbell for their behaviour. To the services of Commander Wilson, and Mr. Mandeville, Sub-Lieutenant, he particularly alludes.

4. I have thought it desirable to send home the whole of the "Bombay's" officers and ship's company, without loss of time, and having entered into an agreement with the Captain of the English steam-vessel "Herschel" to convey them, they will sail for Liverpool to-morrow, calling at Rio de Janeiro, Bahia, and Lisbon.

I have, &c.

CHAS. W. ELLIOT

Rear-Admiral and Commander-in-Chief.

Whitehall, London.*

Her Majesty's Ship "Stromboli,"

Sir, Monte Video, 15th December, 1864.

IT is my painful duty to report to you the total loss, by fire, of your flag-ship Her Majesty's ship "Bombay," under my command. The circumstances are as follows :

In compliance with your orders, we left Monte Video roads yesterday morning, the 14th instant, at 6.15 A.M., under sail. In the forenoon, being then between Flores Light and the English Bank, we exercised at general quarters, firing at a target. In the afternoon, at about 1.45 P.M., we again went to quarters, and beat the retreat shortly after 3 P.M., keeping the foremost lower deck guns exercising; at about 3.35 P.M. the fire-bell was rung, and a fire was reported to me to be in the after magazine. Everyone immediately went to their fire stations, and a good supply of water was obtained directly; I ordered the magazine to be flooded as fast as possible. The Commander went below to the fire by my directions, and shortly returned, reporting to me that it was a very bad one. I went below myself, and found both main and lower decks full of smoke, the pumps working well, and a good supply of water and numerous wet blankets being passed down. At this time men could hardly remain on the orlop deck from the dense smoke and flames coming from the after-hold, where the fire proved to be: some were carried up insensible. Finding things so bad, and it being reported that the fire was gaining, I directed the quarter-boats to be lowered, the sick to be passed into them, and preparations to be made for hoisting out the boom-boats out. At 3.52, I ordered the boom-boats to be got out, and the men still to remain at the pumps. The cutter, pinnace, and first launch were hoisted out the starboard side, and the barge the port. By this time the men were being forced up from below by the heat and smoke. I ordered the hatchways and skids to be covered, and every endeavour was made to get the second launch out, but the flames and smoke now bursting up from below in every direction rendered this impossible, in spite of the gallant efforts of the men, who were now forced over the side and forward by the fearful heat, smoke, and flame spreading in every direction, the topsails and rigging being at this time in a blaze. The boats as they were filled shoved off, and laid on their oars to pick up stragglers, and I directed hammocks, gratings, and other articles that would float, to be thrown overboard to assist those in the water, tho boats picking the men up as fast as possible; for the fire spread so rapidly that all, excepting those who gained the anchors, forecastle, cables, bowsprit, and ropes hanging overboard were in the water.

At 4.15 the mainmast went over the side, being only 40 minutes from the time the fire-bell rung, the first launch being only just clear of it as it fell into the water.

A few people still remaining holding on to the ropes under the bows, were rescued by Mr. Mandeville, Sub-Lieutenant, and a volunteer boat's crew, in a most gallant manner, this being a service of great danger from the numerous things falling about, and the imminent risk of the magazine exploding. Having been picked up by one of the boats, I detached Lieutenant Vidal in the second gig as soon as possible to Monte Video, to make known our situation. At this time several vessels were coming to our assistance; the first that arrived being a pilot-boat, which relieved the pinnacle of a number of her men. Other vessels arrived shortly, and all the boats were picked up, the men being kindly and hospitably cared for; most of them being nearly naked were supplied with clothes from the stocks of the crews.

From the inquiries I have made it appears that George Noble, sailmaker, and George Marsh, ropemaker, who are stationed on the platform of the after-hold to pass up shell, were the first who perceived the fire. The former, who is one of those saved, states that he saw flames and smoke issuing from under the starboard foremost handing-room of the after-magazine and platform adjacent, and immediately rushed up, rang the fire-bell, and reported the fire.

I have not been able to ascertain how it originated. The lights in the after light-room were put out, the magazine was secured, and they were in the act of putting the lights out in the fore light-room when the alarm was given. There was, however, time to see that there was neither flame nor smoke in the light-room, and that all the lights were burning, excepting one.

From the extraordinary quickness with which the fire spread, and the intense volume of smoke and flame, I am led to suppose that the spirits soon ignited.

I have much pleasure in informing you that the officers and ship's company behaved exceedingly well throughout under the trying circumstances in which they were placed; every one went to their stations with alacrity, and worked with the greatest zeal and cheerfulness, there was no confusion, even when the orders were given to get the boats out, not one of those ordered to remain at the fire and pumps left their station till they were absolutely driven away by the flames.

Every officer did his duty entirely to my satisfaction; among those who I had an opportunity of observing, and who have been brought prominently to my notice, I beg in the first place to mention the name of Commander J. C. Wilson, to whose coolness, activity, energy, and promptness in carrying out every necessary measure, and infusing a cheerful spirit among the men, I attribute to a great extent the fact of our being able to save so many lives; also Lieutenants Kelly and Fullerton, who remained at the fire till nearly stifled, the former directing generally, the latter pointing a branch-pipe himself; he was carried up from below, finally, almost insensible; he, with Mr. Brock, acting second master, George Carr, blacksmith, James Warner, captain mizentop, were the last men to leave. Mr. Watts, the Master, did not leave the poop till the last, when he got into the first launch over the quarter, and persisted gallantly in remaining at the ship in spite of things falling around, and the probability of the after magazine exploding every minute. Lieutenant Carr was picked up by him, and these two worked together with great advantage, they had only got a very little out of the way when the mainmast fell.

Lieutenant Stirling showed great zeal and coolness in preparing for and hoisting out boats. The Warrant Officers worked nobly and courageously at their stations, as did Mr. Franklin, supernumary boatswain, who was very active, and of great service; he is, I am sorry to say, one of the two officers lost. The conduct of Mr. Mandeville, Sub-Lieutenant, I have before noticed. I also saw him save another life from drowning near the ship.

Robert Giddy, chief boatswain's mate, distinguished himself greatly by his courage and energy. George Carr, blacksmith, James Warner, captain mizentop, remained last at the fire, and were hardly able to get away.

In the boats, Commander Wilson, and Mr. Mandeville, speak highly of the conduct of Thomas Shilson, captain forecastle, and Alfred Barton, able seaman of the volunteer boat's crew (a list of which I enclose), the latter of whom went overboard and rescued a man at great risk, from a position between some spars while the spars were burning overhead.

Lieutenant Carr and Mr. Watts recommend Henry Priest and Samuel Grant, seamen, for swimming to the ship when the boat could not get near, and bringing men from ropes alongside; they also speak highly of the support they received from Mr. Boss, carpenter, and Robert Giddy, chief boatswain's mate.

The Master succeeded in saving the ship's log, but the remainder of the books were lost in spite of the Paymaster and Mr. Trollope, assistant clerk, having tried repeatedly to get into the main deck office.

The following are the times that Mr. Watts, the Master, took while on the poop:—

Fire-bell rung, and after magazine reported on fire, at 3.35 P.M.

Quarter boats ordered to be lowered, and sick passed into them, as the fire was gaining, 3.50 P.M.

Commenced getting boom boats out, 3.52 P.M.

Men forced from below by flames and smoke; hatchways and skid covers put on, 3.55 P.M.

All boats out except second launch; fire coming up hatchways and skids forcing every one overboard, by heat and flames, 4 P.M.

Mainmast went over the side, 4.15 P.M.

Mizenmast went over the side, 4.40 P.M.

Foremast went over the side, 5.5 P.M.

After magazine exploded, 8.25 P.M.

When the fire broke out the ship was under three topsails and jib was hoisted for a short time during the fire. Fore-topsail was aback, the jib was hauled down, and mainyard squared, but the ship was not kept before the wind because she would have left the boats; the anchor was not let go, as it would have, by bringing her head to wind, blinded the people on deck with the smoke.

I enclose a list of officers and men missing, and I deeply regret to say that I believe they have all perished.

I have, &c.

COLIN A. CAMPBELL,

Captain, Her Majesty's late ship "Bombay."

By the Honourable Charles Gilbert John Brydone
Elliot, Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Rear-Admiral, and Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Ships and Vessels employed, and to be employed, on the South-East Coast of America Station.

Her Majesty's ship "Bombay," under your command, being in all respects ready, it is my direction that you put to sea in her and proceed down the river, for the purpose of exercising the crew with great guns and small arms. Should you wish to anchor at Maldonado, you may do so, but you are to take an opportunity to exercise firing at a target when under steam at sea, moving at various rates of speed, and at different distances from the target.

The distance of the target should be continually taken by "Ryder's method," to assist you to estimate the distance, and the officers of the quarters and captains of the guns, not only when firing but on other occasions, should be exercised judging distance for themselves.

Opportunity may also be taken for testing the degree of precision with which the guns are laid for concentrated firing. As there will in general be ample time for laying the guns, they should on all occasions of that exercise be pointed with great nicety. When pointed the ship may be steered at the distance of about 500 yards till the concentrated broadside bears, and faulty pointing of any guns will be detected. At night quarters, pointing the guns for concentrated fire should form part of the exercise, and the captains of guns should also be exercised pointing at objects, using white dispart covers.

You will rejoin my flag at Monte Video by the 24th instant, and you are to consider the anchorage or offing off Maldonado as a rendezvous in case I should wish to communicate with you.

This service is to be performed as much as possible under sail.

(Signed) CHAS. B. ELLIOT.

Captain Colin A. Campbell,

Her Majesty's Ship "Bombay."

By command of the Commander-in-chief.

Secretary.

Her Majesty's ship "Triton,"

SIR, Monte Video, December 22, 1864.

NOW that the officers and ship's company of Her Majesty's late ship "Bombay" have sailed for England, I will not delay any longer expressing to you by letter the great obligations I am under, for the assistance you have given, not only in so promptly sending in the first instance all the boats of the "Astrée" in the direction of the burning ship, but in afterwards clothing the men and officers, and in receiving them on board your ships.

Unfortunately the fire spread so rapidly that it was impossible for any assistance from Monte Video to reach the "Bombay" before she was abandoned, even a steamer that had her steam up and departed, the moment the fire was known here only got in time to relieve the "Bombay's" heavily laden boats.

You next did all that could be done under the circumstances, you placed the Government stores of His Imperial Majesty at my service, you offered accommodation on board the "Astrée" and "Fortune," for as many officers and men as I chose to send, and without waiting a moment you sent supplies of Government clothing for the use of our almost naked men. Nor was the assistance given from French ships confined to official or Government aid, you yourself, Admiral, showed the example of coming on board with supplies of linen and clothing from your own private wardrobe, distributing it to midshipmen and other officers who appeared to want it, Lieutenant Le Loarer commanding the "Fortune" having already clothed many who went to his ship.

Your Flag Captain, your Chef d'Etat Major, your Officers of all classes and your men, only emulated you in the manner they distributed their own personal clothing amongst those of corresponding ranks belonging to the "Bombay." I accepted your offers of accommodation and of Government stores without hesitation, feeling sure that they were made, not in a more complimentary manner, but with sincerity and with the hope of being really useful to us. From Thursday, the day after the loss of the ship, till the following Tuesday, when they embarked on board the "Herschel," 200 English seamen besides many officers, lived on board your ships, and nothing could exceed the generous treatment they there received.

I am aware, that even before this disaster, the cordial good feeling that happily exists between us, the Commanders-in-Chief of our respective squadrons, extended to all ranks; that the officers of your flag ship and the officers of mine were on intimate and friendly terms, and that the seamen of the "Astrée" equally fraternized with the seamen of corresponding ratings in the "Bombay." This happy state of things between the crews of the two ships, is unfortunately checked for a time by separation, but I am confident the sympathy and kindness shown by yourself and by all under your command on the present occasion, will tend much to cement the good feeling between the two services.

Accept, Admiral, my thanks and acknowledgements for the assistance you have given me during the last week, and allow me, through you, to thank Captain Jouslard, Captain Laporte, Lieutenant-Commander Le Loarer, and the rest of the officers and crews of the "Astrée" and "Fortune."

I will not neglect to report to my Government the assistance received from the French Navy.

I have, &c.

in-Chief.

Her Majesty's Ship "Triton,"

Sir, Monte Video, December 22, 1864.

I HAVE already thanked you verbally for your prompt offer of assistance after the unfortunate loss of Her Majesty's ship "Bombay," I now do so in writing.

I have also to thank you for sending the "Ercole," but the "Bombay" was, unfortunately, too far off for any vessel at Monte Video to get to her assistance.

I had not occasion to make use of the accommodation on Rat Island, which you placed at my disposal for the reception of the crew, but from the stores and clothing you liberally offered to supply from the ships under your command, I gladly accepted what was required.

The sympathy and kindness you have shown, will tend to increase the friendly feeling and good understanding that already existed between us, and I will not fail to report to my Government your good offices on this occasion.

I have, &c.

Dated on board Her Majesty's ship "Stromboli," at Monte Video, the 19th December, 1864.

Monte Video,

My Lord, December 23, 1864.

IT is my painful duty to announce to your Lordship the total destruction by fire of Her Majesty's ship "Bombay," on the 14th instant.

The fire broke out at about half-past three in the afternoon of that day, and spread with such rapidity that within half an hour all hands that could had to leave the ship.

At the time of the disaster, the "Bombay" was some twelve or fifteen miles down the river, having left Monte Video that morning, with the view of exercising the crew in firing.

I lament to say that no less than ninety-one persons, of whom two are officers, perished.

Appalling as this loss of life is, it would have been much greater had the fire broke out but a few hours later, for the wind then began to blow with such force, that the boats, crowded as they were with the survivors, would, in all probability, have sunk before reaching the vessels on board which those saved were received.

The origin of the fire has not been ascertained.

This disaster has called forth, on the part of all, a kind feeling that I am happy to record.

Nothing can be more generous than was the conduct of the French Commander-in-Chief; nor was this conduct confined to him alone, it was equally participated in by the officers under his command and by his crews generally.

I have the honour to forward to your Lordship a copy of a note addressed to me on this disaster by Doctor Antonio de las Carreras, and also a copy of my answer thereto.

The crew having been disposed of on board the several vessels of the squadron, it was not necessary for me to accept the offer of the Oriental Government.

True to themselves the English residents here are raising a liberal subscription for the relief of the widows and children of the officers and men who have perished, and I am informed a similar subscription is being raised also at Buenos Ayres.

The surviving officers and men of the "Bombay" left this for England a few days since in the merchant steamer "Herschel," of Liverpool, bound for that port.

I have, &c.,

W. G. LETTSOM.

SEÑOR ENCARGADO DE NEGOCIOS,

EL Gobierno de la Republica ha recibido con profundo pesar la noticia del desastre acaecido al nanio de guerra de S. M. B. denominado "Bombay," en el dia de ayer á inmediaciones de la Isla de Flores, y siente en estreuso que las circunstancias disiciles en que se halla la Republica no le hagan permitido contribein á la salvacion de esos desgraciados marineras.

Pero en el deseo de hacer todo cuanto esté á su alcance, como lo manifesté en sui cartu particular de anoche, el Presidente de la Republica me ha ordenado ofrezca á la Legacion Britanica el Hospital-General para que se llenen á él los heridos y enfermos del Bombay, asi como un lugar aparente para acuartelar la tropa y tripulacion del mismo buque.

Con este motivo tengo el honor de résterar al Señor Lettsom, &c.,

MONSIEUR LE CHARGE D'AFFAIRES,

THE Government of the Republic has received, with profound sorrow, the news of the disaster which occurred yesterday to Her Britannic Majesty's ship "Bombay," near the Island of Flores, and regrets extremely that the difficult circumstances in which the Republic finds itself should not have permitted it to contribute to the saving of those unfortunate sailors.

But with the desire to do everything in his power, as I stated in my private letter of yesterday evening, the President of the Republic has instructed me to offer to the British Legation the General Hospital, for conveying to it the sick and wounded of the "Bombay, and likewise a suitable place for quartering the troops and crew of the same ship.

The undersigned, &c.,

Monte Video, December 15, 1864.

WITH feelings of the deepest gratitude, the Undersigned has the honour to acknowledge the receipt of the note of His Excellency Doctor Antonio de las Carreras, wherein His Excellency by direction of His Excellency the President, is pleased to offer to the British Legation the General Hospital of this city for the reception and treatment of the sick and wounded of the "Bombay," and a building wherein the crew may be received.

The Undersigned will not fail to make this offer known to the Commander-in-Chief, who he is certain will recognise therein a proof of the most generous sympathy.

Terrible, as has been the disaster, which has called forth this expression of kind feeling on the part of the Government of the Republic, the Undersigned is happy to think the number of victims, great as it is, is less than was to be expected in the presence of so dreadful and sudden a calamity, and the Undersigned fulfils a most grateful duty in stating to His Excellency that to the promptitude of the notice given by the Captain of the Port, and to the efficiency of the manner in which that notice was given, it may be mainly attributed that the number of the victims was not considerably greater.

In the meanwhile, until the Commander-in-Chief is able to convey to the Captain of the Port the expression of his obligations to that officer for his active conduct in this emergency, the Undersigned requests His Excellency to be pleased to make known to Colonel Luis de Herrera how truly grateful the Undersigned is to him for his conduct in reference to this sad occurrence.

MY LORD,

AS everything relating to the unfortunate loss of Her Majesty's ship "Bombay" may be interesting just now, I have the honour to inclose for your Lordship's information copy of a statement made to M. Dudemaine in charge of the French Consulate, at Buenos Ayres, by the master of the French barque "Fénélon," which was near the "Bombay" at the time of the disaster and received on board some of her men.

A copy of the reply of Mr. Parish, Her Majesty's Consul, at Buenos Ayres, to M. Dudemaine's communication is likewise inclosed.

Rapport du Capitaine Goussiaume, Commandant le trois mâts "Fénélon," du Havre, au sujet de l'incendie en mer et de l'explosion du vaisseau de Sa Majesté Britannique "Bombay."

Monsieur le Consul,

J'AI l'honneur de porter à votre connaissance les faits suivants : le 14 Décembre du courant, vers huit heures du matin, naviguant en calme dans le Rio de la Plata, j'ai aperçu le vaisseau de Sa Majesté Britannique "Bombay" faisant l'exercice du canon ; vers midi une petite brise de S.E. m'a permis de passer près de lui, et vers trois heures du soir j'ai pu lui faire le salut d'usage, auquel il me fut immédiatement répondu, après quoi j'ai continué ma route pour Buenos Aires avec fraîche brise, les bonnettes à babord. A quatre heures et demie je me trouvais déjà à une grande distance, lorsque je fus prévenu par mes hommes que le vaisseau était en feu. Je ne pus d'abord croire à cet avis, sachant que le vaisseau était à vapeur, mais je fus bientôt détrompé par mes yeux, et je ne pus douter qu'une catastrophe devenait imminente. Je fis donc immédiatement rentrer les bonnettes et lonvoyer à petits bords pour me rapprocher et me mettre à même de porter les secours que nécessitait la situation.

Dans ma route, je rencontraï trois grandes embarcations chargées de monde, elles étaient pourvues de quelques voiles de fortune vent arrière. Mon intention était de recevoir les hommes à bord, mais d'après leurs signaux je fus tranquilisé sur leur sort, et ils m'engagèrent à continuer ma route pour secourir s'il était possible leurs compagnons d'infortune.

Je continuaï donc à lonvoyer, lorsque tout-à-coup je vis une petite embarcation contenant vingt-deux hommes, je mis immédiatement en panne, et un instant après j'eus la satisfaction de recueillir à mon bord M. le Commandant du vaisseau, trois officiers, et dix-huit matelots ; ils étaient en un état complet, ou presque complet, de nudité, le Commandant principalement. Je disposai immédiatement de tous mes moyens pour les vêtir et reconforter. J'insistai auprès du Commandant pour qu'il acceptât un cordial, ce qu'il refusa, malgré mes instances et voulut absolument se rembarquer pour retourner auprès du vaisseau, désirant jusqu'au dernier moment porter son aide à ses infortunés compagnons, si bien le lui permettait, et assister, comme il croyait être son devoir, à l'explosion inévitable de son bâtiment ; devant cette belle et honorable conduite je me suis incliné, et n'ai pu que lui faire la promesse de l'attendre aussi près que possible du vaisseau. Quatres hommes de bonne volonté suivirent ce noble exemple, et s'embarquèrent avec lui. A huit heures quarante minutes, l'explosion eut lieu avec un fracas épouvantable, et un instant après tout était rentré dans le néant.

Ce grand dévouement du capitaine ait-il reçu sa récompense ? c'est mon plus ardent souhait. Cependant, après avoir attendu plus de deux heures encore, je n'ai pas vu revenir l'embarcation, et j'ai eu le regret de me voir forcé à prendre ma direction sur Monte Video.

Vers minuit quinze minutes, la canonnière Anglaise m'accosta, et après lui avoir fourni tous les renseignements que je possédais, notamment sur le sort présumé du Capitaine du vaisseau, elle envoya prendre à mon bord tous les hommes que j'avais recueillis.

Relèvement du vaisseau. Il relevait le cerro au S., 54° E. du monde, l'île Flores au N., 12° E. du monde. Sa latitude S. $35^{\circ} 03' 30''$. Sa longitude O. $58^{\circ} 19' 15''$.

Voici, Monsieur le Consul, bien imparfaite-ment rendus, les faits qui se sont passés sous mes yeux relativement à la catastrophe du vaisseau "Bombay;" ayant la croyance d'avoir rempli dans cette malheureuse circonstance les devoirs que l'humanité impose et n'ayant que le regret de n'avoir pu faire d'avantage.

Report of Captain Goussiaume, Commanding the three-masted vessel "Fénélon," of Havre, on the subject of the burning at sea, and blowing up of Her Britannic Majesty's ship "Bombay."

MONSIEUR LE CONSUL,

I HAVE the honour to bring to your knowledge the following facts: On the 14th instant, about 8 o'clock in the morning, while lying becalmed in the Rio de la Plata, I observed Her Britannic Majesty's ship "Bombay" at gun practice; towards noon a light breeze from the S.E. enabled me to pass close to her, and about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, I was able to make the usual salute, which was immediately replied to, after which I continued my course for Buenos Ayres, with a fresh breeze and port studding sails, set (bonnettes à babord). At half-past four o'clock, I was already at a great distance, when I was informed by my men that the ship was on fire. At first I could not believe this intelligence, knowing that the ship was a steam-ship, but I was soon undeceived by my eyes, and I could not doubt that a catastrophe was becoming imminent. I therefore immediately took in the studding-sails, and made short tacks in order to approach and to place myself in a position to render such assistance as the situation might require.

On my way I met three large boats full of people, they were furnished with some square sails, wind astern (voiles de fortune vent arrière). My intention was to take the men on board, but from their signals I was satisfied as to their safety, and they requested me to continue my course to succour, if possible, their companions in misfortune.

I kept on tacking therefore, when suddenly I saw a small boat containing twenty-two men. I immediately hove to, and a moment later I had the satisfaction of receiving on board, the Commander of the ship, three officers, and eighteen sailors. They were in a state of complete, or almost complete nudity, especially the Commander. I immediately adopted all the means at my disposal to clothe and make them comfortable. I then pressed the Commander to take a cordial, which he declined in spite of my entreaties, and insisted on re-embarking in order to return to the ship, wishing to give assistance, as far as possible, up to the last moment, to his unfortunate companions, and to be present, as he considered it his duty to be, at the inevitable explosion of his ship. To this fine and honourable conduct I yielded, and could only promise him to wait as near the ship as possible. Four men volunteered to follow this noble example, and embarked with him. At forty minutes past eight the explosion took place, with a fearful noise, and in an instant all was over.

Has this grand devotion of the Captain received its reward? This is my most ardent desire.

However, after having waited more than two hours longer, I did not see the boat returning, and with regret I found myself compelled to turn my course to Monte Video.

About fifteen minutes after midnight the English gunboat hailed me, and after having furnished her with all the information I possessed, particularly on the supposed fate of the Captain of the ship, she sent to remove from on board, all the men I had picked up.

Position of the ship. The Cerr bore S. 54 E. The Island of Flores N. 12 E. Latitude S. 35° 03' 30". Longitude W. 58° 19' 15".

These, Monsieur le Consul, are the events, imperfectly related, which took place before my eyes, respecting the destruction of the ship "Bombay;" in which unfortunate affair I trust that I have fulfilled the duties which humanity imposes, and only regret not to have been able to do more.

I have, &c.

My dear Colleague,

I HAVE received with much pleasure your note of this day's date, accompanied by a copy of a Report made to you by the Captain of the French vessel "Fénélon," relative to the burning of Her Majesty's ship "Bombay," of which he was an eye-witness. The conduct of this officer, and the services rendered by him during the disaster, deserve the highest praise, and must have called forth the gratitude and admiration of the sufferers; the pains which he has also taken to preserve a record of those circumstances which reflect credit on the Captain of Her Majesty's ship "Bombay," are a pleasing mark of consideration and kindness which will not pass unnoticed.

I beg you will express to the Captain of the "Fénélon" how highly I appreciate his conduct, and acquaint him that his Report will be transmitted to Her Majesty's Government as evidence in the official investigation of the affair.

Accept also my personal thanks for your kind expressions on the occasion of so deplorable a catastrophe, and believe me to be, &c.,

Buenos Ayres,

My Lord, December 29, 1864.

I HAVE the honour to transmit herewith for your Lordship's information an extract of a letter from Admiral Chaigneau, Commander-in-Chief of the French naval forces on this station, to M. de Vernouillet, French Chargé d'Affaires to this Republic, relative to the unfortunate loss of Her Majesty's ship "Bombay." As the Admiral was on board his own frigate "L'Astrée" at the time, and in sight of the disaster, his letter may be considered interesting.

A bord de l'Astrée, rade de MonteVideo, le 16 Décembre, 1864.

Monsieur et cher Ministre,

M. RICHEBRAQUE a dû vous dire que les douloureuses impressions, sous lesquelles m'avait placé le déplorable événement arrivé au magnifique vaisseau anglais le "Bombay," et les dispositions que mes sympathies et l'humanité me faisaient un devoir de prendre pour venir en aide à mon digne collègue et ami l'Amiral Elliot, et lui fournir les moyens de loger et d'habiller l'état-major et l'équipage de son vaisseau, ne m'avaient pas permis de vous écrire par son occasion, et que j'avais dû le charger de vous donner toutes les nouvelles qui étaient de nature à vous intéresser.

Rien n'a pu être découvert sur les causes de ce terrible et effroyable incendie qui a débuté d'une manière si violente qu'il a été impossible de s'approcher de son foyer; sa marche et ses progrès ont été si rapides qu'en moins d'une demie-heure il a embrasé tout le vaisseau, qu'il a fallu songer à faire évacuer par son vaillant équipage.

Heureusement, son digne Commandant, admirablement secondé par un état-major énergique et un équipage d'élite avait tout prévu; et, quand l'heure suprême d'abandonner le vaisseau aux flammes qui le dévoraient fût arrivé, le plus grand nombre possible de canots avait été mis à la mer, et tous les objets flottants sur lesquels on avait pu mettre la main, avaient été jetés à l'eau, afin de procurer des moyens de sauvetage à ceux que l'insuffisance des embarcations ne permettaient pas de recueillir.

Tant de soins auraient mérité un meilleur sort, et si l'Angleterre a à déplorer la perte de 85 de ses enfants et de celle d'un beau et formidable vaisseau de ligne bien armé, bien commandé, bien équipé, elle a du moins la consolation de pouvoir s'enorgueillir d'avoir fourni une fois de plus à l'admiration de la famille maritime un bel exemple d'une de ces épreuves suprêmes auxquelles nous sommes tous exposés, supportée avec autant de calme et de résignation que de courage.

*" L'Astrée," Monte Video Roads,
December 16, 1864.*

Monsieur et cher Ministre,

MR. RICHEBRAGUE has no doubt told you that the painful impressions produced on my mind by the deplorable catastrophe which has happened to the magnificent English vessel the "Bombay," and the measures which sympathy and humanity made it my duty to take, in order to come to the assistance of my worthy colleague and friend, Admiral Elliot, and to furnish him with the means of lodging and clothing the staff and crew of his vessel, did not permit me to write by that opportunity, and that I charged him to give you all the news which might interest you.

Nothing could be discovered respecting the causes of this terrible and horrible fire, which burst forth so violently that it was impossible to approach the spot where it broke out; its course and progress were so rapid, that in less than half an hour it enveloped in flames the whole vessel, from which it was scarcely hoped to secure the escape of her brave crew.

Happily all had been provided against by her worthy Commander, admirably aided by an energetic staff and a first-rate crew; and, when the last moment arrived for abandoning the vessel to the flames which were devouring her, as many boats as possible had been launched; and every thing that could float upon which they could lay their hands had been thrown into the water, in order to save those whom the boats were too few to receive on board.

So much care merited a better fate, and if England has to deplore the loss of 85 of her children, and that of a fine and formidable ship of the line, well armed, well commanded, well equipped, she has at least the consolation of being able to pride herself of having once more furnished to the admiration of the maritime world a fine example of one of those trying emergencies, to which we are all exposed, supported with as much calmness and resignation as courage.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 20, 1865.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Royal Highness The Princess Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Drawing Room at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Saturday, the 25th of March next, at two o'clock.

It is the Queen's pleasure that Presentations to Her Royal Highness at this Drawing Room shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars at the Drawing Room, the 25th of March being a Collar Day.

THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM TO BE HELD, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY BY HER ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCESS HELENA, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Princess.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that a letter from the Lady who is to make the presentation, stating it to be her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen, for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Princess.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at the Drawing Room, except in attendance upon the Ladies of their families.

SYDNEY,

Lord Chamberlain.

DECLARATION of the British and Spanish Governments for the Abolition of the Practice of Firing on Merchant-Vessels from British and Spanish Forts in the Straits of Gibraltar.

Signed at Madrid, March 2, 1865.

THE Government of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Government of Her Majesty the Queen of Spain, taking into consideration that the causes which gave rise to the establishment of certain precautions in the fortified places which command the Straits of Gibraltar, in the case of vessels approaching them within the distance of cannon-shot while sailing in those waters, no longer exist; and having regard to the inconveniences to which the navigation of merchant vessels has been liable by a compliance with the formalities to which they are subjected by reason of the aforesaid precautions, when the currents or the winds oblige them to enter into the waters belonging to the maritime jurisdiction of the aforesaid fortified places; and taking into consideration, finally, that those fortified places, under normal circumstances, are exempted by the good faith of nations from surprises or attacks which the law of nations condemns, have agreed upon what follows:—

In the places of war and fortresses belonging to Great Britain and Spain which command the Straits of Gibraltar, those regulations are abolished, in virtue of which it is required that merchant vessels which cruize in the said straits shall show their flag in passing within cannon-shot of those places or fortresses; and it is agreed equally to abolish the intimation by means of shots, at first with powder only, and afterwards with ball, to those vessels which neglect or refuse to comply with the aforesaid obligation of showing their flag.

The agreement which precedes does not deprive the Governments of Great Britain and Spain of the right of taking, in the aforesaid places and fortresses, in time of war, those precautions which they may think necessary, and which are in conformity with what the law of nations prescribes in regard to this matter.

The present Declaration does not exempt the vessels of either of the two nations from the observance of the rules of maritime etiquette in seas common to both, on meeting ships of war of either of the two nations; nor does it exempt them from the formalities respectively established for the entrance into the ports of the aforesaid British and Spanish fortresses which command the Straits of Gibraltar.

It is understood that this Declaration of the British and Spanish Governments in no way alters, modifies, or derogates from the dispositions, regulations, and practices which at present are in force in the aforesaid places and fortresses with regard to the ships of war which navigate in those waters or which enter their ports.

Both Governments will give the necessary orders for the execution of the present agreement, which will begin to come into force from and after the 15th of the present month.

In witness whereof the present Declaration has been signed in duplicate by Sir John Fiennes Crampton, Baronet, Knight-Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Her Britannic Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of Madrid, and by Don Antonio Benavides, Knight Grand Cross of the Royal and distinguished Order of Charles III, and Her Catholic Majesty's Minister of State, who have affixed thereto their respective seals.

Done at Madrid, the second day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable, upon, for, or in respect of letters, newspapers, parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers, transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post.

And whereas by the said Act powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, and at any time thereafter, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British Postage or Inland Postage, payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any of such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid, and the power thereby given to alter and fix rates of postage is extended to any increase or reduction or remission of postage.

And whereas further powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by an Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office."

And whereas certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and to provide for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications."

And whereas it is expedient that printed newspapers and packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, and other printed papers, should be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and the several places hereinafter mentioned, and for that purpose that certain rates of postage should be fixed, and certain regulations made, in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now, we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers or authority in us for that purpose vested in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), order, direct, and declare as follows:—

1. On every packet consisting of a printed British newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Malta or Egypt, and on every packet consisting of a printed British, colonial, or foreign newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in Malta or Egypt, addressed to the United Kingdom, and respectively transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom to Malta or Egypt, and from Malta or Egypt to the United Kingdom, in the closed mail, viâ Marseilles, and by British packet boat, there shall be charged, taken, and paid a combined British and foreign rate of postage of two pence.

2. On every packet consisting of a printed British newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Malta, or to any other British colony (except any British colony to the eastward of Suez), and on every packet consisting of a printed British, colonial, or foreign newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in Malta, or in any other British colony (except any British colony to the eastward of Suez), addressed to the United Kingdom, and respectively transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom to Malta, or any other British colony (except any British colony to the eastward of Suez), and from Malta, or any other British colony (except any British colony to the eastward of Suez), to the United Kingdom, viâ France, and by French packet boat, there shall be charged, taken, and paid a combined British and foreign rate of postage of two pence.

3. On every packet consisting of a printed British newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to any foreign port beyond the seas (except any foreign port to the eastward of Suez), and transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom to any such foreign port, viâ France, and by French packet boat, there shall be charged, taken, and paid a combined British and foreign rate of postage of two pence.

4. On every packet consisting of a printed British newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to any place in the Republics of Bolivia, Ecuador, Peru, or Chili, and on every packet consisting of a printed British, colonial, or foreign newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in any place in the Republics of Bolivia, Ecuador, Peru, or Chili, addressed to the United Kingdom, and respectively transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom to any place in the Republics of Bolivia, Ecuador, Peru, or Chili, and from any place in the Republics of Bolivia, Ecuador, Peru, or Chili, to the United Kingdom by British packet boat, viâ Panama, there shall be charged, taken, and paid an uniform rate of postage (which shall include the cost of transmission over the Isthmus of Darien) of three pence.

5. On every packet consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial, or foreign, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Malta, Alexandria, Cairo, or Suez, or posted in Malta, Alexandria, Cairo, or Suez, addressed to the United Kingdom, and transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Malta, Alexandria, Cairo, or Suez, in the closed mail, viâ Marseilles, and by British packet boat, there shall be charged, taken, and paid a combined British and foreign rate of postage of four pence.

6. On every packet consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial, or foreign, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Malta or to any other British colony (except any British colony to the eastward of Suez), or posted in Malta or in any other British colony (except any British colony to the eastward of Suez), addressed to the United Kingdom, and transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Malta or any other British colony (except any British colony to the eastward of Suez), viâ France, and by French packet boat, there shall be charged, taken, and paid a combined British and foreign rate of postage of four pence.

7. On every packet consisting of printed papers, other than newspapers not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to any foreign port beyond the seas (except any foreign port to the eastward of Suez) and transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom to any such foreign port viâ France, and by French packet boat, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, a combined British and foreign rate of postage of four pence.

8. On every packet consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether

British, colonial, or foreign, posted in any part of the United Kingdom, addressed to Shanghai, or any other port in China at which the British mail packet boat calls, or posted in Shanghai, or any other port in China at which the British mail packet boat calls, addressed to any part of the United Kingdom, and transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Shanghai, or other ports in China at which the British mail packet boat calls, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, the rates of postage following; that is to say :—

On every such packet not exceeding four ounces in weight so transmitted, direct viâ Egypt, (the sea conveyance being by British packet boat) an uniform single rate of postage of fourpence ;

On every such packet not exceeding four ounces in weight so transmitted, in the closed mail viâ Marscilles (the sea conveyance being by British packet boat) an uniform single rate of postage of six pence.

9. All such respective packets as hereinbefore in this Warrant mentioned, if exceeding four ounces in weight, shall be subject to the several progressive and additional rates of postage hereinafter-mentioned and set forth (that is to say) :

On every such packet, if exceeding four ounces and not exceeding one half of a pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two rates of postage ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding one half of a pound, and not exceeding one pound in weight, four rates of postage ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and not exceeding one pound and one half of another pound in weight, six rates of postage ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and one half of another pound, and not exceeding two pounds in weight, eight rates of postage ;

And for every additional half of a pound in weight of any such packet above the weight of two pounds there shall be charged, taken, and paid two additional rates of postage, and every fractional part of such additional half of a pound in weight shall be charged as an additional half of a pound in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

10. For the purposes of this Warrant every printed newspaper transmitted under the first, second, third, and fourth clauses of this Warrant, shall be deemed and considered a packet, and shall be charged and chargeable with a separate and distinct single rate or separate and distinct progressive and additional rates of postage according to the weight thereof, as hereinbefore-mentioned, notwithstanding two or more newspapers shall be enclosed and transmitted in one and the same cover, wrapper, envelope, or bundle, and form only one parcel or bundle of newspapers, and every printed supplement or additional sheet to any newspaper shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this Warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper, unless sent in the same cover, or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

11. Every packet transmitted under the first, second, third, and fourth clauses of this Warrant, shall be subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinafter contained (that is to say) :

Every British newspaper which shall be posted in the United Kingdom shall be printed and published at intervals not exceeding thirty-one days between any two consecutive numbers or parts of such publication, and the same shall be registered by the proprietor or printer thereof at the General Post Office, in London, and shall be posted within fifteen days from the date of its publication, and the title and date of the newspaper shall be printed at the top of every page thereof.

12. Every packet transmitted under the provisions of this Warrant shall be subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinafter contained (that is to say) :

No such packet which in length, or breadth, or depth shall exceed the dimensions of two feet shall be forwarded under the provisions aforesaid.

Every packet transmitted under the authority of this Warrant shall be sent open at the ends or sides, and either without a cover, or in a cover, or envelope open at the ends or sides, and there shall be no written letter, either closed or open, nor any written communication in the nature of a letter, either closed or open (whether such letter or communication be addressed to or intended for the person to whom the packet shall be directed, or any other person), nor any enclosure, sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorised by this Warrant, sent in, or with any such packet, nor in the case of packets transmitted under the authority of the first, second, third, fourth, and seventh clauses of this Warrant, shall there be any writing, figures, or manual marks whatsoever, of any description, upon any such packet, or on the cover or envelope thereof, not authorised by this Warrant, nor in the case of packets transmitted under the authority of the fifth, sixth, and eighth clauses of this Warrant, shall there be any written letter or any written communication in the nature of a letter in or upon any such packet, or on the cover or envelope thereof, except the name and address of the person to whom the same is sent, but the name or title of any newspaper, and the name and address of the publisher, news-vendor, or agent by whom the same is sent, may be printed on the cover thereof, and any other packet, not being a newspaper, may have any matter or thing printed on the cover thereof.

Every packet transmitted under the provisions of this Warrant, and posted in the United Kingdom, shall be put into the Post Office at such hours in the day, and under all such regulations, as the Postmaster-General may appoint.

13. Upon every packet posted in the United Kingdom for transmission under the authority of this Warrant the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted, not in money but by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon, under or by virtue of this Warrant, unless any such packet be sent from any department or office in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty, which shall keep a postage account with the General Post Office in London, in which case the same shall be forwarded post paid and the postage thereof shall be charged in such postage account.

14. Upon every packet posted in Malta, Alexandria, Cairo, or Suez, for transmission under the authority of the fifth clause of this Warrant, and upon every packet posted in Malta, or in any other British colony (except any British colony to the eastward of Suez), for transmission under the authority of the sixth clause of this Warrant the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted either in money or by being stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps being affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon under or by virtue of this Warrant.

15. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be sent otherwise than in conformity with the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinbefore contained, every such packet shall and may (except in the cases provided for by the clauses next hereinafter contained, and numbered 16, 17, 18, 19, and 20,) be detained and opened, and at the option of the Postmaster-General be either returned or given up to the sender thereof or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination; and every such packet on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall, at the option of the Postmaster-General, be either free of postage or be charged with any rate of postage he may think fit, not exceeding the postage to which it would have been liable as a letter, and such postage shall be either paid by the sender or be charged to the person to whom the packet shall be forwarded.

16. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent under the provisions of this Warrant, shall contain any written letter, or any written communication in the nature of a letter, whether closed or open, or any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other enclosure not authorised by this Warrant, every such letter or communication or enclosure may be taken out by any officer of the Post Office, and, at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be forwarded to the address on the packet, charged in either case not only with the full rates of postage as an unpaid letter, but also in the case of packets transmitted under the provisions of the first, second, third, and fourth clauses of this Warrant, with a further and additional rate of postage of one penny, and in the case of packets transmitted under the provisions of the fifth, sixth, and seventh clauses of this Warrant, with a further and additional rate of postage of three-pence, and in the case of packets transmitted under the provisions of the eighth clause of this Warrant, with a further and additional rate of postage of fourpence, and the remainder of the packet, if the postage be duly paid when posted, may be forwarded to the place of its address without any extra charge.

17. If any packet sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent, under the authority of the first, second, third, fourth, seventh, and eighth clauses of this Warrant, shall be posted in the United Kingdom without the postage payable thereon being paid at the time of the same being posted by means of the proper postage stamp or stamps being affixed thereto, every such respective packet shall be detained and opened, and returned or given up to the sender thereof.

18. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent, under the authority of the fifth and sixth clauses of this Warrant shall be posted in the United Kingdom without having thereon, or affixed thereto, any postage stamp or stamps, or having thereon, or affixed thereto, a stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the single rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under this Warrant, every such respective packet shall be detained and opened, and returned or given up to the sender thereof.

19. If any packet, sent, or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent, under the authority of the fifth and sixth clauses of this Warrant, shall be posted in Malta, Alexandria, Cairo, or Suez, or in any British colony (except any British colony to the eastward of Suez), without any postage having been paid thereon, either in money or in postage stamps, or with a postage paid thereon, either in money or in postage stamps, less in amount than the single rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under this Warrant, every such respective packet shall be forwarded charged with the full rates of postage as an unpaid letter.

20. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent, under the authority of the fifth and sixth clauses of this Warrant, shall be posted in the United Kingdom, having thereon or affixed thereto a stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under this Warrant, but equal in amount to the single rate of postage payable thereon, or shall be posted in Malta, Alexandria, Cairo, or Suez, or in any British colony (except any British colony to the eastward of Suez), and the postage paid thereon, either in money or in postage stamps, shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under this Warrant, but equal in amount to the single rate of postage payable thereon, every such respective packet shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the difference between the postage so paid thereon and the postage to which such packet would be liable as aforesaid, together with the further and additional rate of postage of three pence.

21. The rates of postage chargeable on printed newspapers, and on packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, and other printed papers, transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be in lieu of any rates now chargeable by law thereon.

22. In order to prevent any obstacle to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, any officer of the Post Office may delay the transmission of any packet posted, or forwarded by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, either for the space of twenty-four hours after the time at which the same ought to be despatched in due course of the post, or (at his option) until the despatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought, in due course of the post, to be forwarded by him.

23. The term "British Newspaper," used in this Warrant, shall be construed to mean newspapers printed in the United Kingdom, whether they bear a newspaper stamp or not; and the terms "Books, Publications, or Works of Literature or Art", used in this Warrant, shall, for the purposes of this Warrant, mean and comprise all such articles as in their general character are either literary, or consist of printed, written, engraved, or lithographed matter (although not strictly literary), including books (whether printed, written, or plain), publications or compilations (whether in print or in manuscript), almanacks, printed or lithographed letters, and such artistic productions as prints, maps (whether on paper, or canvas, or cloth, and whether printed or written), and photographs, when not on glass or in frames containing glass, and any description of paper, parchment, or vellum, (whether printed, lithographed, written upon, or plain, or any mixture of the four), together with any binding, mounting, or covering, of or upon or belonging to any such article or production, or any portion thereof, or of or belonging to any paper, parchment, or vellum, and including also any cases or rollers of prints or maps, bookmarkers (whether of paper or otherwise), pencils, pens, or other things usually appertaining to any such article or production, paper, parchment, or vellum, or necessary for its safe transmission, which shall be sent in the same packet with any such article or production to which they or it shall belong. And all letters, notices, and other communications (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed, or partly lithographed, and partly written, which, if wholly written, would not be considered letters or communications in the nature of letters: provided, nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize the sending by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, of any letter, notice, or other communication (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed, or partly lithographed and partly written, which, if wholly written, would be considered a letter or communication in the nature of a letter, nor of any packet consisting of or containing any photographs, drawings, prints, or other contents which may be obviously of an obscene character, nor of any packet comprising prints or printed matter, unless such prints or printed matter shall consist only of prints or printed matter on paper, parchment, or vellum; and the term "printed papers," used in this Warrant, shall mean and include books (stitched or bound), pamphlets, parliamentary proceedings, proceedings of the colonial legislatures, periodical works, prices current, commercial lists, courses of exchange, sheets of music, prints, or printed or engraved maps, catalogues, prospectuses, announcements, and notices of every kind, whether British, colonial, or foreign, and whether printed, engraved, or lithographed; and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

24. In all cases in which any question shall hereafter arise, whether any article, matter, or thing, transmitted under the provisions of this Warrant, is entitled to the privileges of this Warrant, and to be so transmitted, within the intent and meaning of this Warrant, such question shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

25. So much of a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the 20th day of December, 1856, and so much of the Schedule F thereto, as relates to or affects British newspapers posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Malta or Egypt, transmitted by the closed mail viâ Marseilles, and as relates to or affects foreign and colonial newspapers posted in Malta or Egypt, addressed to the United Kingdom, transmitted by the closed mail viâ Marseilles, shall be, and the same is, hereby repealed.

26. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, or the hands of any two of them, at any time hereafter alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, and conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

27. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

Notice is given in this Gazette by the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that it is expedient that the Local Government Act, 1858, should be adopted by the district of Grcetland, in the county of York, exclusive of so much thereof as lies westward of a line commencing at the point P (on the plan accompanying the Inspector's report, dated 15th February, 1865, where the footbridge crosses the Black Brook; thence to Q, at the foot of Outram-lane; thence along the north and east sides of the said lane to R, on the Barkisland and Elland turnpike-road; thence crossing the said turnpike road along the east side of the said Outram-lane and south side of Bryanroyd-lane to S on the Blackstone Edge turnpike-road; thence crossing the said turnpike road along the east side of Moor Bottom-lane to T; thence in a straight line to U at the stepping stones at Copley, in the centre of the River Calder, and on the boundary between the townships of Elland and Salterhebble.—Dated the 11th day of March, 1865.

FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE of MARCH 17,
 1865.

War Office, March 17, 1865.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to give orders for the appointment of the Honourable Sir Frederiek William Adolphus Bruce, K.C.B., late Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Emperor of China, and now Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the United States of America, to be an Ordinary Member of the Civil Division of the First Class, or Knights Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath.

Her Majesty has also been graciously pleased to give orders for the appointment of Edward Mortimer Archibald, Esq., Her Majesty's Consul at New York, to be an Ordinary Member of the Civil Division of the Third Class, or Companions of the said Most Honourable Order.

Whitehall, March 17, 1865.

The Queen, taking into Her Royal consideration that upon the death of the Most Noble Algernon, Duke of Northumberland, Knight Companion of the Most Noble Order of the Garret, without issue, in the month of February last, the dignity of Duke of Northumberland devolved upon the Right Honourable George, Earl of Beverley, now Duke of Northumberland, as being the eldest son and heir of Algernon, Earl of Beverley, deceased, who was second son of Hugh, Duke of Northumberland, and next brother of Hugh, Duke of Northumberland, who was father of the said Algernon, late Duke of Northumberland, deceased, whereby according to the ordinary rules of honor the brother and sister of the said George, now Duke of Northumberland, cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them had their said late father Algernon, Earl of Beverley, survived the said Algernon, late Duke of Northumberland, and thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Duke of Northumberland ; Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that the Honourable Charles Greatheed Bertie Percy, of Guy's Cliff, in the county of Warwick, and Emily Charlotte Drummond, relict of Andrew Mortimer Drummond, Esquire, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence, as if their late father, the said Algernon, Earl of Beverley, had succeeded to the said title and dignity of Duke of Northumberland :

And Her Majesty has been further pleased to command that the said Royal order and declaration be registered in Her College of Arms.

Whitehall, March 16, 1865.

The Queen has been pleased to give and grant unto William Henry Harrison, of Welton House, in the township of Welton, and parish of Welton-cum-Milton, in the East Riding of the county of York, Esquire, in the Commission of the Peace, and one of the Deputy Lieutenants for the East

Riding of the said county, eldest son and heir of William Henry Harrison, of Ripon, in the said county of York, Doctor of Medicine, by Mary, his wife, sister of Sophia Broadley, late of Welton House aforesaid, Spinster, all deceased, Her Royal licence and authority that he may (in compliance with the desire expressed in the will of the said Sophia Broadley) henceforth take and use the surname of Broadley, in addition to and after that of Harrison, and bear the arms of Broadley, quarterly in the first quarter, with those of Harrison, and that the said surname and arms may in like manner be taken, used, and borne by his issue; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms and recorded in the College of Arms, otherwise the said Royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command that the said Royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
March 17, 1865.*

THE Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the following translation of Provisional Regulations, issued by the European Commission for the Danube, with respect to the Navigation and Police of that River:—

PROVISIONAL REGULATION OF NAVIGATION AND POLICE, APPLICABLE TO THE LOWER DANUBE.

THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION OF THE DANUBE.

Whereas inconveniences result from the variety of the regulations enacted by common agreement, and put in force provisionally on the part of the Danube situated below Isaktcha, in pursuance of the stipulations of the Treaty of Paris, under date of 30th March, 1856 :

The Commission enacts the following Regulation of Navigation and Police, in which are united in one single text, after having been revised, the provisions having force of law of the regulations successively promulgated up to this time.

General Provisions.

Art. 1.

The navigation of the Lower Danube below Isaktcha is placed under the immediate superintendence of the Inspector-General of the Lower Danube and of the Captain of the Port of Sulina.

Art. 2.

The Inspector-General is specially charged with the Police of the Lower Danube, exclusive of the Port of Sulina.

He is assisted by several overseers distributed over the different sections of the river under his jurisdiction.

Art. 3.

The Captain of the Port of Sulina, under whose orders act the port-officers (bossemans), is charged with the Police of the port and roadstead of Sulina.

Art. 4.

The masters of merchant-vessels, to whatever flag they belong, are bound to comply with the orders which are given them by the Inspector-General, by the Captain of the Port, and by the subalterns placed under the orders of these two officers.

They are equally bound to state to them, when called upon to do so, their name, as well as the name and flag of their vessel, and to show to them their agreement with the crew, without prejudice to the provisions of Articles 10, 17, and 65 hereinafter contained.

Art. 5.

Independently of the judicial functions exercised by them in the cases provided for in Articles 79 and 107 of the present Regulation, the Inspector-General and the Captain of the Port of Sulina decide summarily on disputes arising between captains and their crews, calling in the aid of two captains of the same nationality as the contending parties, or, in their absence, of two other captains.

They do not, however, exercise this part of their powers unless their interference is claimed by one of the parties concerned, and then only in the event of there being no other competent authority on the spot.

Art. 6.

As regards the action of the vessels-of-war stationed at the mouth of the river, it is exercised in conformity with the 19th Article of the Treaty of Paris of the 30th March, 1856, which states that the said vessels have for mission to ensure the execution of the regulations enacted by common agreement.

PART I.

Concerning the Police of the Sulina Roads and Port.

CHAPTER 1.

Police Regulation for the Sulina Roads.

Art. 7.

The Sulina roadstead comprises the waters of the sea for a radius of two nautical miles round the head of the north pier.

Art. 8.

Every vessel arriving in the Sulina roads from seaward must hoist her national colours.

Art. 9.

If she remains in the roads to ship or unload cargo, she must nevertheless obey the orders of the Captain of the Port and of his agents in everything relating to the navigation police. She is specially bound to conform to the provisions of the present regulations contained in Part V, and having reference to the lighter service.

Art. 10.

She must anchor at the place pointed out by the Chief Pilot or Deputy Chief Pilot of the Sulina Port. Within twenty-four hours after anchoring, the captain or his chief officer must report himself at the Port Captain's office, to present his ship's papers.

Art. 11.

Boats belonging to vessels anchored in the roads are forbidden to cross the bar, and to ply in the port during the night, without carrying a lighted lantern.

CHAPTER 2.

Police Regulations for the Port of Sulina.

Art. 12.

The Port of Sulina comprises the Sulina branch for a space of three nautical miles up the river, starting from the opening of the channel formed by the heads of the piers at the mouth.

Art. 13.

No sailing or steam vessels of more than 60 tons register may cross the bar of Sulina, either entering from the sea or leaving the river, without having on board a pilot licensed by the local authorities.

This clause, however, does not apply to steamers that make periodical voyages, which are permitted to employ their own pilots.

The pilot service is regulated by special provisions under Part IV of these present regulations.

Art. 14.

No vessel is permitted to enter or leave the Port of Suhna without hoisting the national colours. The port authorities will not allow any vessel without a flag to pass.

Art. 15.

If, owing to stormy weather, the Sulina Bar is judged impracticable by the Captain of the Port, a blue flag is hoisted on the tower of the lighthouse, to show that the pilots are unable to go out to vessels in the roadstead.

Art. 16.

Guard boats are stationed at the two entrances to the port. Captains entering the port must anchor in the berths pointed out to them by the officers in charge of these boats.

Art. 17.

Captains must then present themselves within twenty-four hours at the office of the Captain of the Port, to produce there their ship's papers.

They are equally bound, with the exception of the captains of the postal steam packets making regular voyages, to present their papers to the Cashier of the Navigation Chest at Sulina, who affixes to the roll of the crew of each vessel entering the Danube waters, of whatever tonnage she may be, a stamp bearing these words: "Commission Européenne du Danube, Caisse de Navigation de Soulina,"—the date of the year, and her serial number. This stamp is cancelled before the vessel leaves, by another stamp across it.

If vessels do not remain more than twenty-four hours at Sulina, the ship's papers are immediately restored to the captains after the accomplishment of the prescribed formalities ; in the contrary case they remain deposited at the office of the Captain of the Port, by whose agency they are transmitted, if required, to the competent consular authority, after payment of the navigation dues, and the payment or deposit of the fines levied in virtue of the present regulation ; save and except in this case, the roll of the crew must always remain on board the vessel.

Art. 18.

After having cast anchor, vessels are to moor by cables to the posts fixed for the purpose along the two banks, or to vessels already moored.

Art. 19.

Vessels must take in their booms and jib-booms, which in no case may be used for mooring boats. During the whole period of remaining at anchor, the yards must be braced fore and aft.

Art. 20.

Small coasting vessels, as well as lighters, are forbidden to move about the port during the night. Boats belonging to the port or to merchant vessels may not ply during the night without carrying a lighted lantern.

Art. 21.

It is prohibited to heat tar or pitch on board vessels inside the port. Captains are bound to see that no lights whatever are used on board their vessels, other than glass lamps or lanterns.

CHAPTER 3.

Provisions common to both Roadstead and Port of Sulina.

Art. 22.

Art. 64 of these present regulations, which forbids the throwing out of ballast, except at stated places, has particular reference to the Roadstead and Port of Sulina, properly so called.

Art. 23.

It is forbidden, without the authority of the Captain of the Port, to remove anchors, chains, and other articles abandoned in the Port and Roadstead of Sulina.

Art. 24.

In case of a vessel stranding, of shipwreck, as well as in cases of damage, the Captain of the Port of Sulina will immediately give the promptest assistance to save the vessel, her cargo, and gear, and to protect the general interests of the navigation; after which, he divests himself of the administration of the salvage, and forwards all the documents drawn up by him to the nearest competent authority.

PART II.

Concerning the River Police.

CHAPTER 1.

General Regulations.

Art. 25.

Every captain or master of a sailing or steam vessel in the act of navigating or stationary, whether at anchor or moored to the bank, is bound to take care that his vessel causes neither hindrance to the navigation nor damage, whether to other vessels or to landing jetties, buoys, signals, towing paths, or other establishments placed on the river or its banks for the benefit of the navigation, and he is to attend to the preservation of his own vessel with the same care.

Vessels navigating or stationary in the Sulina branch are bound to carry their anchors suspended freely from the cat-heads, without making them fast to the bulwarks.

Persons charged with conducting floats of wood and rafts are equally bound to take the same precautions as vessels.

These floats and rafts, when they descend the Sulina branch, can only have a draught of water at least one foot less than the depth of water on the shallowest shoal in the said branch.

In no case can they have more than twelve feet draught of water.

CHAPTER 2.

Regulations for Vessels crossing or passing one another.

Art. 26.

As a general rule, vessels are forbidden to pass one another if going in the same direction, and two vessels sailing in opposite directions may not cross in places where the channel does not afford sufficient breadth.

Art. 27.

No vessel may steer across the course taken by another vessel in such a manner as to impede it in its way.

When a vessel ascending the river finds itself exposed to meeting a vessel descending at a point which does not afford sufficient breadth, she must stop below the passage till the other vessel has cleared it; and if the ascending vessel should be actually in the passage as the other approaches it, the descending vessel must cast the anchor which she is bound to carry always in readiness astern, and stop above until the passage is clear.

Art. 28.

In narrow passages steam vessels must not approach closely vessels which precede them.

Art. 29.

When two steam vessels, or two sailing vessels, sailing with a favourable wind meet whilst proceeding in different directions, the one ascending stream must steer towards the left bank, and the vessel descending towards the right bank, so that both go to starboard as is customary at sea.

Any captain or master breaking this regulation will have to prove in the event of a collision, that it was impossible for him to observe it, in default of which he will be responsible before the competent tribunal for all accidents which may have happened.

He is moreover bound to give the signals prescribed by Arts. 31 and 32, following. If two steam vessels give the same signal simultaneously, the signal of the descending vessel rules.

Art. 30.

When two steam vessels, proceeding in different directions, are approaching a curve in the river, they must give the signals prescribed by Arts. 31 and 32, following, and the ascending vessel must stop until the other has cleared the passage.

Art. 31.

When one steam vessel wishes to pass another going in the same direction it must signal before arriving at a short distance by means of five strokes on the bell or five whistles, and by waving a flag on the forecastle or by hoisting half-mast a blue flag by day or a white light at night.

Upon these signals the vessel in advance is bound to steer to the left and give passage to the other which will take the right. As soon as the vessel following is half a ship's length from the one she is about to pass, or from the tail of a convoy in tow, the latter must slacken speed until she has been passed.

Art. 32.

A sailing vessel coming up with another of inferior sailing powers, and desiring to pass her, must signal her intention in good time by hailing the vessel in advance, which will be required to let her pass to windward.

A steam vessel wishing to pass a sailing vessel going in the same direction as itself, will be required to give the signals prescribed by Art. 31, within a short distance, and must pass the sailing vessel to leeward.

Art. 33.

Steam vessels going down stream are to slacken speed at the points where the river describes sharp curves, until a clear passage is visible from the stern of the vessel. If any other vessel should be in the bend the steamer must signal its approach by sounding its whistle.

Art. 34.

Every steamer, whether ascending or descending the river, is bound to avoid vessels which it may meet dropping down with the current.

The vessel so dropping down is required on its part, when it meets other vessels whether under sail or steam, to steer parallel to the banks, so as to offer as little obstacle as possible to a free passage.

Art. 35.

Vessels tacking must take care not to get in the way of steamers.

Art. 36.

Captains or masters of vessels heavily laden, or of laden vessels of less than 60 tons register, are required to keep as much as possible out of the way of steamers which may meet or come up with them.

Captains of steamers are bound on their part, when passing near vessels of the kind mentioned in the preceding paragraph, to slacken speed, or stop completely in case of danger to the said vessels if they can do so without danger to themselves or to the vessels they may have in tow.

Art. 37.

In obeying and construing the rules laid down in the preceding Articles 26 to 36 inclusive, due regard must be had to all dangers of navigation, and due regard must also be had to any special circumstances which may exist in any particular case, rendering a departure from the above rules necessary in order to avoid immediate danger.

CHAPTER 3.

Towage Rules.

Art. 38.

Captains or masters of tugs navigating with or without vessels in tow, are bound to observe all the preceding provisions; they are, moreover, specially bound to obey the injunctions of Arts. 31, 32, and 33, when one convoy wishes to pass another, the which case excepted, two convoys must never be side by side, either at anchor or navigating in company.

In the event of meeting sailing vessels or steamers going down stream a tug going up has the option of deviating from the injunctions contained in the above Article 29, in order to keep out of the current, if she can do so without danger to the vessel she is meeting. The tug is moreover bound, if she avails herself of this permission, to give the signals prescribed by the above Articles 31 and 32.

Art. 39.

As a general rule, any steam vessel not towing a convoy, as well as every vessel sailing with a fair wind, is bound to give passage to a convoy of vessels in tow. In default of sufficient space for doing this, captains and masters, both of tugs and vessels in tow, are bound, even in cases where the signals prescribed by the preceding Articles 31, 32, and 33, have not been given, to draw aside, agreeably to the provisions of the said Articles, and to arrange in single file the vessels in tow.

Captains and masters of tugs and vessels in tow are, moreover, required in all cases of meeting other vessels to close together as near as possible, so as to leave to the others a sufficiently wide passage.

Paddlewheel steamers, when navigating in the Sulina Channel, must not lash alongside them the vessels they have taken in tow. It is generally forbidden to navigate in the said channel with more than two vessels lashed abreast.

CHAPTER 4.

Rules relative to Tracking from the Banks.

Art. 40.

The paths that follow both banks of the Danube are specially intended to be used for the tracking of vessels either by men or draught animals ; foot-passengers and carriages can also make use of them.

Art. 41.

The towing path must be free from all obstacles that can impede its use, such as bushes, trees, enclosures, houses, and other erections.

Art. 42.

The establishment in the river, and especially near the banks, of boat mills, irrigating wheels, and other similar constructions, is forbidden, without a formal permission from the authority in charge of the river police.

Art. 43.

It is expressly forbidden to dig ditches across the towing path, unless the proprietor of the ground undertakes to bridge over any such obstructions.

Art. 44.

Mooring posts having been fixed along the Sulina, captains and masters must avoid driving stakes or fixing anchors on the towing paths for the purpose of mooring their vessels.

Art. 45.

If two vessels, tracking in opposite directions, meet at the side of the same bank, the one going up stream must stand out to let the other pass.

If a vessel tracked by draught animals comes up with one tracked by men, the latter must allow the former to pass.

In the case of a vessel tracked coming up with one moored to the bank, the captain of this latter must allow the sailors belonging to the tracking vessel to come on board to carry over the tracking-rope.

Art. 46.

No attempt is to be made to pass a vessel tracked from the shore, unless it be by steering between her and the bank opposite the one from which she is being tracked. Vessels, when tracked, are bound, on their part, upon the signals prescribed by Articles 31 and 32 preceding, to keep as near as possible to the bank which they are skirting.

CHAPTER 5.

Rules for Navigating at Night, or in a Fog.

Art. 47.

All steam-vessels navigating during the night (between sunset and sunrise), must be furnished with a white light, easily visible at a distance of at least two miles, hoisted at the foremast-head, a green light on the starboard side, and a red light on the port side.

The said green and red lights shall be fitted with inboard screens, so as to prevent these lights from being seen across the bow.

Sailing-vessels under weigh, or being towed, shall carry the same lights as steam-vessels under weigh, with the exception of the white foremast-head light, which they shall never carry. Steam-vessels, when towing other ships, shall carry two bright white mast-head lights vertically, in addition to their side lights, so as to distinguish them from other steam-vessels.

In the application of the rules prescribed in this Article, every steam-vessel which is under sail, and not under steam, is to be considered a sailing vessel; and every steam-vessel which is under steam, whether under sail or not, is to be considered a vessel under steam.

Art. 48.

Sailing-vessels, convoys in tow, and rafts, may not navigate when both banks of the river cannot be seen at the same time.

Art. 49.

In a fog, steamers may not navigate except at slackened speed. The bell on board must be struck without intermission, whilst a whistle must be sounded every five minutes. They are bound to drop anchor if the fog becomes so thick that they cannot see the bank they are following, or towards which they are steering.

Art. 50.

Vessels are forbidden to leave their hawsers across the stream during the night, or in foggy weather.

CHAPTER 6.

Rules for Vessels at Anchor.

Art. 51.

Vessels are expressly forbidden to drop anchor or to moor in the channel of navigation. Except in the case provided for by Article 66 hereinafter, it is equally forbidden to moor or to anchor vessels in the concave bends of the river, even alongside the banks, under pain of being responsible for all damage that their presence there may occasion.

Outside the ports, two or more vessels may never be anchored or moored abreast of one another alongside the towing path.

Art. 52.

If in consequence of a fog, a vessel or raft is obliged to stop at any other than a regular mooring place, the bell on board must be struck if the vessel is a steamer, if not the fog horn must be used. These signals must be repeated every five minutes.

Art. 53.

Every vessel stopping in the river during the night, must be furnished with a lighted lantern, which should be placed either at the end of one of the main yards, or on any other visible part of the vessel, on the side towards the channel, in such a manner that it may be seen equally well both up and down stream.

Rafts stationed at anchor during the night, must carry two lights, one at each angle, on the channel side.

Art. 54.

When a vessel for the purpose of mooring, or getting off a bank, as provided for in the following chapter, is obliged to stretch a cable or chain across the channel, these moorings must be promptly slackened the moment another vessel wishes to pass.

CHAPTER 7.

Rules for Cases of Stranding and Shipwreck.

Art. 55.

Every captain or master of a vessel or raft, grounded in the Sulina Channel, is bound to station at a convenient spot, at least half a nautical mile above his vessel, a look out, charged with hailing vessels and rafts coming down stream, to acquaint them with the nature and place of the accident.

Art. 56.

Steam vessels must go at half-speed only, whilst passing places where a vessel or raft has run aground or foundered.

Art. 57.

Every shipwreck in the Sulina Channel is regarded with suspicion (extraordinary cases excepted), and is presumed, until the contrary has been proved, to be owing to negligence or evil intent on the part of the captain or crew of the wrecked vessel.

The pilot of the vessel is personally responsible for the wreck if caused by bad management.

Art. 58.

If, contrary to all probability, a vessel should be wrecked in the Sulina Channel, the captain is bound to use every effort to haul her immediately alongside one of the banks, so that she may not remain in the channel.

The captain of the wrecked vessel and his crew are bound to remain on board, or on the bank near the spot where the accident took place, until the report mentioned in Art. 59 following, has been drawn up.

They are forbidden, under any pretext whatever, to remove any part of the ship's cargo, stores, anchors, chains, cables, &c.

Art. 59.

Immediately after the wreck the pilot of the vessel must as promptly as possible acquaint the Inspector-General with the news, by means of the Superintendents of Police. The Inspector-

General will proceed at once to the spot, and will draw up a detailed report of the accident, which he will forward to the competent authority.

Art. 60.

If the Inspector-General judges it necessary to take immediate measures in the interest of the navigation, he will summon for this purpose the captain of the wrecked vessel, who is bound either to declare on the spot, that he abandons his vessel, or to act with his crew under the orders of the Inspector-General: the latter will superintend the salvage up to the point where the work ceases to be of public utility, and has become an affair of private interest.

The vessel whose salvage has been effected by the help of the authorities charged with the river police, is liable for the payment of a sufficient sum to cover the salvage expenses, and the keeping in repair the gear used for such purposes.

Art. 61.

The works undertaken by owners, insurers, and interested parties, with the object of effecting the salvage of wrecked vessels and their cargoes, must be carried out under the superintendence of the Inspector-General or of his agents, and they may be temporarily suspended if considered to be of a nature likely to cause any hindrance whatever to the navigation.

Art. 62.

If, besides the case of pressing necessity provided for in the above Art. 60, the removal of the carcass or remains of a wrecked vessel is considered necessary, the owners, insurers, or other interested parties, are bound to accomplish it within a month from the time of receiving notice to this effect, in default of which the work may be officially performed by the Inspector-General within the limits determined above in Art. 60. In this case the wrecked vessel with it's equipments, or what remains of them, are specially affected to the payment of the expenses of removal.

Art. 63.

In cases of damage, particularly if caused by collision, the Inspector-General, if he is able to prove the facts of the case, and if he is called upon to do so by one of the parties concerned, will draw up a report of the same, which will be forwarded to the competent authority.

CHAPTER 8.

Rules for the Discharge of Ballast.

Art. 64.

Vessels are strictly forbidden to throw their ballast overboard into the river or on the roadstead of Sulina ; they are in like manner forbidden to discharge ballast into the parts of the sea in the neighbourhood of the roadstead in depths of less than ten fathoms.

The landing of ballast above the Port of Sulina, can only be carried on at the points of the river bank appointed by the Inspector-General of the navigation, and made known by public notice.

The captain of the Port of Sulina appoints the places where ballast can be discharged in the port.

The discharged ballast must in every case be transported to such a distance that the foot of the heap shall be at least twenty English feet from the edge of the proper river bank.

The provisions of this Article are equally applicable to the throwing overboard of the cinders and ashes of steam vessels.

Art. 65.

To ensure as far as possible the fulfilment of the preceding Article, every vessel leaving the Port of Sulina in ballast, for a port higher up the river, must be provided with a certificate from the captain of the port, stating the draught of water caused by her ballast.

This certificate must be kept on board during the whole voyage up the river, to be produced upon every demand of the Inspector-General, or of his agents.

PART III.

Concerning the Police of the Port of Toultscha.

Art. 66.

Every vessel lying at Toultscha, must be moored to the right bank of the river. It is, however, to be understood, that there shall never be more than three vessels moored abreast.

Art. 67.

No vessel may drop anchor in the navigable channel off Toultscha, that is to say, on the right of the bollards, and red buoys fixed along the left bank of the river, nor between the posts on the right bank, bearing the sign of an anchor reversed.

Art. 68.

Vessels are permitted to haul on the bollards and buoys to help them to double the Toultscha bend, but in no case are they allowed to use them as mooring posts. It is understood that this provision does not apply to steamers making periodical voyages, which stop for a short time only off Toultscha.

It is also forbidden that two or more vessels haul on one buoy at the same time.

PART IV.

Concerning the Pilot Service at the Mouth and in the River.

CHAPTER 1.

Pilot Service at the Mouth.

Art. 69.

Pilotage at the river mouth being compulsory as stated in Art. 13 of these present regulations, a special corps of licensed and responsible pilots acts at Sulina, under the direction of a Chief Pilot, and of the Captain of the Port. These pilots bear the title of pilots of the first class.

Art. 70.

A boat is held in readiness to take the pilots on board vessels which approach the port from the sea as soon as the look-out on the lighthouse tower signals their arrival.

Pilots are bound to go a mile to seaward of the head of the north pier to meet vessels.

Art. 71.

As soon as a pilot boards a vessel, he must acquaint her captain with the depth of water over the bar channel, and, in return, the latter is bound to state to the pilot the draught of water of his vessel, and the proportion of cargo which she has on board. This proportion is made known without delay by the pilot to the Captain of the Port.

Art. 72.

Every pilot, not belonging to the Sulina corps, who happens to be on board a vessel prepared to cross the bar, is bound, immediately on the arrival of the local pilot, to give up to him entirely the direction of the ship.

Art. 73.

On leaving the river, the local pilot is bound to conduct the vessel to, at least a quarter of a mile to the east of the North Pier head.

Art. 74.

The pilot dues, as well for entry into the river as for departure, being comprised in the navigation dues levied at Sulina, it is forbidden to pilots of the first class to receive any remuneration from the captains whose vessels they have piloted.

CHAPTER 2.

River Pilot Service.

Art. 75.

Independently of the corps of pilots of the first class charged with piloting vessels across the Sulina Bar, and acting under the direction of the Captain of the Port, there is a special service of pilots, in like manner licensed and responsible, bearing the title of pilots of the second class, for merchant vessels navigating the river between Sulina and Ibraïla.

The River Pilot Service, properly so called, is placed under the superintendence of the Inspector General of the navigation. It is directed by a Chief Pilot, who has two offices, one at Ibraïla, the other at Galatz, and by a Deputy Chief Pilot, resident at Sulina.

Art. 76.

Merchant Captains ascending the river are not bound to take a licensed pilot when they make the voyage themselves on board their vessels, but the Deputy Chief Pilot at Sulina, set over the River Pilot Service, is obliged to procure them one, even in this case, if they require it.

For descending the river every merchant vessel, of more than 60 tons register, must take a licensed pilot of the second class.

The same obligation exists for vessels of more than 60 tons register ascending the river without a captain or master on board.

Art. 77.

The up-voyage commences from the time the vessel leaves the Port of Sulina to ascend the river, and terminates with the arrival of the vessel either at its port of destination, or at Ibraïla when she is bound for a port above this latter, or for Matchin.

The down voyage commences at Ibraïla, or on leaving the port where the vessel has taken her cargo, or clearance if she goes down empty, in the case where the port is situated below Ibraïla. It terminates when the vessel takes her anchorage in the Port of Sulina.

Vessels sailing from Matchin, from Guetchid, or a port above Ibraïla, must take their pilot when passing Ibraïla: those sailing from the ports of Reni or Ismail, have the option of providing themselves with a pilot when passing Toulitcha.

Art. 78.

Captains will arrange with the pilots the sum to be paid the latter for piloting their vessels up the stream. In case of dispute, however, on this point, the Port Authorities will not admit any claim on the part of pilots for a higher rate of wages than half a Dutch ducat a day for the voyage, in addition to subsistence on board.

The dues for piloting a vessel down stream, are comprised in the collection of navigation dues levied at Sulina.

This pilotage due can be lawfully paid only into the hands of the Cashier of the Navigation Chest, at Sulina.

CHAPTER 3.

Provisions common to the Pilot Service of both Mouth and River.

Art. 79.

The Inspector-General and the Captain of the Port of Sulina, each within the limits of his jurisdiction, will decide disputes arising between licensed pilots and merchant captains, in the event of their intervention being demanded by the latter.

Art. 80.

Licensed pilots are bound to report either to the Inspector-General or to the Captain of the Port of Sulina, all infractions of the regulations committed in their presence.

They are strictly forbidden to have any interest, either directly or indirectly, in any operation or concern connected with lighters.

Art. 81.

Any pilot who shall from incompetency or evil intent, be the cause of a collision of grounding or of wreck, shall be discharged, without prejudice, however, to the civil action which those interested may bring against him in the proper Courts.

If the circumstances causing the accident are such as to entail criminal proceedings, the pilot will be delivered up to the proper authorities to be tried according to law.

PART. V.

The Lighter Service.

CHAPTER 1.

General Rules.

Art. 82.

The lighters of the Lower Danube are divided into two classes ; namely :—those whose operations are purely local, whether at the Sulina mouth, or at any shallow passages in the river ; and those used in the coasting trade, which load a cargo at one of the interior ports, and ship it for further transport on board a sea-going vessel at any point in the river, or in the Port of Sulina, or on the roadstead.

Art. 83.

No one can undertake the local lighterage operations without having previously entered at the Port Office of Sulina the vessels intended to act as lighters, and before having been furnished with a license delivered by the Captain of the Port.

Before delivering the license the Captain of the Port causes the vessel intended for a lighter to be visited by a commission which judges whether it is in good condition, and ascertains at the same time its capacity in register tons and its burden in kilos of Constantinople. This examination is repeated every year.

The license delivered by the Captain of the Port must always be forthcoming on board of the lighter.

Sea-going vessels provided with regular ship's papers can be employed occasionally for lightening other vessels, upon condition that the captains make for each operation a special declaration, and deposit their papers, the muster-roll of the crew included, either at the Port Office at Sulina, if the vessel to be lightened is at the mouth of the river, or the office of the Inspector-General if the light-erage is to be effected in the river.

CHAPTER 2.

Local Lighters.

Art. 84.

Lighters (whether sailing or steam vessels) must have no empty space in the hold, except such as is duly recognised by the captain of the port at the time of granting the licence.

Art. 85.

Lighters having once gone alongside the vessels they are about to lighten, are forbidden to leave the said vessels before the latter have weighed anchor. The captain of a vessel that has been lightened has the option of placing, at his own expense, a guard of his own choosing on board the lighter he employs. Lighters going on to the roadstead are forbidden to take cargo on the upper deck.

Art. 86.

No lighter may leave the Port of Sulina to repair to the roadstead without the permit of the Captain of the Port. This permit must be shown to the guard-boat stationed, in conformity with Art. 16 of these present regulations, at the entrance to the port from the sea.

Art. 87.

As a general rule, lighters must leave the Port of Sulina at the same time as the vessels they have lightened. In the case, however, that a vessel employs several lighters the captain of the port will regulate their departure in such a way that they may not have to remain in the Roads too long unable to effect the reloading.

Art. 88.

A lighter that has rejoined in the Roads the vessel she has lightened may not quit her on any pretext whatever until she has restored to her her cargo, except in case of circumstances beyond control. For operations of local lightering effected in the river channel the lighters must keep company with the vessels lightened. As soon as the re-shipment of goods has been effected on board of the lightened vessel her captain is bound to give a written acknowledgment.

Art. 89.

Lighters on re-entering the Port of Sulina after having lightened a vessel must show their permit to the guard-boat which has power to inspect them.

Lighters quitting the Roads at dusk, or during the night, after having lightened a vessel that has left the river, must anchor at a place set apart for this purpose, and they may not further ascend the river till the following day.

Art. 90.

The superintendence of the operations of local lightering which are carried on at the embouchure is exercised by the Captain of the Port of Sulina: that of the local lightering in the river belongs to the Inspector-General or his agents.

CHAPTER 3.

Concerning Coasting Lighters.

Art. 91.

The operations of coasting lighterage may be carried on either by sailing or steam vessels towing schlepps, or vessels provided with regular papers, on condition that their captains or masters procure for each voyage from the proper consular or local authorities of the ports where they ship their cargoes, a certificate stating the nature and terms of each operation.

Art. 92.

On the arrival of a coasting lighter in the Port of Sulina, the master must report himself at the Captain of the Port's Office, and present the certificate above mentioned.

If the lighter discharges the whole of her cargo within the port itself, she is required to moor alongside the vessel which is to receive her cargo, and she must not leave the same until she has finished unloading.

If she has had to discharge the whole or part of her cargo in the roads, the master must hand over the certificate prescribed by Art. 91 to the Captain of the Port, who will thereupon give him a permit to pass out.

Art. 93.

The provisions of the present part, concerning local lighters, are equally applicable to those engaged in the coasting trade during their stay in the Port and Roads of Sulina.

Steam transports, however, and schlepps, are not subjected in re-entering the port from the roads, to the inspection mentioned in Art. 89 preceding, except on the demand of one of the parties concerned, or in case of suspicion of fraud.

CHAPTER 4.

Special Provisions for circumstances beyond control.

Art. 94.

When a vessel is forced by stress of weather to quit the Roadstead of Sulina leaving all or part of it's cargo on board a lighter, the master of the lighter is bound to return to the port, and temporarily to retain his cargo on board.

Art. 95.

If, in the case provided for in the preceding Article, the lightened vessel does not reappear in the course of twelve days, the master of the lighter may demand of the Captain of the Port authority to unload his cargo and deliver it into the hands of the persons having a right to it; he may then exact payment of the freight money agreed upon as if he had placed the cargo on board the lightened vessel, but without any addition thereto.

If, before the expiration of the above specified period, the vessel returns to the roads and is again forced to put to sea, the days that had elapsed will not be counted, but a new period will commence, dating from her reappearance.

CHAPTER 5.

Special Provisions in cases of Fraud.

Art. 96.

In case of suspicion of inaccuracy or of false statement of a lighter's burden, merchant captains have the power of seeing the tonnage verified by a special commission named according to circumstances by the Captain of the Port of Sulina, or by the Inspector-General of the Navigation.

The expense of this survey will be borne by the captain who demanded it, unless inaccuracy or false statement is proved, in which case it will be at the charge of the lighter.

Art. 97.

If the captain of a lightened vessel has reason to think that part of his cargo has been embezzled on board the lighter chartered by him, he must make a declaration to that effect, either to the Captain of the Port of Sulina, or to the Inspector-General of the Navigation, who will thereupon take the measures which their special instructions prescribe to them.

PART VI.

On Offences.

CHAPTER 1.

Assessment of Fines.

§ 1.

Offences against the Provisions of Part I for the Police of the Roads and Port of Sulina.

Art. 98.

Every offence against the provisions of the second paragraph of Article 4, and against those of Articles 8, 10, 11, 14, 16, 19, 20, 21, and 23 of the present Regulation, is punished with a fine of one ducat at least, and five ducats at most.

The captain of every seagoing vessel, except the steamers engaged on postal service, found in the Danube, and whose agreement with his crew does not bear the stamp of which mention is made in Article 17 of the present Regulation, or shall only bear one or more annulled stamps, is liable to a fine of ten ducats at least, and of fifty ducats at most.

Offences against the Provisions of Part II for the River Police.

Article 99.

Every offence against the provisions of the first or of the second paragraph of Article 25, and against those of Articles 27, 29, 31, 32, 33, 34, 36, 38, 39, 41 to 54 inclusively, 56, 60, and 65, is punished with a fine of three ducats at least, and of ten ducats at most.

Every conductor of a raft or float of timber found navigating the Sulina branch, with a draught of water superior to that prescribed by the third paragraph of Article 25 hereinbefore enacted, is liable to a fine of ten ducats at least, and of fifty ducats at most.

Every offence against the provisions of Article 64 is equally punished with a fine of ten ducats at least, and of fifty ducats at most, if there has been throwing overboard or prohibited discharge of ballast.

The fine is five ducats for throwing overboard of cinders or ashes in the channel of the Sulina branch, in the roadstead or neighbouring parts of the sea having less than ten fathoms depth.

Offences against the Provisions of Part III on the Police of the Port of Toultscha.

Art. 100.

Offences against Articles 66, 67, and 68 are punished with a fine of from one to five ducats.

§ 4.

Offences against the Provisions of Part IV on the Pilot Service.

Art. 101.

Every offence against the provisions of the first paragraph of Article 13, or against the second paragraph of Article 76, is punished with a fine equal to four times the sum that the offending vessel would have had to pay for pilot dues, agreeably to the tariff in force.

Every refusal of the declarations prescribed by Article 71, or wilful inaccuracy in these declarations, either on the part of the captains or on the part of the pilots, and every offence against Article 72, are punished with a fine of five ducats at least, and ten ducats at most.

Every offence committed by the licensed pilots of the first or second class, or by the Chief or Deputy Chief Pilots against the provisions of the present Regulation, or the instructions which are given to them, and on account of which no special penalty is inflicted, is punishable with a fine of which the maximum cannot exceed thirty ducats.

Offences against the Provisions of Part V for the Lighter Service.

Art. 102.

Offences against Articles 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, and 94 are punished with a fine of from five to ten ducats.

§ 6.

Abusive Language and Assaults.

Art. 103.

Every instance of abusive language or contempt of the agents charged with the police of the navigation, acting in the performance of their duties, as well as all abusive language or contempt of the authority from which the said agents hold their power, is punished with a fine of one ducat at least, and of five ducats at most.

If there is an assault upon the person of an Agent of Police, when in the performance of his duty, the maximum of the fine may be raised to fifteen ducats.

CHAPTER 2.

Rules for the Infliction of Fines.

Art. 104.

The maximum of a fine can be doubled in case of a second offence.

A second offence shall be considered to have been committed by a captain of a sea-going vessel when the two offences shall have been committed in one voyage, that is, without the vessel having quitted the Danube in the interval.

For masters of lighters and pilots there is a repetition of an offence when it is committed a second time in the space of one year.

Art. 105.

Offences occasioned by circumstances over which the offender has no control are not liable to fines.

Art. 106.

Independently of fines to which they are sentenced, offenders may be prosecuted in the competent courts for the recovery of the damages to which they are civilly liable.

Art. 107.

The Captains are personally responsible for the offences committed by their crews.

Art. 108.

The Inspector-General of the Navigation, and the Captain of the Port of Sulina, take cognizance of the offences committed within the bounds of their several jurisdictions against the provisions of the present Regulation, and pronounce in the first instance the infliction of the fines incurred by reason of these offences.

The notification of their sentence is made at Sulina, in the Chancellery of the consular or local authority to which the party sentenced is amenable, if the offence has been committed during the down voyage. It is made to the same authority in the port the vessel is bound to, when the offence has been committed during the voyage up-stream. It can also be validly made to the person.

Art. 109.

The amount of the fines is appropriated, up to one hundred ducats a-year, to the endowment of the Fund of Relief established for necessitous Pilots; the surplus is paid into the Navigation Chest, to be appropriated to the maintenance of the Sailors' Hospital established at Sulina.

Art. 110.

Appeals against the sentences of conviction must be carried, within three months from the date of notification, either before the European Commission or before the Mixed Tribunal which may eventually be instituted at Sulina.

In case of appeal, the amount of the fine is consigned to the Navigation Chest, and remains there as a deposit until the case has been settled.

The judgment rendered on the appeal is final, and can be the object of no further proceedings whatever.

An appeal will not be received after the expiration of three months from the date of notification; and the amount of the fine then remains forfeited to the Navigation Chest.

Art. 111.

The present Regulation will enter in force on the 1st of March, 1865.

From that day the following regulations will cease to have force or law : —

The provisional regulation concerning throwing ballast overboard, dated 29th April, 1858.

The provisional regulation concerning the police of the navigation between Isaktcha and Sulina, dated 27th June, 1860.

The provisional regulation concerning the pilot service, dated 9th July, 1860.

The provisional regulation for the police of the port and of the roadstead of Sulina, dated the same 9th July, 1860.

The provisional regulation concerning the lighter service, dated 26th July, 1860.

The provisional regulation for the police of the port of Toultscha, dated 20th September, 1861.

The arrangements concerning the control of the operations of the Navigation Chest, dated 17th October, 1862.

The supplementary provisions to the regulation concerning the throwing overboard of ballast, dated 13th November, 1862.

The transitory provisions concerning the navigation of rafts and floats of timber in the Sulina branch, dated 24th September, 1863.

Art. 3. The exhibition will take place in the Company's buildings, "The Oporto Crystal Palace," in the city of Oporto.

Art. 4. The general exhibition will occupy the principal nave and aisles of the palace.

1st. For the Fine Art department, suitable picture galleries are provided in the body of the building.

2nd. The machinery will be placed in the Annex—a temporary iron building.

3rd. Cattle and other animals, which will be admitted during the period hereafter indicated (Art. 40), will have the necessary stalls.

Art. 5. No rent will be charged to exhibitors during the time appointed for the exhibition.

Art. 6. Rough counters and wall space will be provided gratuitously. The arrangements mentioned in Art. 26 will be at the charge of the exhibitor.

Art. 7. All goods and articles for the Exhibition must be delivered at the building free of any charge to the Company, and at the risk of the exhibitor. The reception of goods and articles for exhibition will commence on Monday, the 15th of May, 1865; and none will be received after the 31st of July.

Art. 8. Articles and packages will be unloaded at the building. Exhibitors may have their articles presented by their agents or employés; but if the said articles are not accompanied by any person, then the Exhibition Committee will order the opening of the same by their officers, and the distribution of the contents amongst the respective classes, all with utmost care, but at the risk of the owner.

Art. 9. Tickets will be issued to every exhibitor, his agent, or employé, to enable him to pass into the building, until the 20th August, between certain hours, to arrange the articles for exhibition. These tickets must be produced on entrance, and given up when required.

Art. 10. The most effectual means will be taken, in combination with the civil authorities, to guard against fire and protect the property of the exhibitors; but the Committee cannot be responsible for losses by fire, robbery, accident, or damage of any kind. (See Art. 25.)

Art. 11. The Committee reserve to themselves the right to exclude any article they may think unsuitable to the Exhibition.

Art. 12. The following articles will not be admitted :—

- 1st. Organic substances liable to decomposition and corruption.
- 2nd. Living animals—except during the days appointed for their exhibition, at the places destined for the same, in the grounds of the Company. (See Art. 40+2.)— 3rd. Phosphorus, gunpowder, and all detonating or dangerous substances. Copper caps, or other articles of a similar nature, may be exhibited, provided the detonating powder be not inserted; also lucifer matches, with imitation tops.

Art. 13. Spirits or alcohol, oils, acids, corrosive salts, and substances of a highly inflammable nature, will only be admitted by special written permission, and must be held in well-secured glass vessels, containing not more of any of those liquid substances than half an imperial pint each; and are to be placed in trays of lead or gutta percha, large enough to hold the contents of the glass vessels should a breakage occur.

Substances liable to give off an offensive smell must be properly enclosed in air-tight cases; also all substances liable to melt.

Art. 14. All articles exhibited will be classified without regard to nationality; but in each class the objects exhibited by one nation may be placed together.

Any exhibitor whose goods can properly be placed together will be at liberty to arrange such goods in his own way, provided his arrangement is compatible with the general scheme of the Exhibition, and the convenience of exhibitors.

Art. 15. Prices of articles exhibited may be affixed in all the Divisions. These prices are obligatory, under the penalty of immediate exclusion from competition, and loss of all prizes.

Art. 16. Exhibitors cannot remove their goods, or substitute others for them, during the period of the Exhibition, without the permission of the Committee.

Art. 17. Exhibitors may employ (under the regulations of the Committee) assistants to preserve and keep in order the articles they exhibit, or to explain them to visitors.

Art. 18. Free admission--within certain limits--will be given to exhibitors.

Art. 19. Steam and water power required for the purposes of the Exhibition will be supplied gratuitously.

Art. 20. Besides making arrangements for showing machinery in motion, and illustrating it by processes, the Committee will reserve space (if early application is made) for the exhibition of such processes of manufactures as can be carried on without danger to the rest of the Exhibition.

Art. 21. The Committee, considering that it will be interesting and instructive to the general public to have the opportunity of seeing the following and similar processes, will reserve sufficient space for showing examples of each of them:—Steel pen making, pin making, needle making, button making, medal striking, gold chain making, engine-turning for watches, brick and drain-tile making, glove making, stocking weaving, the manufacture of lincens, the manufacture of woollen fabrics, ribbon weaving, glass blowing on a small scale, type casting, type printing by hand, lithographic printing, copper-plate printing, earthenware printing, porcelain printing, a potter's wheel, turning in metal, wood, and ivory, lacc-making of all kinds, book-binding, tabinet and poplin weaving, straw-plait making, pipe and cigar making.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable upon, for, or in respect of letters, newspapers, parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers, transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post, and by the same Act powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of postage therein mentioned.

And whereas further powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas it is expedient to fix certain rates of postage on packets consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize, of no intrinsic value, transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and the several places hereinafter set forth, and also to make certain regulations in relation thereto, as are hereinafter contained.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore-recited Acts of Parliament and each of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided, order and direct as follows ; that is to say :—

1. All packets consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize, of no intrinsic value, posted in any part of the United Kingdom, addressed to Malta, or posted in Malta, addressed to any part of the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Malta, either in the closed mail viâ Marseilles, and by British packet boat, or viâ France, and by French packet boat, subject to the several rates of postage hereinafter mentioned ; that is to say :—

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid an uniform single rate of postage of four pence ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, for such transmission thereof respectively as aforesaid, the several progressive and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

2. All packets consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize, of no intrinsic value, posted in any part of the United Kingdom, addressed to Alexandria, Cairo, or Suez, or posted in Alexandria, Cairo, or Suez, addressed to any part of the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Alexandria, Cairo, and Suez, in the closed mail viâ Marseilles, and by British packet boat, subject to the several rates of postage hereinafter mentioned ; that is to say :—

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid an uniform single rate of postage of four pence ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, for such transmission thereof respectively as aforesaid, the several progressive and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

3. All packets consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize, of no intrinsic value, posted in any part of the United Kingdom, addressed to Shanghai, or any other port in China at which the British mail packet boat calls, or posted in Shanghai, or any other port in China at which the British mail packet boat calls, addressed to any part of the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Shanghai, or other ports in China at which the British mail packet boat calls, subject to the several rates of postage hereinafter mentioned ; that is to say :—

On every such packet not exceeding four ounces in weight so transmitted direct viâ Egypt (the sea conveyance being by British packet boat), there shall be charged, taken, and paid an uniform single rate of postage of fourpence ;

On every such packet not exceeding four ounces in weight so transmitted in the closed mail viâ Marseilles (the sea conveyance being by British packet boat), there shall be charged, taken, and paid an uniform single rate of postage of sixpence ;

And on every such packet if exceeding four ounces in weight there shall be charged, taken, and paid for such transmission thereof respectively as aforesaid, the several progressive and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

4. All packets consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize of no intrinsic value posted in any part of the United Kingdom, addressed to any foreign port on the Western Coast of Africa at which the British mail packet boat calls, or posted in any foreign port on the Western Coast of Africa at which the British mail packet boat calls, addressed to any part of the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and such foreign ports on the Western Coast of Africa as aforesaid (the sea conveyance being by British packet boat), subject to the several rates of postage hereinafter mentioned (that is to say) :

On every such packet not exceeding four ounces in weight there shall be charged, taken, and paid an uniform single rate of postage of threepence ;

And on every such packet if exceeding four ounces in weight there shall be charged, taken, and paid for such transmission thereof as aforesaid, the several progressive and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

5. Every packet which shall be transmitted by the post, under the authority of this Warrant, if exceeding four ounces in weight shall be subject to the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned (that is to say) :

- On every such packet if exceeding four ounces and not exceeding one half of a pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two rates of postage ;

And on every such packet if exceeding one half of a pound and not exceeding one pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid four rates of postage ;

And on every such packet if exceeding one pound and not exceeding one pound and one half of another pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid six rates of postage ;

And on every such packet if exceeding one pound and one half of another pound and not exceeding two pounds in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid eight rates of postage ;

And for every additional half of a pound in weight of any such packet above the weight of two pounds, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two additional rates of postage, and every fractional part of such additional half of a pound in weight shall be charged as an additional half of a pound in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

6. Every packet which shall be transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, shall be so transmitted in conformity with, and under and subject to, the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereinafter contained (that is to say) :—

7. No such packet, which in length or breadth or depth shall exceed the dimensions of two feet, shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant.

8. No pattern or sample being of any intrinsic value, or being an article or thing of a saleable nature, or having a value of its own apart from its mere use as a pattern or sample, shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant.

9. There shall be no enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorised by this Warrant, sent in or with any such packet.

10. There shall be no writing or printing in or upon any such packet or on the cover thereof, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender thereof, a trade mark, and numbers and prices.

11. All such packets shall be sent in covers open at the ends, so as to be easy of examination; nevertheless samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles and things as cannot be sent in open covers, may be enclosed in bags of linen or of other material; but bags so closed that they cannot be readily opened, even although they be transparent shall not be used for that purpose.

12. If any packet sent or tendered or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall in length or breadth or depth exceed the dimensions of two feet, or shall consist wholly of patterns or samples of any intrinsic value, as in the eighth clause of this Warrant mentioned, or if there shall be any writing or printing in or upon any such packet, or on the cover thereof, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender thereof, a trade mark, and numbers and prices, or if any such packets shall not be sent in covers open at the ends, so as to be easy of examination (except samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles and things as cannot be sent in open covers, and which may be enclosed in bags of linen or of other material), or in case of bags being used, if such bags shall be so closed that they cannot be readily opened, every such packet shall be chargeable and shall be treated in all respects as a letter.

13. If any packet sent or tendered or delivered, in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant shall contain any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other enclosure not authorised by this Warrant, every such enclosure may be taken out by any officer of the Post Office, and, at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be forwarded to the address on the packet, charged not only with the full rates of postage as an unpaid letter, but also, in the case of packets transmitted by the post under the provisions of the first, second, and fourth clauses of this Warrant, with a further and additional rate of postage of three pence, and, in the case of packets transmitted by the post under the provisions of the third clause of this Warrant, with a further and additional rate of postage of four pence, and the remainder of the packet, if duly prepaid by stamps, may be forwarded to the place of its address without any extra charge.

14. The postage of all such packets as aforesaid, posted in the United Kingdom, shall, in every case, be paid at the time of the same being posted, not in money, but by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, and the postage of all such packets as aforesaid, posted in Malta, or in Alexandria, Cairo, or Suez, shall also, in every case, be paid at the time of the same being posted, either in money or by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall, in every case, be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon under or by virtue of this Warrant.

15. If any packet sent or tendered or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Malta, without having thereon or affixed thereto any postage stamp, or shall be posted in Malta addressed to the United Kingdom, without any postage having been paid thereon, either in money or in postage stamps, every such respective packet shall be forwarded charged with a postage of double the amount of postage to which it would have been liable under and by virtue of this Warrant if the postage had been paid when posted.

16. If any packet sent or tendered or delivered, in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Alexandria, Cairo, or Suez, without having thereon or affixed thereto any postage stamp, or having thereon or affixed thereto a postage stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the single rate of postage payable, under this Warrant, on a packet not exceeding four ounces in weight, every such respective packet shall be detained and opened, and either returned or given up to the sender thereof.

17. If any packet sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Shanghai, or any other port in China at which the British mail packet boat calls, or to any foreign port on the Western Coast of Africa at which the British mail packet boat calls, without the postage payable thereon being paid at the time of the same being posted, by means of the proper postage stamp or stamps being affixed thereto, every such respective packet shall be detained and opened, and returned or given up to the sender thereof.

18. If any packet sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be posted in Alexandria, Cairo, or Suez, addressed to the United Kingdom, without any postage having been paid thereon, either in money or in postage stamps, or with a postage paid thereon in money or in postage stamps, less in amount than the single rate of postage payable under this Warrant, on a packet not exceeding four ounces in weight, every such respective packet shall be forwarded, charged with the full rates of postage, as an unpaid letter.

19. If any packet sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Malta, having thereon or affixed thereto a stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under and by virtue of this Warrant, or shall be posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Alexandria, Cairo, or Suez, having thereon or affixed thereto a stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable, under and by virtue of this Warrant, but equal in amount to the single rate of postage payable under this Warrant, on a packet not exceeding four ounces in weight, or shall be posted in Malta, addressed to the United Kingdom, with a postage paid thereon in money or in postage stamps less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under this Warrant, or shall be posted in Alexandria, Cairo, or Suez, addressed to the United Kingdom, with a postage paid thereon in money or in postage stamps less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under this Warrant, but equal in amount to the single rate of postage payable thereon, every such respective packet shall be forwarded, charged with the amount of the difference between the postage paid thereon or the value of such stamp or stamps so being thereon, or affixed thereto, and the postage to which such packet would be liable as aforesaid, together with a further and additional rate of postage of three pence.

20. In order to prevent any obstacles to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, any officer of the Post Office may delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, either for the space of twenty-four hours after the time at which the same ought to be despatched in due course of the post, or (at his option) until the despatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought, in due course of the post, to be forwarded by him.

21. In all cases in which any question shall hereafter arise whether any packet, or any pattern or sample contained therein, transmitted under or by virtue of this Warrant, is entitled to the privileges of this Warrant, and to be so transmitted within the intent and meaning thereof, such question shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final and conclusive upon all parties.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by a certain Warrant, in writing, under their hands, bearing date at Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the 26th day of December, 1861, did order and direct (amongst other things), that packets consisting of patterns of merchandize, of no intrinsic value, might be transmitted by the post between the island of Malta and any part of France or Algeria, in conformity with, and under and subject to the same or the like orders, directions, regulations, and conditions as were then in force, and subject to the same or the like rates of postage as were chargeable and payable in respect of printed papers, transmitted by the post between Malta and France or Algeria, in and by the therein recited Warrant, bearing date the 20th day of December, 1856 ; and the said Commissioners did also direct (amongst other things), that packets, consisting of patterns of merchandize transmitted by the post under the authority of the now reciting Warrant, between Malta and any place in France or Algeria, should not bear or have thereon any writing other than the address of the person for whom they are intended, except a manufacturer's or trade mark or number or price.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by a certain other Warrant, in writing, under their hands, bearing date at Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the 22nd day of December, 1863, did order and direct, that all packets consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize of no intrinsic value, posted in the United Kingdom addressed to Italy, or posted in Malta addressed to Italy, might be transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom to Italy in closed mails viâ France, and from Malta to Italy by French or by Italian mail packet boats, subject to the several rates of postage, and to the several regulations therein respectively mentioned and contained. And the said Commissioners did order and direct (amongst other things), that there should be no writing or marks of any description, in or upon any packet transmitted by the post, under the authority of the now reciting Warrant, or on the cover thereof, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, a trade mark and number and price.

22. Now we do hereby further order and direct that, notwithstanding anything in the said recited Warrant of the 26th day of December, 1861, and the 22nd day of December, 1863, respectively contained to the contrary, packets consisting of patterns of merchandise transmitted by the post under the authority of the said last mentioned Warrants between the Island of Malta and any part of France or Algeria from the United Kingdom to Italy, and from Malta to Italy may, in addition to bearing or having thereon in writing the address of the person for whom they are intended, and a manufacturer's or trade mark, or number or price, bear or have thereon the address of the sender thereof.

23. The term "foreign port" used in this Warrant shall include any foreign places on the Western Coast of Africa, and also any foreign islands situate within the distance of fifty miles from the same coast; and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96.

24. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, revoke, or modify any of the rates of postage hereby fixed, or any of the regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time may appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

25. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the sixteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable upon, for, and in respect of letters, newspapers, parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers, transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post.

And whereas by an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office," the provision concerning the maximum weight of letters to be sent by the post as fixed in and by the said first-mentioned Act is repealed, and in order to prevent packets of an unwieldy bulk, or an inconvenient size, being transmitted by the post, power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, at any time or times thereafter, by Warrant under their hands, to fix a maximum weight of letters to be sent by the post, and from time to time to repeal or revoke such maximum weight wholly or in part, and declare any other maximum weight in lieu thereof, and all letters are to be forwarded, conveyed, and delivered by the post in conformity with any such Warrant; and also in conformity with, under, and subject to, all such orders, conditions, limitations, regulations, and restrictions, as to the form, size, or dimensions thereof, whether in proportion to the weight or otherwise as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, shall from time to time direct ; and by the said Act power is also given to the Postmaster-General to collect and receive the foreign and colonial postage charged or chargeable on any letters sent by the post, and also with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to require the postage, British, colonial, or foreign, of any letters sent by the post, to be prepaid either in money or in stamps as he may think fit, on the same being put into the Post Office ; and also with such consent to abolish or restrict the prepayment in money of postage on letters sent by the post, either altogether or on certain letters, and to require the prepayment thereof to be in stamps, and to refuse to receive or send by the post any letters tendered contrary to any regulations thereby made ; and it is also declared and enacted that it shall be lawful for the Postmaster-General, and any officer of the Post Office, to detain any letters which shall be posted or sent by the post contrary to the regulations of that Act, or of the first-mentioned Act, or contrary to any regulations made under the authority of that Act, or the said first-mentioned Act, or contrary to the regulations of any Treasury Warrant to be issued under or by virtue of that Act, or which had been or should be issued under or by virtue of the said first-mentioned Act, and to open such letters, and either to return them to the senders thereof, or to forward them to the places of their destination, charged in either case with such rates of postage as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, shall from time to time direct.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by divers Warrants under their hands, have fixed and limited the dimensions of letters and packets transmissible by the post within the United Kingdom, and it is expedient to alter the same in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the undersigned, being two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do, in exercise of the powers reserved to us, in and by the said before-mentioned Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, by this Warrant under our hands, order and direct as follows :—

1. That (except in the cases hereinafter mentioned) no letter or packet of any description whatever, which in length shall exceed two feet, or in breadth or depth one foot, shall be forwarded by the post between any places within the United Kingdom, nor by the post of any post town in the United Kingdom.

2. That the preceding clause shall not extend or apply to petitions or addresses forwarded to Her Majesty, or to petitions or addresses to Her Majesty, or petitions to either House of Parliament forwarded to any Member of either House of Parliament, or to printed votes or proceedings of Parliament, or to letters or packets of any description whatever to or from any of the Government offices or departments, or to or from any public officer to whom the Postmaster General shall, from time to time, direct that the exemption hereby granted shall be extended, but so that the petitions and addresses forwarded to any Member of either House of Parliament, and printed votes and proceedings of Parliament be sent without covers, or in covers open at the sides, and so that if any such petitions or addresses to Her Majesty, or petitions to either House of Parliament forwarded to any Member of either House of Parliament, shall exceed thirty-two ounces in weight, according to the provisions of the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, the whole of such respective petitions and addresses shall be chargeable as heretofore with the full letter rates of postage.

3. That every letter sent or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post between any places in the United Kingdom, or by the post of any post town in the United Kingdom, which shall in length exceed two feet, or in breadth or depth one foot (except as hereinbefore is provided) shall and may be detained and opened, (and at the option of the Postmaster General) shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination under and subject to the following regulations (that is to say), if the postage of such letter shall have been prepaid in money, or if such letter shall bear a stamp or stamps equal in value or amount to the rates of postage to which it shall be liable, such letter may be returned or given up or forwarded (at the option of the Postmaster General) as aforesaid, free of any further or additional charge for postage; but if any such letter shall be posted without any stamp thereon, and without the postage thereof being prepaid, the same on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be chargeable with a postage of double the amount to which it would have been liable if the postage thereof had been prepaid when posted; and if any such letter shall have thereon or affixed thereto any stamp or stamps the value or amount of which shall be less than the rate of postage to which such letter would be liable if prepaid, or if the sum prepaid shall be less than the postage to which the letter was liable as prepaid, there shall be charged thereon a postage of double the amount of the difference between the value of such stamp or stamps, or the sum so prepaid, and the full postage to which such letter would have been liable if prepaid.

4. That every packet of whatever description (except letters) sent or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post between any places in the United Kingdom, or by the post of any post town in the United Kingdom, which shall in length exceed two feet, or in breadth or depth one foot (except as hereinbefore is provided), shall and may be detained and opened, and at the option of the Postmaster General be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination, and every such packet on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall, at the discretion of the Postmaster General, be chargeable with any rate or amount of postage he shall think proper not exceeding a postage of double the amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter if the postage had been paid when posted, nor less than the rate of postage which such packet would have been chargeable with if authorised to be transmitted by the post.

5. That so much of two several Warrants of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date respectively the 22nd day of October, 1847, and the 16th day of October, 1857 ; and so much of the several orders and directions therein respectively contained as relate to the dimensions of letters and packets authorized to be transmitted by the post within the United Kingdom shall be and the same are hereby repealed, revoked, and annulled.

6. That this Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

7. That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, for the time being, of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, by Warrant under their hands at any time hereafter to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby fixed or altered, or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the seventeenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

Luke White.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, it was enacted that all letters and newspapers, and other printed papers which should be posted in any town or place within the United Kingdom, or should be brought from parts beyond the seas to any port or place within the United Kingdom, or should be sent by the post between the United Kingdom and places beyond the seas, or between any of the other places thereinafter mentioned, or should pass through the United Kingdom, should be subject to the several regulations and rates thereinafter contained, and further that letters transmitted by the post should be charged by weight according to the scale therein mentioned, and that the several numbers of rates of postage thereinafter set forth should be charged by and be paid to Her Majesty's Postmaster General for the use of Her Majesty on letters transmitted by the post, that is to say : on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight one rate of postage ; on every letter exceeding half an ounce, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage ; on every letter exceeding one ounce, and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage ; on every letter exceeding two ounces, and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage ; on every letter exceeding three ounces, and not exceeding four ounces in weight, eight rates of postage ; and for every ounce in weight, above the weight of four ounces, there should be charged and taken two additional rates of postage ; and every fraction of an ounce, above the weight of four ounces, should be charged as one additional ounce. And it was by the said now reciting Act further enacted, that the following rates of postage (amongst others) should be charged by and paid to Her Majesty's Postmaster General for the use of Her Majesty on letters transmitted by the post, that is to say : Inland letters,—on all letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post between places within the United Kingdom (not being letters sent to or from parts beyond the seas), or posted in any post town in the United Kingdom, addressed to persons or places within such town or the suburbs thereof, there should be charged and paid one uniform rate of one penny, without reference to the number of sheets or pieces of paper or enclosures of which the same might be comprised, or to the distance or number of miles the same should be conveyed ; and that on all such letters, if exceeding half an ounce in weight, there should be charged and paid progressive and additional rates of postage (each additional rate being estimated at one penny) according to the scale of weight and number of rates thereinbefore fixed and declared, and hereinbefore recited and mentioned; provided that such postage of one penny and such progressive and additional postage were prepaid at the time of posting such letters, or that such letters were duly and properly stamped when posted, as thereafter provided; but in case such postage on any such letters should not be prepaid, and such letters should not be duly and properly stamped, there should be charged on such letters the rate of postage thereafter mentioned. And by the said now reciting Act it was also enacted that the Postmaster-General might, at any time thereafter, charge for the use of Her Majesty on all letters, newspapers, and other printed papers sent by the post on which the postage should not be prepaid, and which should not be duly and properly stamped, and also on all letters sent by the post without being duly and properly stamped, although the postage thereon should be wholly or in part prepaid, such higher rates of postage than would otherwise by law be payable on such letters, newspapers, or other printed papers as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant under their hands, should from time to time deem expedient, and might also remit any of the rates of British postage or inland postage for the time being payable by law on the transmission of post letters, newspapers, or other printed papers to such extent as the Lords of the Treasury should from time to time direct.

And whereas by another Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her Majesty, cap. 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office, it was enacted that, in order to prevent packets of an unwieldy bulk or an inconvenient size being transmitted by the post, it should be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, at any time or times thereafter, by Warrant under their hands, to fix the maximum weight of letters to be sent by the post, and from time to time to repeal or revoke such maximum weight wholly or in part, and declare any other maximum of weight in lieu thereof, and that all letters should be forwarded, conveyed, and delivered by the post, in conformity with any such Warrant, and also in conformity with, and under and subject to, all such orders, conditions, limitations, regulations, and restrictions as to the form, size, or dimensions thereof, whether in proportion to the weight or otherwise, as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, should from time to time direct; and by the said now reciting Act it was also enacted, that in all cases in which the British postage chargeable on any letters sent by the post should exceed the sum of one penny it should be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant under their hands, to reduce such postage to any other rate of postage they might from time to time think fit.

And whereas by a certain Warrant under the hands of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date at Whitehall Treasury Chambers, the 22nd day of October, 1847, it was (amongst other things) ordered and directed that (except as thereafter was provided or mentioned) if any letter exceeding four ounces in weight should be sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post between any places within the United Kingdom, or by the post of any post town in the United Kingdom, the postage of every such letter, according to the scale of weight and number and amount of rates of postage fixed and chargeable upon letters transmitted by the post between places within the United Kingdom, by the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty (being the first hereinbefore recited Act), should be prepaid in money, or such letter should be duly and properly stamped when posted.

And whereas inland letters have been heretofore, and since the passing of the said first hereinbefore recited Act, transmitted by the post, charged with rates of postage according to the scale of weight and number of rates fixed and declared in and by the said last-mentioned Act, and it is considered expedient to remit certain of the said rates of British postage or inland postage now payable on the transmission of such post letters, and to reduce the British postage chargeable thereupon in certain cases where such postage exceeds the sum of one penny, by altering the scale of weight and numbers of rates payable on such letters exceeding one ounce in weight, pursuant to the powers given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by and contained in the said hereinbefore recited Acts, and also to alter and amend the said hereinbefore recited Treasury Warrant, bearing date the 22nd day of October, 1847, in conformity thereto, in the manner hereinafter mentioned and contained.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers and authority vested in us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided, order and direct as follows :—

1. On all inland letters transmitted by the post between places within the United Kingdom (not being letters sent to or from parts beyond the seas), or posted in any post town in the United Kingdom, addressed to persons or places within such town or the suburbs thereof, if exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, there shall be charged and paid, in lieu and instead of the progressive and additional rates of postage charged according to the scale, and the several numbers of rates of postage mentioned and set forth, and authorised to be charged and paid, in and by the said hereinbefore recited Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-six, on such last-mentioned letters, the progressive and additional rates of postage, and according to the scale of weight hereinafter mentioned and set forth, each additional rate being estimated at one penny ; that is to say :—

On every such inland letter exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, one additional rate of one penny, that is to say, a postage of two pence ;

On every such letter exceeding one ounce, and not exceeding one ounce and one half of another ounce in weight, a postage of three-pence ;

On every such letter exceeding one ounce and one half of another ounce, and not exceeding two ounces in weight, a postage of four-pence ;

On every such letter exceeding two ounces, and not exceeding two ounces and one half of another ounce in weight, a postage of five pence ;

On every such letter exceeding two ounces and one half of another ounce, and not exceeding three ounces in weight, a postage of six-pence ;

And for every additional half of an ounce in weight, above the weight of three ounces, there shall be charged and taken one additional rate of postage of one penny ;

And every fraction of half of an ounce in weight, above the weight of three ounces, shall be charged as an additional half ounce in weight, and shall be liable to an additional rate of postage of one penny ;

Provided that such postage be prepaid at the time of posting such letters, or that such letters be duly and properly stamped when posted, as provided by the said first hereinbefore recited Act ; but in case such postage on any such letters shall not be prepaid, or such letters shall not be duly and properly stamped, there shall be charged on such letters a postage of double the amount to which such letters would otherwise be liable under this present Warrant.

2. The postage of every letter exceeding four ounces in weight, directed by the said hereinbefore recited Treasury Warrant, bearing date the 22nd day of October, 1847, to be prepaid in money, or to be duly and properly stamped when posted as is hereinbefore in that behalf mentioned and recited, shall be prepaid in money, or such letter shall be duly and properly stamped according to the scale of weight and amount of rates of postage hereinbefore by this Warrant fixed and made chargeable and payable upon such letters, and not according to the scale of weight and number and amount of rates of postage fixed and chargeable upon such letters by the said recited Act of the third and fourth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, as in the said recited Warrant is mentioned, anything in the said recited Treasury Warrant contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

3. The terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act of the third and fourth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96.

4. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the time being, by Warrant duly made, may at any time hereafter alter or repeal any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates of postage or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates of postage that may be payable are to be paid.

5. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-six, for the regulation of the duties of postage, certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable upon, for, or in respect of letters, newspapers, parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post; and, by the same Act, powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of postage therein mentioned.

And whereas further powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-five, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by a certain Warrant in writing under their hands, bearing date at Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the 17th day of August, 1864, in exercise of the powers reserved to them in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, did order and direct that all packets consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize, of no intrinsic value, posted in the United Kingdom, might be transmitted by the post within the United Kingdom, subject to the several rates of postage and regulations therein contained; and the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury did further order and direct that the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury might, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time thereafter, alter, repeal, revoke, or modify any of the rates of postage thereby fixed, or any of the regulations thereby made, and might make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates that might be payable were to be paid.

And whereas, since the making of the said recited Warrant, difficulties have arisen in deciding whether certain patterns or samples transmitted by the post, under the authority of the said Warrant, are of intrinsic value, and it is therefore expedient to remove the restriction upon patterns or samples of merchandise of intrinsic value, and to authorize the transmission of such patterns or samples by the post, and, for that purpose, to repeal the said recited Warrant, and the rates of postage and regulations therein mentioned, and to fix certain other rates of postage, and make certain other regulations in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament, and each of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided, order and direct as follows ; that is to say :—

1. All packets consisting of patterns or samples posted in the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post within the United Kingdom, subject to the several rates of postage, and to the several orders, directions, regulations, and restrictions hereinafter mentioned and contained ; that is to say :—

2. On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken one uniform rate of postage of two pence ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces, and not exceeding eight ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken one uniform rate of postage of fourpence ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding eight ounces, and not exceeding sixteen ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken one uniform rate of postage of eight pence ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding sixteen ounces, and not exceeding twenty-four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken one uniform rate of postage of one shilling.

3. No such packet which shall exceed twenty-four ounces in weight, or which in length shall exceed two feet, or in breadth or depth one foot, shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant.

4. There shall be no enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant, sent in or with any such packet.

5. There shall be no writing or printing upon any such packet, or on the cover thereof, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender thereof, a trade mark, and number and price of the pattern or sample contained therein, nor shall there be any writing or printing in any such packet, except the address of the sender thereof, a trade mark, and number and price of the pattern or sample contained therein, which shall in all such last-mentioned cases be written or printed on labels attached to the pattern or sample.

6. All such packets shall be sent in covers open at the ends so as to be easy of examination ; nevertheless samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles and things as cannot be sent in open covers may be enclosed in boxes or in bags of linen or of other material, which shall be fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened, but bags so closed that they cannot be readily opened, even although they be transparent, shall not be used for that purpose.

7. If any packet sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant shall exceed twenty-four ounces in weight, or shall in length exceed two feet, or in breadth or depth one foot, or if there shall be any writing or printing upon any such packet, pattern, or sample, or label attached thereto, or on the cover thereof, except as in the fifth clause of this Warrant mentioned, or if any such packets shall not be sent in covers open at the ends, so as to be easy of examination, except samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles and things as cannot be sent in open covers, and which may be enclosed in boxes or in bags of linen or of other material which shall be fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened, or in case of boxes or bags being used, if such boxes or bags shall be so closed that they cannot be readily opened, every such packet shall and may be detained and opened, and (at the option of the Postmaster-General) be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed or be forwarded to the place of its destination, and every such packet on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall, at the discretion of the Postmaster-General, be chargeable with any rate or amount of postage he shall think fit, not exceeding a postage of double the amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter if the postage had been paid when posted, nor less than the rate of postage which such packet would have been chargeable with if authorized to be transmitted by the post.

8. If any packet sent or tendered or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall contain any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant, every such enclosure may be taken out by any officer of the Post Office, and either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be forwarded to the address on the packet charged not only with the full rates of postage as an unpaid letter, but also with a further and additional rate of postage of one penny, and the remainder of the packet, if duly prepaid by stamps, may be forwarded to the place of its address, without any extra charge.

9. The postage of all such packets as aforesaid shall in every case be paid at the time of the same being posted, not in money, but by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet, near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon, under or by virtue of this Warrant.

10. If any packet sent or tendered or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be posted without having thereon or affixed thereto any postage stamp, every such last-mentioned packet shall be forwarded charged with a postage of double the amount of postage to which it would have been liable under and by virtue of this Warrant, if the postage had been paid by stamps when posted.

And if any such packet shall be posted, having thereon or affixed thereto a stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable, under and by virtue of this Warrant, but equal in amount to one penny at the least, every such last-mentioned packet shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the difference between the value of such stamp or stamps so being thereon or affixed thereto, and the postage to which such packet would be liable as aforesaid, together with a further and additional rate of twopence.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by a certain Warrant in writing under their hands, bearing date at Whitehall Treasury Chambers, the 28th day of November, 1844, in exercise of the powers reserved to them in and by the said firstly hereinbefore recited Act, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, did declare, consent, and direct (amongst other things) that no packet should be forwarded, conveyed, or delivered by the post within the United Kingdom, containing any razor, scissors, knife, fork, or other sharp or pointed instrument, or any article, matter, or thing whatsoever which might by pressure or otherwise be rendered injurious either to the officers of the Post Office or to the contents of the mail bags.

11. Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do hereby declare and direct that, notwithstanding the said recited Warrant of the 28th day of November, 1844, any packet posted in the United Kingdom, containing any razor, scissors, knife, fork, or other sharp or pointed instrument, keys, watch machinery, metal, metal tubing, or ore, or such like, shall and may be transmitted by the post within the United Kingdom, subject to the several rates of postage, and to the several orders, directions, regulations, and restrictions herein mentioned and contained; provided that every such razor, scissors, knife, fork, or other sharp or pointed instrument, keys, watch machinery, metal, metal tubing, or ore, or such like, so contained in any packet, be securely packed and guarded. And every such packet shall not only conform in every respect to the several orders, directions, regulations and restrictions herein contained, but the same shall also furnish sufficient protection against injury to the officers of the Post Office and to the contents of the mail bags; provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize the transmission by the post within the United Kingdom of any packet containing any explosive or other dangerous material or substance.

12. And we do further order and direct, that if any packet sent or tendered or delivered in order to be sent by the post, under the authority of the eleventh clause of this Warrant, shall be posted or transmitted by the post without being securely packed and guarded, and without furnishing sufficient protection against injury to the officers of the Post Office and to the contents of the mail bags, as in such eleventh clause of this Warrant provided (of which the Postmaster-General shall be the sole judge), every such respective packet shall and may be detained and opened, and (at the option of the Postmaster-General) shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed; and every such packet on being so returned or given up, shall be chargeable with any rate or amount of postage the Postmaster-General shall think fit, not exceeding the letter rates of postage.

13. And we do further order and direct that, in order to prevent any obstacle to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, any officer of the Post Office may delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, for the space of twenty-four hours after the time at which the same ought to be despatched, in due course of the post, whenever it may be necessary so to do, or (at his option) until the despatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought, in due course of the post, to be forwarded by him.

14. And we further order and direct that in all cases in which any question shall hereafter arise whether any packet, or any pattern, or sample contained therein, transmitted under or by virtue of this Warrant, is entitled to the privileges of this Warrant, and to be so transmitted within the intent and meaning thereof, such question shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final and conclusive upon all parties.

15. And we further order and direct that all packets transmitted by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall, in all respects (save and except as is hereinbefore mentioned and directed), be transmitted in conformity with, and under and subject to the same or the like orders, directions, regulations, and conditions for the time being in force, and applicable to packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art transmitted by the post within the United Kingdom.

16. And we further order and direct that the terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96.

17. And we further order and direct that the said recited Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the 17th day of August, 1864, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed, revoked, and annulled, and the several orders, directions, regulations, and rates of postage therein mentioned and set forth shall wholly cease and determine.

18. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, revoke, or modify any of the rates of postage hereby fixed, or any of the regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time may appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

19. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

THE CONTAGIOUS DISEASES PREVENTION ACT, 1864.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, notice is hereby given that a Certificate of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty and of Her Majesty's Secretary of State for War has been granted relative to the Lock Wards of the Royal Albert Hospital, at Plymouth, such Cer-ifi-cate being dated the 22nd day of March, 1865.-- —Dated this 22nd day of March, 1865.

By order of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, C. Paget.

By order of the Secretary of State for War,

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of MARCH 28, 1865.

Foreign Office, March 25, 1865.

THE following Despatch, with its inclosures, has been received from Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires in Japan : —

Yokohama,

MY LORD,

January 13, 1865.

IT is with great satisfaction that I find it my duty to bring to your Lordship's notice two additional instances of the humane and hospitable treatment, by the Japanese authorities and people, of shipwrecked crews, and of pains taken by them to preserve or recover property or gear belonging to stranded vessels.

In November last, the British barque "Ashmore," proceeding to Hakodadi from this port, was wrecked at Benten sama or Low Island, in the Straits of Tsungaru, and Mr. Interpreter Enslie, who started from Hakodadi on the 27th November, and was only able to reach the scene of the disaster several days later, refers in the highest terms to the kind attentions shown by the Prince of Nambu, who, immediately on hearing of the wreck, issued orders to render to the ship's company every possible assistance.

Secondly, in December last, the British barque "Orward," chartered to take the place of the "Ashmore," was, on her voyage to Hakodadi, wrecked at Kashima, about 250 miles distant from Yokohama. The captain, his wife, two children, and crew were treated with the utmost kindness by the Hatamoto (squire of the village), —the property saved from the wreck, including all their clothes. A box of treasure (5,000 dollars) was carefully guarded, and finally placed on board Her Majesty's steam despatch-gunboat "Coquette" sent to their relief.

It is also incumbent on me to point out the zealous and praiseworthy services of the gentlemen belonging to Her Majesty's Civil Service who proceeded to the assistance of these wrecks, and the risks to which the faithful performance of such duties exposes them. Mr. Enslie was seven days in reaching the "Ashmore." Throughout this time he was in an open Japanese boat, exposed to the rigours of a commencing winter and the dangers of a stormy strait. Indeed, during his absence, the rumours of the boat being driven out to sea and cast away were so alarming and persistent, that I deemed it right to ask Mr. Consul Vyse, who was here on unexpired leave, to return to his post on service in the "Osprey," which Sir Augustus Kuper was good enough, on my representation, to despatch to Hakodadi.

In the case of the "Onward," Mr. Satow, Student-Interpreter of this Legation, proceeded in the "Coquette" to Cape Kona, and made his way on shore in the gig through a tempestuous surf, which they were only able to recross after their boat had been transported for four miles across a neck of sand to a more protected starting point.

The procedure of the Japanese Government, in these cases, is so uniformly distinguished by genuine hospitality and kindness, and is in such marked contrast to the inhumanity and rapacity almost everywhere shown by the kindred race on the opposite coast of China, that I trust your Lordship will hold me excused for occupying your Lordship's time with details of events which are otherwise of ordinary interest.

I have, &c.,

CHARLES O. WINCHESTER.

To the Right Honourable

Earl Russell, K.G.,

&c., &c., &c.

The following is the evidence of Captain Jenkins, of the British barque Ashmore, wrecked off Cape Sarawasaki, on the 24th November : —

Left Yokohama on Monday, the 15th November, 1864. Strong winds, fine weather, and at last arrived on the evening of the 24th, off Cape Sarawasaki. At eight o'clock, bearing south, distance seven miles, strong wind and thick weather, took in top-gallant sails, double reefed the top-sails, and about half-past nine a man sung out breakers on the starboard bow. I saw a passage between Low Island and the Cape; tried to steer the vessel between, and about five minutes after the vessel struck heavily. The yards were immediately backed in order to move the ship off, but could do nothing, the seas making a breach over her, which hove her stern right on to the rocks and took the rudder off. I ordered the Carpenter to sound the pumps about half-an-hour after she struck, and found five feet of water in the hold; got the hands turned to, and got some provisions on shore; took a couple of sails to make a tent. At 4 A.M. found the water up to the lower deck beams. All hands went on shore by ropes. At daylight went on board and tried to save some of our effects. The mate and four hands got the whaleboat and tried to go to Hakodadi to report the wreck; I and the remainder of the crew stopped trying to save all we could. Saved the treasure at great risk. At 8.30 the ship sank in $4\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms water. On Friday afternoon the ship went to pieces. On Thursday morning at 9.30, some Japanese came off bringing rice. Assistance from the Consulate arrived, but nothing could be done till Tuesday morning, on which day H.B.M.'s Acting Consul came himself. We left for Hakodadi in junks the following morning.

(Signed) JOHN JENKINS, Master.

December 18, 1864.

I, Ferdinand C. Kreeft, late Master of the British barque "Onward," of Melbourne, which was wrecked on the east coast of Nipon on the 29th December, 1864, wish to express my thanks for the great kindness and protection received by myself, crew, and family, from the Japanese authorities at Kasima, where the vessel was wrecked.

During nine days, and until relieved by Her Majesty's steamer "Coquette," every want and necessary was supplied to us.

The magistrate or chief Yakonin of that locality was so civil and attentive as to personally escort us on board the "Coquette," and further to render great assistance to Mrs. Kreeft and children, and also to the officers and crew of the "Coquette's" gig, detained during two days by an impassable bar, and eventually had the boat and treasure carried over a distance of four miles to another part of the coast, to enable them to get off; the said head Yakonin himself seeing the last safely on board the "Coquette."

I have no hesitation in saying, from my experience, that the kind treatment and efficient assistance which I received from those Japanese authorities could not have been surpassed in any part of the world.

(Signed) F. C. KREEFT.

Yokohama, January 11, 1865.

Done before me, at Her British Majesty's Consulate, Kanagawa, this 11th January, 1865.

(Signed) MARCUS FLOWERS,
Acting Consul.

The Universal Horticultural Exhibition of 1865, to be held under the Patronage of Her Majesty the Queen of Holland and His Royal Highness the Prince of Orange, in the Palace of Industry at Amsterdam.

A DESPATCH has been received by Earl Russell from the Minister of the Netherlands, stating that the Royal Society of the Netherlands for the Encouragement of Horticulture, intends holding an Exhibition in the spring, and inviting the British Government to name delegates to be present at the Exhibition, and to serve on the juries.

THE RULES, &C., OF THE UNIVERSAL HORTICULTURAL EXHIBITION, TO BE HELD IN THE PALACE OF INDUSTRY, AMSTERDAM, UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN OF THE NETHERLANDS AND THE PRESIDENCY OF THE PRINCE OF ORANGE.

The Royal Society of the Netherlands for the Encouragement of Horticulture, under the protection of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, proposes, together with the greater number of horticultural and agricultural societies and institutions of the Kingdom, to open, in the spring of the present year, an Universal Exhibition of the products of horticulture, and of objects of art and industry connected with that pursuit, at the Palace of Industry at Amsterdam.

Her Majesty the Queen of the Netherlands has condescended to grant her patronage to this Exhibition, and His Royal Highness the Prince of Orange has graciously consented to be elected President of the Committee of Management.

The regulations which follow will be completed at a future period, and at the same time the days of the opening and closing of the Exhibition and of the reception and carrying away of products, as well as all other necessary details, will be decided.

The Exhibition will probably be opened towards the middle of April next.

An International Congress of Botanists and Horticulturists will be convened at Amsterdam, and will be held at the same time as the Exhibition.

The Botanical, Horticultural, and Agricultural Societies of the kingdom, as well as those of foreign countries, are requested to communicate the contents of this programme to their members as soon as possible.

The editors of newspapers and periodical publications are requested to insert in their columns the following programme, and to give as much publicity as possible to this Universal Exhibition.

(Signed)

THE COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT.

(Here follow the names.)

RULES.

1. Amateurs, horticulturists, merchants, artists, and artisans, together with the societies and institutions of the Netherlands and foreign countries, are invited to send their products to the Exhibition, and to take part in the competitions.

2. There are separate competitions opened for amateurs and professional horticulturists. All competitions which are not thus restricted are open to all the world.

3. The programme is divided into three special sections—plants and flowers, fruits and vegetables, objects of art and industry connected with horticulture.

4. Distinguished Dutch and foreign botanists and horticulturists will be invited to form an international jury to judge the products sent.

5. The rewards will consist of gold, silver gilt, and silver medals, of different sizes, the dies of which are to be used on this occasion only, and will be broken up after the distribution has taken place.

6. Exhibitors who may obtain prizes will be allowed to have their choice between the above-mentioned medals or their value in money, which is fixed at 100 florins (Dutch), for the grand gold medal, and 50 florins (Dutch), for the second gold medal. The value of the silver and silver gilt medals will be fixed at a later period.

7. Exhibitors of plants, which will be presented as newly introduced, will, besides giving the name of such plants, have to communicate the date of their introduction, the locality of their origin, and the names of the authors who have described them.

8. Exhibitors must, with each object sent, state the class in which they are desirous of having it entered.

9. No object will be allowed to compete more than once.

10. In competitions where the number of samples has been fixed, more than that number must not be presented.

11. No one will be admitted as an amateur, and at the same time as a professional horticulturist.

12. All plants must be carefully labelled with their botanical or horticultural names.

13. No award will be made to any object sent which does not possess sufficient merit to gain the prize fixed.

14. Exhibitors are forbidden to place their names, or any other distinguishing sign, upon the objects sent by them, before the decision of the jury has been made known.

15. The Managing Committee will take every precaution for the safety of the objects exhibited, but it does not hold itself responsible for any loss or damage beyond its control.

16. The Committee reserves to itself the right of making rules to meet all cases not provided for by the present regulations.

NOTE.—All letters, communications, and information concerning the Exhibition are to be addressed to Mr. J. H. Krelage, First Secretary to the Managing Committee for the Universal Horticultural Exhibition, Harlem.

The Rules and Programme will be sent gratis and post paid, on application being made, by letter prepaid, to the Secretary.

WHEREAS it appears to me, the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that the use of Locomotives unless restricted as hereinafter mentioned on or along the Turnpike Roads in the Epsom and Tooting Turnpike Trust is dangerous and inconvenient to the Public :

I do hereby, by virtue of the provisions of "The Locomotive Act, 1861," by this Order under my hand, prohibit the use of any kind of Locomotive whatever propelled by steam or any other than animal power on the above roads, except between the hours of twelve o'clock at night and six o'clock in the morning.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this

MEMORANDUM.

Cornwall Rangers Militia.

Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to accept the resignation of the Commission held by Major James Rennell Rodd in this Regiment.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable upon, for, or in respect of letters, newspapers, parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers, transmitted and forwarded by the post; and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post; and by the same Act powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of postage therein mentioned.

And whereas further powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas it is expedient to authorise the transmission by the post between the United Kingdom and the island of St. Thomas, and the other Danish colonies in the West Indies, of certain packets, and for that purpose to make certain regulations in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament, and every of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided, order and direct as follows, that is to say:—

1. All packets consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize, of no intrinsic value, posted in any part of the United Kingdom, addressed to any port in the island of St. Thomas, or the other Danish colonies in the West Indies, or posted in any port in the island of St. Thomas, or the other Danish colonies in the West Indies, addressed to any part of the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and the island of St. Thomas, and the other Danish colonies in the West Indies, subject to the several rates of postage, and to the several orders, directions, regulations, and restrictions, hereinafter mentioned and contained, that is to say:—

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, an uniform single rate of postage of three pence;

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces, and not exceeding one half of a pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, two rates of postage;

And on every such packet, if exceeding one half of a pound, and not exceeding one pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, four rates of postage;

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound, and not exceeding one pound and one half of another pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, six rates of postage ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and one half of another pound, and not exceeding two pounds in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, eight rates of postage ;

And for every additional half of a pound in weight of any such packet above the weight of two pounds, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, two additional rates of postage ; and every fractional part of such additional half of a pound in weight shall be charged as an additional half of a pound in weight ; and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

2. No such packet, which in length, or breadth, or depth, shall exceed the dimensions of two feet, shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant.

3. No pattern or sample being of any intrinsic value, or being an article or thing of a saleable nature, or having a value of its own apart from its mere use as a pattern or sample, shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant.

4. There shall be no enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorised by this Warrant, sent in or with any such packet.

5. There shall be no writing or printing in or upon any such packet, or on the cover thereof, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender thereof, a trade mark, and numbers and prices.

6. All such packets shall be sent in covers open at the ends, so as to be easy of examination; nevertheless, samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles and things as cannot be sent in open covers, may be enclosed in bags of linen or of other material; but bags so closed that they cannot be readily opened, even although they be transparent, shall not be used for that purpose.

7. If any packet sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall in length or breadth or depth exceed the dimensions of two feet, or shall consist wholly of patterns or samples of any intrinsic value, as in the third clause of this Warrant mentioned, or if there shall be any writing or printing in or upon any such packet, or on the cover thereof, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender thereof, a trade mark, and numbers and prices, or if any such packets shall not be sent in covers open at the ends so as to be easy of examination (except samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles and things as cannot be sent in open covers, and which may be enclosed in bags of linen, or of other material), or in case of bags being used, if such bags shall be so closed that they cannot be readily opened, every such packet shall be treated in all respects as a letter, except that it shall be chargeable with such rate or amount of postage as the Postmaster-General shall think proper, not exceeding the rate or amount of postage to which it would be liable as a letter if the postage had been paid when posted.

8. If any packet sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall contain any enclosure, sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other enclosure not authorised by this Warrant, every such enclosure may be taken out by any officer of the Post Office, and either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be forwarded to the address on the packet, charged not only with the full rates of postage as an unpaid letter, but also with a further and additional rate of three-pence, and the remainder of the packet, if duly prepaid by stamps, may be forwarded to the place of its address without any extra charge.

9. The postage of all such packets as aforesaid, posted in the United Kingdom, shall in every case be paid at the time of the same being posted, not in money, but by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet, near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon, under and by virtue of this Warrant.

10. The postage of all such packets as aforesaid, posted in the Island of St. Thomas, and the other Danish colonies in the West Indies, shall in every case be paid at the time of the same being posted either in money or by the proper postage stamp or stamps being affixed thereto.

11. If any packet, sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be posted in the United Kingdom without having thereon or affixed thereto any stamp or stamps, or having thereon or affixed thereto a stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable, under and by virtue of this Warrant, every such last-mentioned packet shall and may be detained and opened at any place in the United Kingdom, and at the option of the Postmaster-General shall be dealt with and chargeable in like manner as is hereinbefore directed with respect to any packet, which in length, breadth, or depth shall exceed the dimensions of two feet.

12. If any packet sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be posted in the island of St. Thomas, or in any other of the Danish colonies in the West Indies, without any postage being paid thereon, or the postage paid thereon at the time of the same being posted, being less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under and by virtue of this Warrant, every such last-mentioned packet shall be detained and opened, and, at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall and may be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination. And every such last-mentioned packet, on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be chargeable with the like amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter if the postage had been paid when posted, and such postage may be either paid by the sender or may be charged to the person to whom such packet shall be forwarded.

13. In order to prevent any obstacles to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, any officer of the Post Office may delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, either for the space of twenty-four hours after the time at which the same ought to be despatched in due course of the post, or (at his option) until the despatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought in due course of the post to be forwarded by him.

14. In all cases in which any question shall hereafter arise, whether any packet or any pattern or sample contained therein, transmitted under or by virtue of this Warrant, is entitled to the privileges of this Warrant, and to be so transmitted within the intent and meaning thereof, such question shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final and conclusive upon all parties.

15. The term "by the post," used in this Warrant, shall include the conveyance direct by any British packet boat, and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96.

16. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, revoke or modify any of the rates of postage hereby fixed, or any of the regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time may appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

17. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the twenty-third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE of MARCH 31,
 1865.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, March 31, 1865.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Wednesday, the 24th of May next.

Board of Trade, Whitehall,
March 30, 1865.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a communication, stating that the Governments of Austria and Prussia have granted to the Duchies of Holstein, Schleswig, and Lauenburg, a provisional National Flag, and that Her Majesty's Government has agreed to recognise such flag provisionally, saving the rights of those States and of the German Confederation, and only until their definitive constitution.

The flag is to be composed of three horizontal stripes in blue, white and red, with a yellow field placed on the blue stripe next the flag-staff to distinguish it from the flag of the Duchy of Mecklenburg.

Board of Trade, Whitehall,
March 30, 1865.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Royal Italian Decree, of which the following is a translation, and in virtue of which the Tuscan silver coins specified in the Decree will cease to have legal currency from the 31st instant.

(Translation).

We, Victor Emmanuel, &c., King of Italy.

On the proposal of our Minister of Agriculture, Industry, and Commerce, in concert with the Minister of Finance, ordain as follows :—

ART. I.—The Tuscan silver coins denominated pisis or francescone, i. e. a piece of 10 Tuscan pauls equivalent to frs. 5·60 ; half pisis or half francescone, i. e. a piece of 5 Tuscan pauls equivalent to frs. 2·80 ; a quarter pisis or florin, i. e. a piece of $2\frac{1}{2}$ Tuscan pauls equivalent to frs. 1·40 ;

Piece of 10 Florentine lire equivalent to frs. 8·40 ;

Ditto of 5 Florentine lire equivalent to frs. 4·20 ;

The ancient scudo of the Republic of Lucca of frs. 5·60 ;

The half scudo of ditto of frs. 2·80 ;

Shall cease to have legal currency after the 31st March, in the present year, both in the Provinces of Tuscany and in the other provinces of the Kingdom where they have hitherto been received by the Public Treasury in virtue of the decrees of former governments, and consequently after the 1st of April, 1865. They will no longer be given or received in payment by any Government Treasury, and may be equally refused in payment by merchants or private individuals.

ART. II. — From the 21st (? 31st) of March of the present year to the 10th of next April, that is ten days after the cessation of the legal currency, the above-mentioned coins will be taken in exchange for decimal gold and silver coins at the offices of the Province of Tuscany, to be designated by the Minister of Finance.

The fractional sums below the value of 20 centimes are to be compensated in copper coin.

Given at Florence, the 10th March, 1865.

(Countersigned) JORELLI SELLA.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
March 30, 1865.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Copenhagen, enclosing the following translation of a Danish Law recently enacted and which regulates the amount of drawback to be allowed on the exportation of Danish and foreign brandies.

1st. A drawback will henceforth be allowed on the export of home-made brandy to a foreign or a free port, or as ships' stores of 1·6 skilling per "pot" of four degrees of strength, with an addition of 0·1 skilling per "pot" for each quarter of a degree increase of strength.

No drawback will be allowed on brandy of less than four degrees of strength.

If sugar, spice, or any such thing is added to the brandy thereby preventing the guaging of the strength, as in the case of "Aquavit," liqueur, cherry brandy, punch extract and such mixtures, the strength is considered to be eight degrees, so that in each case a drawback of 3·2 skillings per "pot" will be allowed.

2nd. The present law will apply also to the drawback allowed by paragraph 29 of the law of the 4th July, 1863, on the exportation to foreign or free ports of foreign spirits liable to customs' duty, either pure or mixed with sugar and the like.

3rd. The conditions respecting the extent of drawback on the exportation of home-made brandy with or without sugar, contained in paragraph No. 7 of the law of February 7, 1851, are hereby repealed, but the remainder of the paragraph continues in force.

4th. So long as the law of the 5th August of last year respecting the war tax on brandies remains in force, the drawback mentioned in the above paragraphs 1 and 2 will be calculated under the conditions laid down in that law with an increase of 50 per cent.

Old Cleeve, in the county of Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells, to be named "The District Chapelry of Leighland."

Also a scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the district of Saint Augustine, Haggerston, some time part of the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, out of the new parish of Saint Jude, Bethnal Green, in the same county and diocese, out of the new parish of Saint Peter, Bethnal Green, in the same county and diocese, and out of the parish of South Hackney, in the same county and diocese, to be named "The District of Saint Stephen, Haggerston."

At the Court at Windsor, the 31st day of March, 1865.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council was pleased to order, upon the representations of the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that burials in the under-mentioned parishes shall be discontinued (except as is herein otherwise directed), as follows, viz.:

UPTON - ON - SEVERN.—Forthwith in the church, and on the thirty-first December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the old and new churchyards, and in the Baptist burial-ground, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, in which the coffins shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately entombed by stone or brickwork properly cemented.

STOKE-UPON-TRENT.—In the burial-ground of Providence Chapel on the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, except in vaults and walled graves which can be opened without the disturbance of soil that has been buried in, in which each coffin shall be embedded in powdered charcoal and separately entombed in an air-tight manner. HOUNSLOW.—From and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the church and churchyard, with the exception of now existing vaults and brick-graves and deep earthen family-graves.

At the Court at Windsor, the 31st day of March, 1865.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council was pleased to order that the time for the discontinuance of burials in the undermentioned churchyard be postponed, as follows, viz.:

In the churchyard of Enderby, to the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

And whereas by an Order in Council, bearing date the eighteenth of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, it was directed that, with certain exceptions, burials should be discontinued, amongst other places, in the churchyard of Saint Thomas the Apostle, in the city of Exeter; and whereas it seems fit that the said order be varied, and that burials be permitted in graves which can be used in accordance with Nos. 6, 7, and 8, of the regulations for new burial-grounds, in that part of the said churchyard not heretofore used:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order in Council of the eighteenth of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, be construed in the same manner as it would have been construed if the following words had been originally inserted in that portion of the order which relates to burials in the said churchyard; viz:—"and except in graves which can be used in accordance with Nos. 6, 7, and 8, of the regulations for new burial-grounds, in that part of the churchyard not heretofore used."

At the Court at Windsor, the 31st day of March, 1865.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council was pleased to order that the representation of the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parish without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that interments in the same should be discontinued, with the following modifications; viz.:

TUNSTALL, WOLSTANTON.—In the churchyard, on the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, except in existing vaults and walled graves which are free from water, and in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal and separately enclosed by brickwork or stone properly cemented. In the meantime the conditions under which burials are allowed in the churchyard by Order in Council of twenty-first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, are to be observed.

should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the fifteenth day of May next.

FROM THE SUPPLEMENT

LONDON GAZETTE of APRIL 11, 1865.

War Office, April 12, 1865.

THE Secretary of State for War has this day received a Despatch, with its enclosures, from Lieutenant-General Sir D. A. Cameron, K.C.B., Commanding the Troops in New Zealand, of which the following are copies :—

Head Quarters, Camp, Nukumarū,

MY LORD,

February 4, 1865.

I HAVE the honour to forward, herewith, the copy of a report from Brigadier-General Waddy, C.B., commanding the field force at Wanganui, of a skirmish which took place between one of our picquets and the rebels on the evening of the 24th January, and also of a general attack made by the latter on our camp at Nukumarū on the following day, when they were defeated with heavy loss.

The celerity with which the troops got under arms, and the spirit with which they met and repelled this sudden attack, was very creditable.

Brigadier-General Waddy was very active throughout the engagement, and showed great judgment in the disposition of the troops under his command. I beg to recommend him strongly to your Lordship's favourable notice, as well as those officers who are mentioned by him as having particularly distinguished themselves in the action.

The detachment of the Military Train were very gallantly led by Captain Witchell, and it was their steady and well executed charge that put the rebels to flight on their left attack.

Colonel Mould, C.B., Commanding Royal Engineers, was present, and Lieutenant-Colonel Williams, Commanding Royal Artillery, directed the movements of the two Armstrong guns.

Colonel Carey, C.B., Deputy Adjutant-General, Lieutenant-Colonel Gamble, C.B., Deputy Quartermaster-General, Major Pitt, Assistant Military Secretary, and my two Aides-de-Camp, Lieutenant-Colonel McNeill and Lieutenant St. Hill, were also present, and were active in conveying orders.

I have, &c.

(Signed)

D. A. CAMERON,

Lieutenant-General.

P.S.—A plan of the ground is herewith enclosed.

The Right Honourable

The Secretary of State for War,

War Office, London.

Camp, Nukumary,

February 1, 1865.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces, that, in compliance with orders received from him, I marched from camp at Alexandeisfaun on 24th January, at 9.30 A.M., towards the Waitotara River. The advance of the troops was necessarily very slow, owing to the steep ascent of the road from the beach to the sand hills at the Okehu River. and the passage across these hills of the carts conveying baggage and stores. The force (strength as per margin*) reached this position about 4.30 P.M., the same day, when I formed the camp close to the Paetaia Lake, and about half a mile from the small native village of Nukumaru. Immediately after the camp had been formed, I ordered out picquets, and, as a picquet of the 18th Regiment approached a bush close to the village, which I considered necessary to occupy, it was fired upon by a party of rebels, who quickly retired and took up a strong position at the edge of the bush, further away from the village. The men of the picquet got under cover behind a railed fence with a small ditch. Firing was kept up by both sides till dusk, after which it gradually slackened, and ceased altogether about midnight.

It is with deep regret I have to report the loss to the service of Lieutenant Johnston, 40th Regiment, Deputy-Assistant Adjutant-General, a most zealous and gallant officer, who proceeded with the picquet to see it posted as I had directed. He was mortally wounded soon after firing began, and died next day at noon.

Seeing the rebels were in a strong position, and believing they occupied it in considerable numbers, which might soon be increased from the pah at Weicroa, about two miles off, I sent out a reinforcement of 100 men, the rebels retired during the night, and next morning they were not to be seen or heard in the bush.

I have also to report that about 2 P.M., of 25th January, the outlying picquets were suddenly attacked by the rebels in large numbers, who managed to approach under cover of the high fern and flax plants unperceived, till close upon the sentries, after a short resistance the picquets were overpowered and forced to retire. Immediately after the firing commenced all the troops in camp got under arms, and I sent a reinforcement to each picquet of 100 men. The attack on the left was at once checked, and the Maories were soon driven back, but on the right they advanced with great determination, and pushed on through the village of Nukumaru. Into this bush the Royal Artillery (having moved to our right at the same time as the Cavalry) fired some rounds from their two six-pounder Armstrong pounds, and the Maories soon retired from it. Considering the very difficult nature of the ground across which the cavalry had to move, their advance was rapid and their charge effective.

Two wounded Maories were brought into camp, one of them is Te Arawa, eldest son of Hine Pumipi Ngahmama-poto, a leading chief, and, I believe, a near relative of Rewi. Both these men said that 600 Maories came on to the attack of our position ; 22 bodies have been buried by us, and I feel convinced they lost many more men, particularly on the left. I have since heard on reliable information that the rebels acknowledge a loss of 70 men on 25th January ; their loss on the 24th was not ascertained.

I enclose a list of casualties, which I regret were heavy, particularly on the left, where the 50th Regiment was engaged.

I beg leave to mention most favourably the names of the following officers, who were in action :—Colonel Weare, 50th Regiment (who happened to know the ground on the left), most ably directed a portion of his regiment in the repulse and pursuit of the enemy. Brevet-Major Locke, 50th Regiment, who was in command of the first reinforcement sent out, fully carried out the orders I gave him. Captain Witchell, Military Train, commanding the cavalry, led his men most gallantly, and kept them well in hand. Major Roche, commanding detachment of the 18th Regiment with this force, took out a reinforcement of 100 men to the right picquet on the evening of 24th January ; he remained there during the night, and withdrew his men judiciously about daybreak. He was also engaged on 25th January.

Captain Shaw, 18th Regiment, who commanded the right picquet, also behaved well, and directed his men with coolness and judgment. Captain Lawson, 18th Regiment, was the first officer of his corps to move out with a reinforcement to the right picquet on 25th January; and I have always found him ready where duty required him. Brevet-Major Greaves, 70th Regiment, Deputy-Assistant Quartermaster-General, directed the cavalry in their advance to charge; and afterwards he was conspicuous in cheering on the infantry, when driving the enemy into the bush on the right. From my aide-de-camp, Captain Leach, 50th Regiment, I received very great assistance on 24th and 25th January, in the conveyance of orders with rapidity and correctness.

As Sir Duncan Cameron was in the field on 24th and 25th January, I have not thought it necessary to enter more fully into details of the affairs of those days; and I beg to say I felt fully sensible of the great advantage I derived from the presence and able advice of the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) R. WADDY, Brigadier-General, Commanding Field Force.

THE Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on Education have received, from the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council for Trade and Foreign Plantations, copy of a letter from Earl Russell, transmitting copy of a Despatch, with enclosures, from his Excellency Count Bernstorff, which announces an International Agricultural Exhibition, to be held by the "Flora" Horticultural Society, at Cologne, in the months of May and June next. The Exhibition will be opened on the 15th May, by His Royal Highness the Crown Prince of Prussia.

(Copy.)

INTERNATIONAL AGRICULTURAL EXHIBITION AT COLOGNE

In the Year 1865,

Under the Patronage of His Royal Highness the CROWN PRINCE of PRUSSIA.

THE undersigned Committee has met in order to organize an International Exhibition of Machinery, Implements and Productions of Horticulture, Agriculture, and Forestry, together with objects of Farmers' and Foresters' household economy. The Exhibition will be opened on the 15th of May next, in the grounds of the Horticultural Society "Flora."

The town of Cologne, situated on the banks of the most animated river in Germany, in the centre of a most extensive railway-net, in the very heart of rich manufacturing districts, recommends itself not only by its excellent situation, but also by an uninterrupted communication with the interior of Germany and all neighbouring countries.

The grounds of the "Flora," laid out by the Principal Director of the Royal Gardens, Mr. Lenné, of Potsdam, a Master and Nestor of Horticultural Science, offer, both by their extent and their suitable neighbourhood, the best gratuitous space for the reception of the richest choice of the above-mentioned objects.

We therefore invite all Manufacturers and Possessors of the same to contribute to the Exhibition, which will be organized by more specified arrangements to be made by the undersigned General Committee, aided by Special Commissions.

In calling attention to the fact that objects no longer in possession of the producers are not excluded from the Exhibition, we beg leave to express the wish that the name and address of the same may be stated.

The Exhibition is to comprise the following principal divisions :--

1. Agricultural productions, including the produce of rural trade as well as collections of any kind connected with rural life.
2. Implements and machinery for agricultural purposes.
3. All trade productions concerning Husbandry and Forestry; viz.—Plans and models of dwelling and farm houses and their materials, household furniture, working implements, victuals, and objects employed for the preparation and use of the same.
4. Productions and implements of Forestry and Sport, as well as Collections relating thereto.
5. Productions and implements of Horticulture and Garden Architecture, including garden furniture, statues, aviaries, fountains, tents, etc., etc.

Care will be taken that the Machinery sent in will be put in action during the Exhibition.

The most eminent experts of Germany and of the countries the exhibitors may belong to will be chosen as members of the Jury.

Objects exposed will be purchased for the purpose of a tombola, for which the sum of at least 10,000 thalers shall be laid out. Exhibitors are therefore requested to state, on announcing objects, whether they can be bought, as also to keep in view the following conditions :—

1. The Exhibition opens on 15th May, and closes on 1st June, 1865; a fortnight's prolongation is, however, reserved.
2. On sending objects, exhibitors engage to leave them until the close of the Exhibition, and to withdraw them within a week after the same.
3. Covered space will be set apart for all objects requiring it.

Exhibition of Household Objects for Farmers and Foresters, at Cologne.

The Horticultural Society "Flora," at Cologne, in conjunction with the most eminent Experts of the Province and the Principal Authorities and Men of Commerce, will organize on 15th May next, under the Patronage of His Royal Highness the CROWN PRINCE OF PRUSSIA,

A GRAND INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION of Farming and Forestry Productions, Implements and Machinery, and intends, taking as example the Exhibitions of "Domestic Economy" held in London, Paris, and Brussels, to adjoin an Exhibition of Farmers' and Foresters' Household Implements of daily use and necessity. These objects to be divided into five classes:—

I. DWELLINGS.

Plans and models of dwellings and farm-houses, stables, wash-houses, sheds, ice-pits, and their constituent parts; viz.: roofing, walls, stairs, cellars, doors, windows, wells, pailings, etc., etc.

II. HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE.

Beddings, tables, benches, chairs, cupboards, washing and cleaning apparatus, ovens and other heating contrivances, lighting objects; viz.: lamps, candlesticks, lanterns, etc.; crockery, baskets, straw and rush mats.

III. CLOTHES AND LINEN.

Woollen and cotton stuffs, flax, hemp, etc., etc.; wearing apparel provided it be national, or especially adapted for certain countries or climates, head and feet covering, washing apparatus, bed-clothes, and such like.

IV. WORKING IMPLEMENTS.

Axes, saws, hammers, spades, rakes, hoes, tongs, knives, chopping-benches, grinding apparatus, etc.; harness contrivances; viz.: harness for horses, yokes for oxen, etc.; baskets for the conveyance of butter, etc.

V. VICTUALS AND IMPLEMENTS EMPLOYED FOR PREPARING THEM, AND THEIR USE.

Corn, leguminous plants, flour, sugar, pastry, butter, grease, cheese, conserved meats, wines and other beverages, cooking and drinking objects; viz.: earthen pots, pitchers, plates, glasses, bottles, etc., etc.

The aim in exhibiting the above mentioned objects is to make them universally known, to incite the imitation and perfection thereof, to recommend the way of employing and using the same, to point out their cheap production, to expose to view the peculiarities, customs, and exigencies in some districts; in short, to give a complete insight into farmers' and foresters' household arrangements, in all countries.

Consequently, such objects can only be accepted that are recommendable by the solidity of the material and their workmanship, by usefulness and cheapness, and by statement of the wholesale and retail prices at the place where they are manufactured, produced, or sent from.

The space reserved for the above articles, only permits of single specimens of each genus being exhibited.

War Office, April 21, 1865.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the decoration of the Victoria Cross on the under-mentioned Midshipman and Seamen of the Royal Navy, whose claims to the same have been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, on account of the gallantry displayed by them during the operations in the Straits of Simono Seki, Japan, as recorded against their names ; viz. :—

Mr. Duncan Gordon Boyes, Midshipman of Her Majesty's ship "Euryalus," and Thomas Pride, Captain of the After-guard of Her Majesty's ship "Euryalus."—For the conspicuous gallantry which, according to the testimony of Captain Alexander, C.B., at that time Flag Captain to Vice-Admiral Sir Augustus Kuper, K.C.B., Mr. Boyes displayed on the occasion of the capture of the enemy's stockade. He carried a Colour with the leading Company, kept it in advance of all, in the face of the thickest fire, his Colour-Serjeants having fallen, one mortally, the other dangerously, wounded ; and he was only detained from proceeding yet further by the orders of his superior Officer. The Colour he carried was six times pierced by musket-balls. Thomas Pride, Captain of the After-guard, the survivor of the two Colour-Serjeants who supported Mr. Boyes in the gallant rush which he made in advance of the attack, is also recommended for the Victoria Cross for his conduct on this occasion.—Date of Acts of Bravery, September 6th, 1864.

William Seeley, Ordinary Seaman of Her Majesty's ship "Euryalus."—For the intelligence and daring which, according to the testimony of Lieutenant Edwards, Commanding the Third Company, he exhibited in ascertaining the enemy's position, and for continuing to retain his position in front, during the advance, after he had been wounded in the arm.—Date of Act of Bravery, September 6th, 1864.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office."

And whereas it is expedient that regulations should be made for the transmission by the post of the letters hereinafter mentioned.

Now, we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore-recited Acts, and each of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), order, direct, and declare as follows:—

1. On every letter not exceeding one quarter of an ounce in weight, posted in Malta, addressed to the Ionian Islands, or posted in the Ionian Islands, addressed to Malta, and transmitted between Malta and the Ionian Islands, otherwise than in closed mails, viâ Italy (the sea conveyance being by Italian mail packet boats), there shall be charged and taken a combined British and foreign rate of postage of sixpence.

2. On every letter transmitted as is hereinbefore in this Warrant mentioned, exceeding one quarter of an ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, progressive and additional rates of postage according to the scale of weight and number of rates following (that is to say):

On every letter so transmitted exceeding one quarter of an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, two rates of postage;

On every letter so transmitted exceeding one half of an ounce and not exceeding three quarters of an ounce in weight, three rates of postage;

And on every letter so transmitted exceeding three quarters of an ounce and not exceeding one ounce in weight, four rates of postage;

And for every additional quarter of an ounce in weight of any letter so transmitted above the weight of one ounce there shall be charged, taken, and paid, one additional rate of postage, and every fractional part of such additional quarter of an ounce shall be charged as an additional quarter of an ounce in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding one quarter of an ounce in weight.

3. Nothing herein contained shall be construed in anywise to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions and privileges granted by or under the said hereinbefore recited Acts, or either of them, or by or under any other Acts of Parliament relating to the Post Office, or any of the privileges which officers, seamen, and soldiers employed in Her Majesty's service are by law entitled to, of sending and receiving letters by the post, subject to the regulations and restrictions in respect of the same.

4. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

5. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, or the hands of any two of them, at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, and conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

6. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the thirteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

PARIS UNIVERSAL EXHIBITION, 1867.

Science and Art Department, 19th April, 1865.

THE Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on Education have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, extracts from the Moniteur, of the 21st February, 1865, containing a report addressed to His Majesty the Emperor of the French, by the Minister of Agriculture, Commerce, and Public Works, regarding the Universal Exhibition of the Products of Industry and Agriculture, which is to be held in 1867, and an Imperial Decree placing the Exhibition under the direction of a Commission, and naming the members of it.

The following is a translation of the report and decree above-mentioned :—

REPORT TO THE EMPEROR.

SIRE,—In obedience to your Majesty's commands, I have had the honour to inform His Imperial Highness Prince Napoleon, that the time has arrived for him to become the president of a commission which will be formed for the purpose of carrying out the decree of the 22nd June, 1863, which directs that a universal exhibition shall be held in 1867. I have prayed His Imperial Highness to be good enough to communicate to me the general views on such an undertaking, suggested to him by the experience gained in 1855 and 1862, and then to call a meeting of competent men to discuss the preliminary questions on such a subject. I now submit to your Majesty the conclusions drawn from these preliminary measures. The most important point being a good financial organisation, I have referred to the results shewn by the two exhibitions in London, and the one in Paris.

In London, in 1851, as well as in 1862, the initiative was taken by a number of persons who raised a guarantee fund, upon the faith of which the Bank of England supplied all the necessary funds at a moderate rate of interest. The company for 1851 built a temporary structure, with a boarded area of 71,000 square mètres (ground floor and galleries); the receipts amounted to 12,700,000 francs, and after defraying all expenses, a surplus of 5,300,000 francs remained. The company for 1862 raised a building of 120,000 square mètres in area, a part of which was designed to be permanent. The total receipts, with a contribution of 250,000 francs from the contractor, just sufficed to cover the whole expenditure of 11,500,000 francs. At Paris, in 1855, the State, in undertaking the enterprise, was obliged to erect temporary buildings of 68,000 square mètres, in order to supplement the area of 47,000 square mètres provided by the permanent building erected by a company. The receipts amounted to 3,200,000 francs, and there was a loss of 8,100,000 francs. A sum of 11,000,000 francs was afterwards expended in the purchase of the permanent building. The total expense, amounting to 21,000,000 francs, is covered partly by the possession of the Palais de l'Industrie.

In the face of these facts the question arose whether the plan of guarantee companies, which has already enabled two exhibitions to be held in England, the one at a gain, and the other without loss, should be adopted; but for the following reasons I have come to the conclusion that its adoption would not be advisable.

In England the public willingly pays high charges to procure for itself the means of instruction, or to visit institutions devoted to science and art. Thus, in London, in 1862, a sum of 10,200,000 francs was received from 6,000,000 visitors, raised (in very nearly equal proportions) —first, by the minimum entrance fee of one shilling (1*l.* 2*5c.*), and secondly, by season tickets and entrance fees varying from 2*s.* 6*d.* to £1 (3*fr.* 10*c.* to 25 francs). In France, until recently, the public were but little inclined to pay or bear such charges. Thus, in Paris, in 1855, 4,600,000 visitors paid a sum of 3,200,000 francs only; the entrance fees, at 20 centimes and at 1 franc, produced 2,600,000 francs, whilst those at 2 and 5 francs, with the sale of season tickets, produced but 600,000 francs. No doubt better results may be expected in 1867; peace will be more fruitful than the war which was raging in 1855; the errors incident to a defective tariff will be avoided; finally, public favour may be better relied on, if by good management the exhibition of 1867 is punctually inaugurated on the day fixed for the ceremony, if the problem is solved of classifying the products of art and industry in a useful and attractive order, and if, above all, the productions of all the countries in the world are represented more completely than has been the case in previous exhibitions. Still it seems prudent to expect that, even under these conditions, the receipts at Paris in 1867 will not be so great as those at London in 1851 and 1862.

The financial success of 1851 was caused by circumstances which evidently will not occur again. The demands of the exhibitors for space were then satisfied by a building of 71,000 square metres; but in 1862 even an area of 120,000 square metres was so much too small that the French exhibitors received hardly half the amount of space which they required. The requirements of exhibitors of all nations have thus augmented, whilst public curiosity has remained stationary. These two tendencies foreshadow a considerable deficit in all future exhibitions; and it appears that the way to lessen this deficit in 1867 will be especially to develop those branches of the exhibition which will augment the receipts in a larger proportion than the expenses. To attain this end it seems likely that a covered space of 140,000 square metres will be necessary.

At London the chief source of receipt, viz., the entrance fees, was increased by certain percentages taken by the commission on the profits of the contractors for the refreshment rooms, the catalogues, and on seven other contracts of minor importance. In 1862, for instance, these additional receipts amounted to 1,000,000 francs. I do not think that in 1867, any more than in 1855, it would be well to have recourse to these financial means, which are hardly in accordance with our customs. By monopolies thus organized the public is badly served, and thereby becomes discontented: and no good is done to the principal source of receipt. These sorts of taxes weigh, moreover, in some measure upon the exhibitors or their habitual representatives; and it seems injudicious to cast a burden upon so many people whom it is desirable to attract to these competitions, and who, often through a pure spirit of patriotism, are willing to bear the considerable expenses which they entail.

In London, at the two preceding exhibitions, rewards of no intrinsic value were given to exhibitors. In France, ever since the institution of exhibitions, silver or gold medals have always been awarded, in addition to the bronze medals. I think it will be well to continue this custom, and even that it will be desirable to augment the sum devoted to prizes given in other forms.

Basing my opinion upon these grounds, I can foresee that the Exhibition of 1867 may require an expenditure of 18,000,000 francs. I may add that the unfavourable contingencies which may happen to these kinds of enterprises do not seem likely to raise the expenditure above 20,000,000 francs; as for the receipts they will probably be from 7,000,000 francs to 9,000,000 francs. I therefore come to the conclusion that the undertaking may cause a deficit of 12,000,000 francs. These estimates cannot vary much, whether they be applied to an entirely private undertaking, or to an exhibition carried out under the control and direction of the Government. No company having only a speculation as the object in view, would undertake to carry out the Universal Exhibition of 1867, unless guaranteed against inevitable losses by a subsidy, direct or indirect, at least equal to the anticipated deficit. Thus, from the financial point of view, the State would gain nothing by giving up all control over the preparation and conduct of the enterprise. Perhaps it might be said, that the public interest which is the motive that induces the Treasury to participate in the expenses of this undertaking, does not permit the Government to hold itself aloof, and, moreover, it may be doubtful whether this independence would add to the éclat, to the utility, and to the success of the scheme. On the other hand, it may be admitted, without exaggeration, that in following the system of management adopted by France in 1862, that is to say, in firmly maintaining unity of action and a strict superintendence, it may be, on this occasion, again possible to make some important reductions in the estimated expenditure.

The utility of exhibitions has been clearly demonstrated by the considerations put forth in the report which my predecessor had the honour to submit to your Majesty, and upon which the decree of the 22nd of June, 1863, was founded. Upon referring to these considerations, I find that the State and the City of Paris have a sufficient interest in the realization of your Majesty's idea to justify their participation in such an expenditure by means of a subsidy. This subsidy, limited to 12,000,000 francs, would be divided in equal portions between the Treasury and the city, which by making this contribution, would be released from all responsibility if the undertaking entailed any unlooked for expenses. The Prefect of the Seine, whom I have consulted on this point, does not hesitate to think that the Municipal Council of Paris, which is always generous and well-disposed towards anything useful, would not decline this participation. As for the balance, estimated at 6,000,000 or 8,000,000 francs, it would be covered by the fees taken for entrance, and in case of their insufficiency, by the guarantee fund of a society formed for this purpose, under the auspices of the Imperial Commission. In the event of the total receipts exceeding the amount of the expenditure over and above the 12,000,000 francs of subsidy given by the State and by the city of Paris, and leaving a surplus due to the favour of the public, and the good management of the undertaking, it would be distributed in equal portions between the State, the City of Paris, and the Guarantee Society. By this means, Sire, industry and commerce, which are called to contribute to the éclat of this undertaking, and to reap its benefits, would find themselves at the same time both taking part and interest, in the only way which the customs of our country permit at present, in its organization and in the chances, either adverse or happy, which it may offer in a financial point of view. It would be both a first step made in the direction of the initiative undertaken by our neighbours with so much firmness and success, and a homage rendered to the spirit of association. The natural consequence of this organization would be to give to the Guarantee Society, in the working and superintendence of the enterprisc, a part proportionate to its interest in it. The Imperial Commission might be, then, composed (in addition to its President and the Ministers whose functions would qualify them for a seat at the Board) of forty-one persons, chosen by the Emperor, from among the well-known competent persons of the State and the City of Paris, and of nineteen persons to be hereafter elected from among the members of the Guarantee Society in the manner that may be found most feasible. The chances of success for future Exhibitions will be increased by associating each time with the directing power persons possessing the experience of Exhibitions held previously in other countries. England being the only foreign nation which has up to the present time undertaken these kinds of enterprises. I propose to your Majesty to include the names of three Englishmen in the Imperial Commission.

If your Majesty approve the conclusions of this Report, I pray that the annexed decree may be signed.

I am, &c. &c.,

ARMAND BEHIC, Minister of Agriculture, Commerce, and Public Works.

NAPOLEON, by the Grace of God, &c.

Upon the proposition of our Minister of Agriculture, Commerce, and Public Works ;

FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE of APRIL 28, 1865.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 28, 1865.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen's Drawing Room, announced to be held on Tuesday, the 16th of May next, by Her Royal Highness The Princess Helena, on behalf of Her Majesty, is postponed until Thursday, the 18th of May next.

At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of March, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS an Act of Parliament was passed in the Session of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign (chapter eighty) "for the "better government of Her Majesty's subjects "resorting to China":

And whereas by that Act it was enacted (among other things) that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Order or Orders made with the advice of Her Privy Council, to ordain for the government of Her Majesty's subjects being within the dominions of the Emperor of China, or being within any ship or vessel at a distance of not more than one hundred miles from the coast of China, any law or ordinance which to Her Majesty in Council might seem meet, as fully and effectually as any such law or ordinance could be made by Her Majesty in Council for the government of Her Majesty's subjects being within Her Majesty's Island of Hong Kong :

And whereas another Act of Parliament was passed in the same Session (chapter ninety-four) "to remove doubts as to the exercise of power "and jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers "countries and places out of Her Majesty's dominions and to render the same more effectual" (to which Act the expression The Foreign Jurisdiction Act when hereafter used in this Order refers) :

And whereas by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act it was enacted (among other things) that it was and should be lawful for Her Majesty to hold, exercise and enjoy any power or jurisdiction which Her Majesty then had or might at any time thereafter have within any country or place out of Her Majesty's dominions, in the same and as ample a manner as if Her Majesty had acquired such power or jurisdiction by the cession or conquest of territory :

And whereas Her Majesty has had and now has power and jurisdiction in the dominions of the Emperor of China and in the dominions of the Tycoon of Japan :

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased from time to time, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, by Orders in Council of the several dates in the Schedule to this Order specified, to ordain laws and ordinances for the better government of Her Majesty's subjects being within the dominions of the Emperor of China, or being within certain ships or vessels at a distance of not more than one hundred miles from the coast of China, and to make provision for the exercise of Her Majesty's power and jurisdiction aforesaid in the dominions of the Emperor of China and of the Tycoon of Japan respectively :

And whereas it has seemed to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to be expedient at the present time to revise the provisions of the said Orders, and to ordain further and other laws and ordinances for the better government of Her Majesty's subjects being within the dominions of the Emperor of China, or being within such ships or vessels as aforesaid, and to make further and other provision for the due exercise of Her Majesty's power and jurisdiction aforesaid and particularly for the more regular and efficient administration of justice among Her Majesty's subjects resident in or resorting to the dominions of the Emperor of China or of the Tycoon of Japan :

And whereas, under the authority of provisions in this behalf in the first-recited Act contained, ordinances for the peace, order, and good government of Her Majesty's subjects being within the dominions of the Emperor of China, or being within certain ships or vessels at a distance of not more than one hundred miles from the coast of China, have been from time to time made by the Superintendent of the Trade of Her Majesty's subjects in China (such Superintendent being also the Governor of Hong Kong), with the advice of the Legislative Council of Hong Kong, which ordinances are known as Consular Ordinances :

And whereas such of those Consular Ordinances as are described in the Schedule to this Order are now in force, wholly or in part, but they are liable to repeal by Order of Her Majesty in Council, and it is expedient that they be repealed, such of their provisions as are not intended to be abrogated being consolidated with this Order :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers in this behalf by the first-recited Act and The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, or either of them, or otherwise, in Her vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

I.—PRELIMINARY.

1. This Order may be cited as The China and Japan Order in Council, 1865.

2. In this Order —

The term “China” means the dominions of the Emperor of China:

The term “Japan” means the dominions of the Tycoon of Japan:

The term “Minister” means the superior diplomatic representative of Her Majesty for the time being, whether Ambassador, Envoy, Minister Plenipotentiary, or Chargé d’Affaires:

The term “Chief Superintendent of Trade” means the Superintendent of the trade of Her Majesty’s subjects in China for the time being, or any person for the time being authorized to act as such:

The term “Consular Officer” includes every officer in Her Majesty’s Consular Service, whether Consul - General, Consul, Vice-Consul, or Consular Agent, or person authorized to act in any such capacity in China or in Japan:

The term “British vessel” includes every vessel being a British ship within the meaning of The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, or any other Act of Parliament for the time being in force for the regulation of merchant shipping, — and any vessel owned wholly or in part by any person entitled to be the owner of a British ship in the sense aforesaid, — and any vessel provided with sailing-letters from the Governor or Officer administering the Government of Hong Kong, or from the Chief Superintendent of Trade:

The term “Treaty” includes Convention and any Agreement, Regulations, Rules, Articles, Tariff, or other instrument annexed to a Treaty or agreed on in pursuance of any stipulation thereof:

The term “month” means calendar month: Words importing the plural or the singular may be construed as referring to one person or thing, or more than one person or thing, and words importing the masculine as referring to females (as the case may require).

3. The provisions of this Order relating to British subjects apply to all subjects of Her Majesty, whether by birth or by naturalization.

The provisions of this Order relating to foreigners apply to subjects of the Emperor of China and of the Tycoon of Japan respectively and subjects or citizens of any State other than China or Japan (not being enemies of Her Majesty).

II.—GENERAL PROVISIONS RESPECTING HER MAJESTY’S JURISDICTION.

4. All Her Majesty’s jurisdiction exercisable in China or in Japan for the judicial hearing and determination of matters in difference between British subjects, or between foreigners and British subjects,—or for the administration or control of the property or persons of British subjects,—or for the repression or punishment of crimes or offences committed by British subjects,—or for the maintenance of order among British subjects,— shall be exercised under and according to the provisions of this Order, and not otherwise.

5. Subject to the other provisions of this Order, the civil and criminal jurisdiction aforesaid shall, as far as circumstances admit, be exercised upon the principles of and in conformity with the Common Law, the Rules of Equity, the Statute Law, and other Law for the time being in force in and for England, and with the powers vested in and according to the course of procedure and practice observed by and before Courts of Justice and Justices of the Peace in England, according to their respective jurisdictions and authorities.

6. Except as to offences made or declared such by this Order, or by any regulation or rule made under it,—

Any act other than an act that would by a Court or Justice having criminal jurisdiction in England be deemed a crime or offence making the person doing such act liable to punishment in England shall not, in the exercise of criminal jurisdiction under this Order, be deemed a crime or offence making the person doing such act liable to punishment.

III. — CONSTITUTION OF HER MAJESTY'S COURTS.

I. — The Supreme Court at Shanghai.

7. There shall be a Court styled Her Britannic Majesty's Supreme Court for China and Japan.

The Supreme Court shall have a seal bearing its style and such device as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State from time to time directs.

8. The Supreme Court shall hold its ordinary sittings at Shanghai, or on emergency, at any other place within the district of the Consulate of Shanghai ; but may at any time transfer its ordinary sittings to any such place in China as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State or Her Majesty's Minister in China approves.

9. There shall be one Judge of the Supreme Court.

He shall be appointed by Her Majesty, by warrant under Her Royal sign manual.

He shall be a subject of Her Majesty (by birth or naturalization) who at the time of his appointment is a member of the bar of England, Scotland, or Ireland, of not less than seven years' standing, or has filled the office of Assistant Judge or Law Secretary in the Supreme Court, or the office of Judge or Legal Vice-Consul or Law Secretary in Her Majesty's Consular Service.

10. The Judge may, from time to time, in case of his absence or intended absence from the district of the Consulate of Shanghai, either in the discharge of his duty or with permission of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or in case of illness, appoint, by writing under his hand and the seal of the Supreme Court, a fit person to be his deputy for the time therein mentioned; but every such appointment shall be revocable, at pleasure, by the Judge, by writing under his hand and the seal of the Supreme Court.

The person so appointed shall, during the continuance of his appointment, have all the like power and authority as the Judge.

11. During a vacancy in the office of Judge, or on emergency, a fit person, approved by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or (in the absence of notice to Her Majesty's Minister in China of any such approval) by Her Majesty's Minister in China, may temporarily be and act as Acting Judge, with all the power and authority of the Judge.

12. There shall be attached to the Supreme Court—

(1). An Assistant Judge.

(2.) A Law Secretary.

(3.) So many officers and clerks as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State from time to time thinks fit.

13. The Assistant Judge shall be appointed by Her Majesty, by warrant under Her Royal sign manual.

14. The Assistant Judge shall hear and determine such matters and questions arising in suits and proceedings of a civil nature originally instituted in the Supreme Court as are from time to time specially referred to him by the Judge; but in every such case any party to the suit or proceeding shall be entitled, as of course, to a rehearing before the Judge.

15. The Assistant Judge shall hear and determine in a summary way such criminal charges originally brought before the Supreme Court as may be lawfully so heard and determined, and as are from time to time referred to him by the Judge.

16. In case of the absence or illness of the Assistant Judge, or during a vacancy in the office of Assistant Judge, or during the temporary employment of the Assistant Judge in any other capacity, or on emergency, the Judge may, by writing under his hand and the seal of the Supreme Court, appoint the Law Secretary, or any fit person approved by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or by Her Majesty's Minister in China, to act as Assistant Judge for the time therein mentioned; but every such appointment shall be revocable, at pleasure, by the Judge, by writing under his hand and the seal of the Supreme Court.

The Law Secretary, or other person so appointed, shall, during the continuance of his appointment, have all the power and authority of the Assistant Judge.

17. The Law Secretary shall be appointed by Her Majesty, by warrant under Her Royal sign manual.

18. The Law Secretary shall be the Registrar of the Court.

19. The Law Secretary shall hear and determine such matters and questions arising in suits and proceedings of a civil nature originally instituted in the Supreme Court as the Judge from time to time for the despatch of urgent business thinks fit to refer specially to him; but in every such case any party to the suit or proceeding shall be entitled, as of course, to a re-hearing before the Judge.

20. The Law Secretary shall discharge such duties in connexion with the conduct of criminal prosecutions as the Judge from time to time directs.

21. The Law Secretary shall hear and determine in a summary way such criminal charges originally brought before the Supreme Court as may be lawfully so heard and determined, and as the Judge from time to time for the despatch of urgent business thinks fit to refer specially to him.

22. In case of the absence or illness of the Law Secretary, or during a vacancy in the office of Law Secretary, or during the temporary employment of the Law Secretary in any other capacity, or on emergency, the Judge may, by writing under his hand and the seal of the Supreme Court, appoint any fit person approved by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or by Her Majesty's Minister in China, to act as Law Secretary for the time therein mentioned; but every such appointment shall be revocable, at pleasure, by the Judge, by writing under his hand and the seal of the Supreme Court.

The person so appointed shall, during the continuance of his appointment, have all the power and authority of the Law Secretary.

23. The Judge, Assistant Judge, and Law Secretary shall hold office during the pleasure of Her Majesty, but any warrant of appointment to the office of Judge, Assistant Judge, or Law Secretary shall not be vacated by reason only of a demise of the Crown.

In case at any time Her Majesty thinks fit by warrant under Her Royal sign manual to revoke the warrant appointing any person to be Judge, Assistant Judge, or Law Secretary,—or while there is a Judge, Assistant-Judge, or Law Secretary in office, thinks fit by warrant under Her Royal sign manual to appoint another person to be Judge, Assistant Judge, or Law Secretary (as the case may be),—then and in every such case, until the warrant of revocation or of new appointment is notified by Her Majesty's Minister in China to the person holding office, all powers and authorities vested in that person shall continue and be deemed to have continued in as full force,—and he shall continue and be deemed to have continued entitled to all the privileges and emoluments of the office as fully,—and all things done by him shall be and be deemed to have been as valid in law,—as if such warrant of revocation or new appointment had not been made.

24. One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may, and Her Majesty's Ministers in China and Japan respectively, with the approval of the Judge of the Supreme Court in each instance first obtained, may from time to time temporarily attach to the Supreme Court any persons holding appointments as Consuls or Vice-Consuls.

Every person so attached shall discharge such duties in connexion with the Court as the Judge from time to time, with the approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, directs, and shall have the like power and authority as the Assistant Judge or Law Secretary has, according as in each case the nature of the duties directed to be discharged by the person so attached may require.

II. — The Provincial Courts.

25. Each of Her Majesty's Consuls-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls (holding a commission as such from Her Majesty) resident in China or in Japan (with the exception of Her Majesty's Consul at Shanghai, and with such other exceptions as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State at any time thinks fit to make), — or any person acting temporarily, with the approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or of Her Majesty's Minister in China or in Japan, as and for a Consul-General, Consul, or Vice-Consul, so commissioned as aforesaid,—shall, for and in his own Consular district, hold and form a Court styled Her Britannic Majesty's Court at [Canton, or as the case may be], — hereafter in this Order called a Provincial Court.

Each Provincial Court shall have a seal bearing its style and such device as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State from time to time directs.

IV.—JURIES. ASSESSORS.

26. Every male British subject resident in China or in Japan, being of the age of twenty-one years or upwards,—being able to speak and read English,—having or earning a gross income at the rate of not less than 250 dollars a year, — not having been attainted of treason or felony, or convicted of any crime that is infamous (unless he has obtained a free pardon),—and not being under outlawry,—shall be qualified to serve on a jury.

27. All persons so qualified shall be liable so to serve, except the following :—

Persons in Her Majesty's Diplomatic, Consular, or other Civil service in actual employment ;

Officers, clerks, keepers of prisons, messengers, and other persons attached to or in the service of any of Her Majesty's Courts ;

Officers and others on full pay in Her Majesty's Navy or Army, or in actual employment in the service of any department connected therewith ;

Persons holding appointments in the Civil service, and Commissioned Officers in the Naval or Military service, of the Emperor of China or of the Tycoon of Japan ;

Clergymen and ministers in the actual discharge of professional duties ;

Advocates and attorneys in actual practice ;

Physicians, surgeons, and apothecaries in actual practice ; and except persons disabled by mental or bodily infirmity.

28. On or before the fourteenth day of September in the year 1865, and on or before the fourteenth day of January in every subsequent year, each Court shall make out a list of the persons so qualified and liable, resident within its district.

The list shall, on or before the twenty-first day of the same respective month, be affixed in some conspicuous place in the Court, and shall be there exhibited until the end of that month, with a notice annexed that on a day specified, not being sooner than the seventh or later than the fourteenth day of the then next month, the Court will hold a special sitting for the revision of the list.

The Court shall hold such special sitting accordingly, and at such sitting, or at some adjournment thereof (of which public notice shall be given), shall revise the list by striking out the name of any person appearing to be not qualified or not liable to serve, and by inserting the name of any person omitted and appearing to be so qualified and liable, either on the application of the person omitted, or on such notice to him as the Court thinks fit.

The list shall be finally revised and settled not later than the twenty-first day of October in the year 1865, and not later than the twenty-first day of February in every subsequent year, and when settled shall be affixed in some conspicuous place in the Court, and be there exhibited during not less than two months.

Such list, as settled, shall be brought into use in the year 1865, on the first day of November, and in every subsequent year on the first day of March, and in every case shall be used as the Jury List of the Court until the first day of March next after the time of its being brought into use.

29. Where, in pursuance of this Order, a jury is ordered, the Court shall summon so many of the persons comprised in the jury list, not fewer than fifteen, as seem requisite.

Any person failing to attend according to such summons shall be liable to such fine, not exceeding 50 dollars, as the Court thinks fit to impose.

Any such fine shall not be levied until after the expiration of fourteen days. The proper officer of the Court shall forthwith give to the person fined notice in writing of the imposition of the fine, and require him within six days after receipt of the notice to file an affidavit excusing his non-attendance (if he desires to do so). The Court shall consider the affidavit, and may, if it seems proper, remit the fine.

30. A jury shall consist of five jurors.

31. In civil and in criminal cases the like challenges shall be allowed as in England, with this addition—that in civil cases each party may challenge three jurors peremptorily.

32. A jury shall be required to give an unanimous verdict.

33. Where a Provincial Court proceeds, in pursuance of this Order, to hear and determine any case, civil or criminal, with Assessors, the Court shall nominate and summon as Assessors not less than two and not more than four indifferent British subjects of good repute, resident in the district of the Court.

Where, however, by reason of local circumstances, the Court is able to obtain the presence of one fit person only as Assessor, the Court may sit with him alone as Assessor; and where for like reasons the Court is not able to obtain the presence of any fit person as Assessor, the Court may (notwithstanding anything in this Order) sit without an Assessor; but in every such case the Court shall record in the minutes of proceedings its reasons for sitting with one Assessor only, or without an Assessor.

34. An Assessor shall not have voice or vote in the decision of the Court in any case, civil or criminal; but an Assessor dissenting in a civil case from any decision of the Court, or in a criminal case from any decision of the Court or the conviction or the amount of punishment awarded, may record in the minutes of proceedings his dissent and the grounds thereof); and an Assessor dissenting shall be entitled to receive gratis a certified copy of the minutes.

V.—JURISDICTION AND AUTHORITIES OF HER MAJESTY'S COURTS.

I.—In General.

35. All Her Majesty's jurisdiction, civil and criminal, exerciseable in China, shall, for and within the district of the Consulate of Shanghai, be vested exclusively in the Supreme Court as its ordinary original jurisdiction.

36. All Her Majesty's jurisdiction, civil and criminal, exerciseable in China beyond the district of the Consulate of Shanghai and not under this Order vested exclusively in the Supreme Court,—and all Her Majesty's jurisdiction, civil and criminal, exerciseable in Japan and not under this Order vested exclusively in the Supreme Court,—shall, to the extent and in the manner provided by this Order, be vested in the Provincial Courts each for and within its own district.

37. The Supreme Court shall have, in all matters civil and criminal, an extraordinary original jurisdiction throughout China and Japan, concurrent with the jurisdiction of the several Provincial Courts, such extraordinary jurisdiction to be exercised subject and according to the provisions of this Order.

38. The Judge of the Supreme Court may, from time to time, visit in a magisterial or judicial capacity any Provincial Court, and there inquire of, or hear and determine, any case, civil or criminal, pending in that Court, or arising within its district,—or, from time to time, may appoint the Assistant Judge or the Law Secretary of the Supreme Court to visit in the like capacity and for the like purpose any Provincial Court.

39. A Provincial Court may, of its own motion, or on the application of any person concerned, report to the Supreme Court the pendency of any case, civil or criminal, which appears to the Provincial Court fit to be heard and determined by the Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court shall thereupon direct in what mode and where the case shall be heard and determined, and (notwithstanding anything in this Order) the same shall be so heard and determined accordingly.

40. Every Court shall, in the exercise of every part of its respective jurisdiction, be a Court of Record.

41. The Judge of the Supreme Court may, from time to time, admit fit persons to practise in the Supreme Court as barristers, attorneys, and solicitors, or in any of those capacities.

The Judge of the Supreme Court may, from time to time, subject to the approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, make rules for regulating the admission of persons to practise as aforesaid in Provincial Courts.

42. Her Majesty's Consul at Shanghai shall have all the powers and authorities of the Sheriff of a county in England, with all the privileges and immunities of the office, and as such Sheriff shall be charged with the execution of all decrees, orders, and sentences made and passed by the Supreme Court, on the requisition in that behalf of the Supreme Court.

43. Each Provincial Court shall execute any writ, order, or warrant issuing from the Supreme Court and directed to the Provincial Court;—and may take security from any person named therein for his appearance, personally or by attorney, according to the writ, order, or warrant;—or may cause such person to be taken, in custody or otherwise, to the Supreme Court, or elsewhere in China or Japan, according to the writ, order, or warrant.

44. Any of Her Majesty's Courts in China or in Japan may execute any writ, order, or warrant issuing from the Supreme Court of Hong Kong, and accompanied by a request for such execution in writing under the seal of that Court;—and may take security from any person named in any such writ, order, or warrant for his appearance, personally or by attorney, at Hong Kong;—or may cause any such person to be taken in custody or otherwise, to Hong Kong, according to the writ, order, or warrant.

45. Any of Her Majesty's Judicial or Consular Officers shall not be liable to an action for the escape of any person taken under any writ, order, or warrant of the Supreme Court of Hong Kong.

46. Her Majesty's several Courts in China and Japan shall be auxiliary to one another in all particulars relative to the administration of justice, civil or criminal.

47. Each Provincial Court shall, every six months, furnish to the Supreme Court for China and Japan, a report respecting every case, civil and criminal, brought before it, in such form as the Judge of the Supreme Court from time to time directs.

II.—In Civil Matters.

Reconciliation and Arbitration.

48. Every Court may promote reconciliation, and encourage and facilitate the settlement in an amicable way of any suit or proceeding pending before it.

49. A Court may, with the consent of the parties, refer to arbitration the final determination of any suit or proceeding pending before it, or of all matters in difference between the parties, on such terms and with such directions as to appointment of an arbitrator and other things as may seem fit, and may if it thinks fit, take from the parties, or any of them, security to abide by the result of the reference.

In any such case the award shall be final and conclusive.

On the application of any party a decree of the Court may be entered in conformity with the award, and such decree shall not be open to any appeal or re-hearing whatever.

50. Every agreement for reference to arbitration or submission to arbitration by consent may, on the application of any party, be made a rule of a Court having jurisdiction in the matter of the reference or submission, which Court shall thereupon have power and authority to enforce the agreement or submission and the award made thereunder, and to control and regulate the proceedings before and after the award in such manner and on such terms as may be just.

General Authority of Courts.

51. The Supreme and every other Court shall be a Court of Law and of Equity.

Special Authorities of Courts.

52. The Supreme and every other Court shall be a Court of Bankruptcy, and as such shall, as far as circumstances admit, have (as to a Provincial Court, for and within its own district), with respect to British subjects and to their debtors and creditors, being either British subjects or foreigners submitting to the jurisdiction of the Court, all such jurisdiction as for the time being belongs to the Court of Bankruptcy, and the County Courts in England, or to any other judicial authority having for the time being jurisdiction in Bankruptcy in England.

53. The Supreme and every other Court shall (as to a Provincial Court, for and within its own district) have and discharge all the powers, rights, and duties appertaining to the office of Coroner in England — summoning when necessary a jury of not less than three persons comprised in the Jury List of the Court.

Any person failing to attend according to such summons shall be liable to the like fine, to be levied in the like manner, as in this Order provided with reference to juries in civil and criminal proceedings.

54. The Supreme Court shall be a Vice-Admiralty Court, and as such shall, for and within China and Japan, and for vessels and persons coming to and within China or Japan, have all such jurisdiction as for the time being ordinarily belongs to Vice-Admiralty Courts in Her Majesty's possessions abroad.

55. The Supreme Court shall, as far as circumstances admit, have in itself exclusively, for and within China and Japan, with respect to British subjects, all such jurisdiction relative to the custody and management of the persons and estates of persons of unsound mind as for the time being belongs to the Lord Chancellor or other person or persons in England intrusted by virtue of Her Majesty's sign manual with the care and commitment of the custody of the persons and estates of persons found by inquisition in England, idiot, lunatic, or of unsound mind.

56. The Supreme Court shall be a Court for Matrimonial Causes, and as such shall, as far as circumstances admit, have in itself exclusively, for and within China and Japan, with respect to British subjects, all such jurisdiction, except the jurisdiction relative to dissolution or nullity or jactitation of marriage, as for the time being belongs to the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes in England.

57. The Supreme Court shall be a Court of Probate, and as such shall, as far as circumstances admit, have, for and within China and Japan, with respect to the property of British subjects having at the time of death their fixed places of abode in China or Japan, all such jurisdiction as for the time being belongs to Her Majesty's Court of Probate in England.

A Provincial Court shall, however, also have power to grant probate or administration where there is no contention respecting the right to the grant, and it is proved on oath that the deceased had at the time of his death his fixed place of abode within the jurisdiction of the Provincial Court.

Probate or administration granted by a Provincial Court shall have effect over all the property of the deceased within China and Japan, and shall effectually discharge persons dealing with an executor or administrator thereunder, and that, notwithstanding any defect afterwards appears in the grant.

Such a grant shall not be impeachable by reason only that the deceased had not at the time of his death his fixed place of abode within the particular jurisdiction.

58. Any person having in his possession or under his control any paper or writing of a deceased British subject being or purporting to be testamentary, shall forthwith bring the original to the Court within the district whereof such person is at the time of his first knowledge of the death of the deceased, and deposit it there.

Any person neglecting to do so for 14 days after having knowledge of the death of the deceased, shall be liable to such penalty, not exceeding 250 dollars, as the Court thinks fit to impose.

59. From the death of a British subject, having at the time of death his fixed place of abode in China or Japan, intestate, until administration granted, his personal property within China and Japan shall be vested in the Judge of the Supreme Court, as the personal property of an intestate in England is vested in the Judge of Her Majesty's Court of Probate there.

60. If any person, other than one of Her Majesty's Consular Officers, takes possession of and in any manner administers any part of the personal property of any person deceased without obtaining probate or administration within three months after the death of the deceased,—or within one month after the termination of any suit or dispute respecting probate or administration (if there is any such which is not ended within two months after the death of the deceased), —he shall be liable to such penalty not exceeding 500 dollars as the Court having jurisdiction in the matter of the property of the deceased thinks fit to impose ; and in every such case the same fees shall be payable by the person so administering as would have been payable by him if he had obtained probate or administration.

61. Where a British subject, not having at the time of death his fixed place of abode in China or Japan, dies there, the Court within whose district he dies shall, where the circumstances of the case appear to the Court so to require, forthwith on the death of the deceased, or as soon after as may be, take possession of his personal property within the particular jurisdiction, or put it under the seal of the Court (in either case, if the nature of the property or other circumstances so require, making an inventory), and so keep the property until it can be dealt with according to law.

Trial with a Jury.

62. Where a suit originally instituted in the Supreme Court relates to money, goods, or other property or any matter at issue of the amount or value of 1,500 dollars or upwards,—or is brought for recovery of damages of the amount of 1,500 dollars or upwards,—the suit shall, on the demand of either party, be, under order of the Court, tried with a Jury.

In any case (except where, according to the rules of the Court, the suit is to be heard and determined in a summary way) a suit so instituted may be tried with a jury, if the Court, of its own motion or on the application of either party, thinks fit so to order.

One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may, by order under his hand, extend the present provision to any Provincial Court where it appears to him there is a sufficient jury list.

Trial with Assessors.

63. Where a suit instituted in a Provincial Court relates to money, goods or other property of a less amount or value than 1,500 dollars,—or does not relate to or involve, directly or indirectly, a question respecting any matter at issue of the amount or value of 1,500 dollars or upwards,—or is brought for recovery of damages of a less amount than 1,500 dollars,—the Court may hear and determine the case without Assessors.

In all other cases the Court (subject to the provisions of this Order respecting inability to obtain an Assessor) shall hear and determine the case with Assessors.

III.—In Criminal Matters.

64. Every Court may cause to be apprehended and brought before it any British subject being within the district of the Court and charged with having committed a crime or offence in China or in Japan, and may deal with the accused according to the jurisdiction of the Court and in conformity with the provisions of this Order ;—or where the crime or offence is triable, and is to be tried, in Her Majesty's dominions, may take the preliminary examination, and commit the accused for trial, and cause or allow him to be taken to the place of intended trial.

65. Where a person charged with having committed a crime or offence in the district of one Court escapes or removes from that district and is found within the district of another Court, the Court within the district of which he is found may proceed in the case to examination, indictment, trial, and punishment, or in a summary way (as the case may require), in the same manner as if the crime or offence had been committed in its own district ;—or may, on the requisition or with the consent of the Court of the district in which the crime or offence is charged to have been committed, send him in custody to that Court, or require him to give security for his surrender to that Court, there to answer the charge and to be dealt with according to law.

Where any person is to be so sent in custody a warrant shall be issued by the Court within the district of which he is found, and such warrant shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed to receive and detain the person therein named, and carry him to and deliver him up to the Court of the district within which the crime or offence was committed, according to the warrant.

66. Where a warrant or order of arrest is issued by a competent authority in Her Majesty's dominions for the apprehension of a British subject, who is charged with having committed a crime or offence within the jurisdiction of the authority issuing the warrant or order, and who is, or is supposed to be, in China or in Japan, and the warrant or order is produced to any Court, the Court may back the warrant or order; and the same, when so backed, shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom the warrant or order was originally directed, and also to any constable or other officer of the Court by which it is backed, to apprehend the accused at any place where the Court by which the warrant or order is backed has jurisdiction, and to carry him to and deliver him up in Her Majesty's dominions, according to the warrant or order.

67. Where any person is charged with the commission of a crime or offence the cognizance whereof appertains to any of Her Majesty's Courts in China or in Japan, and it is expedient that the crime or offence be inquired of, tried, determined, and punished within Her Majesty's dominions, the accused may (under The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, section 4,) be sent for trial to Hong Kong.

The Judge of the Supreme Court may, where it appears expedient, by warrant under his hand and seal and the seal of the Supreme Court, cause the accused to be taken for trial to Hong Kong accordingly.

Where any person is to be so taken to Hong Kong, the Court before which he is charged shall take the preliminary examination, and shall send the depositions to Hong Kong, and (if it seems necessary or proper) may bind over such of the proper witnesses as are British subjects in their own recognizances to appear and give evidence on the trial.

68. All crimes which in England are capital shall be tried by the Judge of the Supreme Court with a jury.

Other crimes and offences above the degree of misdemeanour, tried before the Judge, Assistant Judge, or Law Secretary of the Supreme Court, and not heard and determined in a summary way, shall be tried with a jury.

Any crime or offence tried before the Judge, Assistant Judge, or Law Secretary of the Supreme Court, may be tried with a jury where the Judge, Assistant Judge, or Law Secretary so directs.

Subject to the foregoing provisions, such classes of criminal cases tried before the Judge, Assistant Judge, or Law Secretary of the Supreme Court, as the Judge, having regard to the law and practice existing in England, from time to time directs, shall be heard and determined in a summary way.

69. Where any person is sentenced to suffer the punishment of death, the Judge of the Supreme Court shall forthwith send a report of the sentence, with a copy of the minutes of proceedings and notes of evidence in the case, and with any observations the Judge thinks fit, to Her Majesty's Minister in China or in Japan, according as the crime is committed in China or in Japan.

The sentence shall not be carried into execution without the direction of Her Majesty's Minister in China or in Japan (as the case may be), in writing under his hand.

In any such case, if Her Majesty's Minister in China or in Japan (as the case may be) does not direct that the sentence of death be carried into execution, he shall direct what punishment in lieu of the punishment of death is to be inflicted on the person convicted, and the person convicted shall be liable to be so punished accordingly.

70. Where the crime or offence with which any person is charged before a Provincial Court is any crime or offence other than assault endangering life, cutting, maiming, arson, or house-breaking, and appears to the Court to be such that, if proved, it would be adequately punished by imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding three months, or by a fine not exceeding 200 dollars, the Court shall hear and determine the case in a summary way and without Assessors.

In other cases the Court shall hear and determine the case on indictment and with Assessors (subject to the provisions of this Order respecting inability to obtain an Assessor).

71. A Provincial Court may impose the punishment of imprisonment for any term not exceeding twelve months, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine not exceeding 1,000 dollars, or the punishment of a fine not exceeding 1,000 dollars, without imprisonment.

72. Where the crime or offence with which any person is charged before a Provincial Court appears to the Court to be such that, if proved, it would not not be adequately punished by such punishment as the Court has power to impose, and the accused is not to be sent for trial to Her Majesty's dominions, the Court shall reserve the case to be heard and determined by or under the special authority of the Supreme Court.

The Provincial Court shall take the depositions, and forthwith send them, with a minute of other evidence, if any, and a report on the case, to the Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court shall direct in what mode and where the case shall be heard and determined, and (notwithstanding anything in this Order) the same shall be so heard and determined accordingly.

73. Every Court and authority in imposing and inflicting punishments, and Her Majesty's Ministers in China and Japan in directing what punishment is to be inflicted in lieu of the punishment of death, shall have regard, as far as circumstances admit, and subject to the other provisions of his Order, to the punishments imposed by the law of England in like cases, and to the mode in which the same are inflicted in England.

74. Any Court (but, in the case of a Provincial Court, subject to the approval of the Supreme Court), may order any person convicted before it of any crime or offence to pay all or any part of the expenses of or preliminary to his trial and of his imprisonment, or other punishment.

75. Where it appears to any Court that any charge made before it is malicious, or is frivolous and vexatious, the Court may order all, or any part, of the expenses of the prosecution to be paid by the person making the charge.

76. In either of the two last-mentioned cases, the amount ordered to be paid shall be deemed a debt due to the Crown, and may, by virtue of the order, without further proceedings, be levied on the property of the person convicted or making the charge, as the case may be.

77. Where any punishment has been awarded by the Supreme or any other Court, then, if the circumstances of the case make it just or expedient, the Judge of the Supreme Court may at any time, and from time to time, report to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or to Her Majesty's Minister in China or in Japan (according as the crime or offence was committed in China or Japan), recommending a mitigation or remission of the punishment ; and on such recommendation any such punishment may be mitigated or remitted by direction of the authority to whom the report is made.

But no such recommendation shall be made with respect to any punishment awarded by a Provincial Court, except on the recommendation of that Court, or on the dissent of an Assessor (if any) from the conviction or from the amount of punishment awarded.

78. The Judge of the Supreme Court may, where it seems expedient, by warrant under his hand and the seal of the Supreme Court, cause any offender convicted before any Court and sentenced to imprisonment to be taken to and imprisoned at any place in China or in Japan from time to time approved by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as a place of imprisonment for offenders.

A warrant of the Supreme Court shall be sufficient authority to the governor or keeper of such place of imprisonment, or other person to whom it is directed to receive and detain there the person therein named, according to the warrant.

79. Where any offender convicted before a Court in China or in Japan is sentenced to suffer imprisonment in respect of the crime or offence of which he is convicted, and it is expedient that the sentence be carried into effect within Her Majesty's dominions, the offender may (under The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, section 5,) be sent for imprisonment to Hong Kong.

The Judge of the Supreme Court may, where it seems expedient, by warrant under his hand and seal, and the seal of the Supreme Court, cause the offender to be taken to Hong Kong in order that the sentence passed on him may be there carried into effect accordingly.

80. The Judge of the Supreme Court shall, when required by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, send to the Secretary of State a report of the sentence passed by the Judge, Assistant Judge, or Law Secretary of the Court, in every case not heard and determined in a summary way, with a copy of the minutes of proceedings and notes of evidence, and the Judge may send with such report any observations he thinks fit.

Every Provincial Court shall forthwith send to the Judge of the Supreme Court a report of the sentence passed by it in every case not heard and determined in a summary way, with a copy of the minutes of proceedings and notes of evidence, and with any observations the Court thinks fit. The Judge of the Supreme Court shall, when required by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, transmit the same to the Secretary of State, and may send therewith any observations he thinks fit.

VI.—WAR, INSURRECTION, OR REBELLION.

81. If any British subject commits any of the following offences; that is to say:—

- (1.) In China, while Her Majesty is at peace with the Emperor of China, levies war or takes part in any operation of war against the Emperor of China, or aids or abets any person in carrying on war, insurrection, or rebellion against the Emperor of China ;
- (2.) In Japan, while Her Majesty is at peace with the Tycoon of Japan, levies war or takes part in any operation of war against the Tycoon of Japan, or aids or abets any person in carrying on war, insurrection, or rebellion, against the Tycoon of Japan ;

every person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanour, and on conviction thereof shall be liable (in the discretion of the Court before which he is convicted) to be punished by imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine not exceeding 5000 dollars, or by a fine not exceeding 5000 dollars, without imprisonment.

In addition to such punishment, every such conviction shall, of itself and without further proceedings, make the person convicted liable to deportation; and the Court before which he is convicted may order that he be deported from China or Japan to such place as the Court directs.

82. If any British subject, without the license of Her Majesty (proof whereof shall lie on the party accused), takes part in any operation of war in the service of the Emperor of China against any persons engaged in carrying on war, insurrection, or rebellion against the Emperor of China, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanour, and on conviction thereof shall be liable (in the discretion of the Court before which he is convicted) to be punished by imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine not exceeding 5000 dollars, or by a fine not exceeding 5000 dollars, without imprisonment.

83. If the Court before which any person charged with having committed such a misdemeanour as in the two last preceding Articles mentioned is brought, is a Provincial Court, the Court shall report to the Judge of the Supreme Court the pendency of the case.

The Judge of the Supreme Court shall thereupon direct in what mode and where the case shall be heard and determined, and (notwith-

VII.—TREATIES AND REGULATIONS.

84. If any British subject in China or in Japan violates or fails to observe any stipulation of any Treaty between Her Majesty, Her heirs or successors, and the Emperor of China or the Tycoon of Japan, for the time being in force, in respect of the violation whereof any penalty is stipulated for in the Treaty, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Treaty, and on conviction thereof under this Order shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding the penalty stipulated for in the Treaty.

85. Her Majesty's Minister in China may from time to time make such Regulations as seem fit for the peace, order, and good government of British subjects resident in or resorting to China, and for the observance of the stipulations of Treaties between Her Majesty, Her heirs or successors, and the Emperor of China, and for the maintenance of friendly relations between British subjects and Chinese subjects and authorities, and may make any such Regulations apply either throughout China or to some one or more of the Consular districts in China, and may by any such Regulations repeal or alter any Regulations made for any such purpose as aforesaid before the commencement of this Order.

Any such Regulations shall not have effect unless and until they are approved by Her Majesty, such approval being signified through one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; save that in case of urgency, declared in any such Regulations, the same shall have effect unless and until they are disapproved by Her Majesty, such disapproval being signified through one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and notification of such disapproval is received and published by Her Majesty's Minister in China.

86. Such Regulations may impose penalties for offences against the same, as follows; namely — for each offence imprisonment for any term not exceeding three months, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine not exceeding 500 dollars, or a fine not exceeding 500 dollars, without imprisonment; and with or without further fines for continuing offences, not exceeding in any case 25 dollars for each day during which the offence continues after the original fine is incurred; but so that all such Regulations be so framed as to allow in every case of part only of the maximum penalty being inflicted.

87. All such Regulations shall be printed, and a printed copy thereof shall be affixed and at all times kept exhibited conspicuously in the public office of each Consular Officer in China, to whose district the Regulations apply.

Printed copies of the Regulations applicable to each district shall be provided and sold therein at such reasonable price as Her Majesty's Minister in China from time to time directs.

88. No penalty shall be enforced in any Consular district for any offence against any such regulation, until the Regulation has been so affixed and kept exhibited in the public office of the Consular Officer for that district during one month.

89. For the purpose of convicting any person committing an offence against any such Regulation, and for all other purposes, a printed copy of the Regulation, purporting to be certified under the hand of Her Majesty's Minister in China, or under the hand and Consular seal of one of Her Majesty's Consular Officers in China, shall be conclusive evidence of the Regulation; and no proof of the handwriting or seal purporting to certify the same shall be required.

90. The foregoing provisions, relative to the making, printing, publication, enforcement, and proof of Regulations in and for China shall extend and apply, mutatis mutandis, to the making, printing, publication, enforcement, and proof of Regulations in and for Japan, with the substitution only of Japan for China, and of the Tycoon of Japan for the Emperor of China, and of Her Majesty's Minister in Japan for Her Majesty's Minister in China, and of Her Majesty's Consular Officers in Japan for Her Majesty's Consular Officers in China.

91. Any charge under this Order of an offence against any Treaty, or against any such Regulation as aforesaid, shall be inquired of, heard and determined in like manner in all respects as any ordinary criminal charge may be inquired of, heard and determined under this Order, subject only to this qualification,—that (notwithstanding anything in this Order) every charge of an offence against any Treaty or against any Regulation for the observance of the stipulations of any Treaty shall be heard and determined in a summary way, and (where the proceeding is before a Provincial Court) without Assessors.

VIII.—UNLAWFUL TRADE WITH JAPAN.

92. All trade of British subjects in, to, or from any part of Japan, except such ports and towns as are for the time being open to British subjects by treaty between Her Majesty, Her heirs or successors, and the Tycoon of Japan, is hereby declared unlawful.

If any person engages in such trade as a principal, agent, shipowner, ship-master, or supercargo he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanour, and on conviction thereof shall be liable to be punished (in the discretion of the Court before which he is convicted) by imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine not exceeding 10,000 dollars, or by a fine not exceeding 10,000 dollars without imprisonment.

93. If the Court before which any person charged with having committed such a misdemeanour is brought is a Provincial Court, the Court shall report to the Judge of the Supreme Court the pendency of the case.

The Judge of the Supreme Court shall thereupon direct in what mode and where the case shall be heard and determined, and (notwithstanding anything in this Order) the case shall be so heard and determined accordingly.

94. The officer commanding any of Her Majesty's vessels of war or any of Her Majesty's Naval Officers authorised in this behalf by the Officer having the command of Her Majesty's Naval Forces in Japan by writing under his hand, may seize any British vessel engaged, or reasonably suspected of being or having been engaged in any trade by this Order declared unlawful, and may either detain the vessel, with the master, officers, supercargo, crew, and other persons engaged in navigating the vessel, or any of them, or take, or cause to be taken, the vessel, and the master, officers, supercargo, crew, and other persons aforesaid, or any of them, to any port or place in Japan or elsewhere convenient for the prosecution of a charge for the misdemeanour alleged to have been committed.

Any such vessel, master, officers, supercargo, crew, and persons may lawfully be detained at the place of seizure, or at the port or place to which the vessel is so taken under the authority of any such Officer, or of any of Her Majesty's Consular Officers in China or Japan, until the conclusion of any proceedings taken in respect of such misdemeanour.

IX.—JAPANESE WATERS.

95. When and as often as it appears to Her Majesty's Minister in Japan that the unrestricted entrance of British vessels into or the unrestricted passage of British vessels through any strait or other water in Japan may lead to acts of disturbance or violence, or may otherwise endanger the maintenance of peaceful relations and intercourse between Her Majesty's subjects and the subjects of the Tycoon of Japan, Her Majesty's Minister may make any Regulation for prohibiting or for restricting in such manner as seems expedient the entrance or passage of any British vessel (other than a vessel of war of Her Majesty) into or through any such strait or other water as aforesaid as defined in the Regulation.

Her Majesty's Minister may from time to time revoke or alter any such Regulation.

96. The foregoing provisions of this Order relative to the making, printing, publication, enforcement, and proof of Regulations to be made by Her Majesty's Minister in Japan, and to the mode of proceeding in respect of any charge for an offence against any such Regulations, shall extend and apply, mutatis mutandis, to any Regulation made by Her Majesty's Minister in Japan, as last aforesaid.

97. If any person navigating a British vessel wilfully violates, or wilfully attempts to violate, any such Regulation, the officer commanding any vessel of war of Her Majesty, or in charge of any boat belonging to such vessel of war, may use force for the purpose of compelling him to desist from the violation or attempted violation of the Regulation, and if it appears necessary or expedient may seize the vessel, and such Commanding Officer may either detain her at the place of seizure, or take her, or cause her to be taken to any port or place in Japan or elsewhere, where the offender may be more conveniently prosecuted for such offence.

Any such vessel may lawfully be detained at the place of seizure, or at the port or place to which she is so taken, under the authority of any such Commanding Officer, or of any of Her Majesty's Consular Officers in Japan, until the conclusion of any proceedings taken in respect of the offence.

X.—PIRACY.

98. Any British subject being in China or in Japan may be proceeded against, tried, and punished under this Order for the crime of piracy wherever committed.

99. If the Court before which a British subject charged with the crime of piracy is brought is a Provincial Court, the Court shall report to the Judge of the Supreme Court the pendency of the case.

XI.—OFFENCES AGAINST RELIGION.

100. If any British subject is guilty of publicly deriding, mocking, or insulting any religion established or observed in China or in Japan, — or of publicly offering any insult to any religious service, feast, or ceremony established or kept in any part of China or in Japan, or to any place of worship, tomb, or sanctuary belonging to any such religion, or to the ministers or professors thereof—or of wilfully committing any act tending to bring any such religion, or its ceremonies, mode of worship, or observances into hatred, ridicule, or contempt, and thereby to provoke a breach of the public peace—he shall be liable (in the discretion of the Court before which he is convicted) to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine not exceeding 500 dollars, or to a fine not exceeding 500 dollars, without imprisonment.

Notwithstanding anything in this Order, every charge against a British subject of having committed any such offence shall be heard and determined in a summary way, and any Provincial Court shall have power to impose the punishment aforesaid.

Her Majesty's Consular Officers shall take such precautionary measures as seem to them proper and expedient for the prevention of such offences.

XII.—AUTHORITY WITHIN 100 MILES OF COAST OF CHINA.

101. Where a British subject, being after the commencement of this Order in China or in Japan, is charged with having committed, either before or after the commencement of this Order, any crime or offence within a British vessel at a distance of not more than 100 miles from the coast of China, or within a Chinese or Japanese vessel at such a distance as aforesaid, or within a vessel not lawfully entitled to claim the protection of the flag of any State, at such a distance as aforesaid—any of Her Majesty's Courts in China or in Japan within the jurisdiction whereof he is found may cause him to be apprehended and brought before it, and may take the preliminary examination and commit him for trial.

102. If the Court before which the accused is brought is a Provincial Court, the Court shall report to the Judge of the Supreme Court the pendency of the case.

The Judge of the Supreme Court shall thereupon direct in what mode, and where the case shall be heard and determined, and (notwithstanding anything in this Order) the case shall be so heard and determined accordingly.

103. The provisions of this Order relative to crimes, and offences, and proceedings in criminal matters, shall, in all respects, as far as may be, extend and apply to every such case, in like manner as if the crime or offence had been committed in China or Japan.

104. Where a British subject, being after the commencement of this Order in Hong Kong, is charged with having committed, either before or after the commencement of this Order, any crime or offence within any British, Chinese, Japanese, or other such vessel at such a distance as aforesaid, the Supreme Court at Hong Kong, shall have and may exercise authority and jurisdiction with respect to the crime or offence as fully as if it had been committed in Hong Kong.

105. Her Majesty's Minister in China or in Japan, the Judge or Assistant Judge of the Supreme Court, and any of Her Majesty's Consular Officers in China or in Japan, or the Governor or person administering the Government of Hong Kong, on receiving satisfactory information that any soldier, sailor, marine, or other person belonging to any of Her Majesty's Military or Naval forces, has deserted therefrom, and has concealed himself in any British, Chinese, Japanese, or other such vessel at such a distance as aforesaid, may, in pursuance of such information, issue his warrant for a search after and apprehension of such deserter, and on being satisfied on investigation that any person so apprehended is such a deserter, shall cause him to be with all convenient speed taken and delivered over to the nearest military station of Her Majesty's forces, or to the officer in command of a vessel of war of Her Majesty serving in China or in Japan, as the case may require.

XIII.—DEPORTATION.

106. (i.) Where it is shown, on oath, to the satisfaction of any of Her Majesty's Courts in China or in Japan, that there is reasonable ground to apprehend that any British subject in China or in Japan is about to commit a breach of the public peace,—or that the acts or conduct of any British subject in China or in Japan are or is likely to produce or excite to a breach of the public peace,—the Court within the jurisdiction whereof he happens to be, may cause him to be brought before it and require him to give security to the satisfaction of the Court to keep the peace, or for his future good behaviour, as the case may require :

(ii.) Where any British subject is convicted, under this Order, of any crime or offence, the Court within the jurisdiction whereof he happens to be may require him to give security to the satisfaction of the Court for his future good behaviour :

In either of these cases, if the person required to give security fails to do so, the Court may order that he be deported from China or Japan to such place as the Court directs.

107. In any case where an order of deportation is made under this Order, the Court shall not, without the consent of the person to be deported, direct the deportation of any person to any place other than Hong Kong or England.

108. A Provincial Court shall forthwith report to the Judge of the Supreme Court any order of deportation made by it, and the grounds thereof.

The Judge of the Supreme Court may reverse the order, or may confirm it with or without variation, and, in case of confirmation, shall direct it to be carried into effect.

109. The person to be deported shall be detained in custody until a fit time and opportunity for his deportation arrives.

The Judge of the Supreme Court shall then (and in the case of a person convicted, either after execution of the sentence or while it is in course of execution), by warrant, cause him to be taken to the place of deportation.

110. The Judge of the Supreme Court may order that the person to be deported do pay all or any part of the expenses of or preliminary to his deportation.

111. The Judge of the Supreme Court shall forthwith report to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State any order of deportation made or confirmed by him, and the grounds thereof, and shall also inform Her Majesty's Ministers in China and Japan of the same.

112. Where any person is deported to Hong Kong, he shall, on his arrival there, be delivered with the warrant under which he is deported, into the custody of the Chief Magistrate of Police of Hong Kong, or other officer of Her Majesty there lawfully acting as such, who, on receipt of the person deported, with the warrant, shall detain him and shall forthwith report the case to the Governor or person administering the Government of Hong Kong, who shall either by warrant (if the circumstances of the case appear to him to make it expedient) cause the person so deported to be taken to England, and in the meantime to be detained in custody, (so that the period of such detention do not exceed three months,) or else shall discharge him from custody.

113. If any person deported returns to China or Japan without the permission of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in writing under his hand (which permission the Secretary of State may give), he shall be guilty of an offence against this Order, and shall be liable on conviction thereof to punishment (in the discretion of the Court before which he is convicted) by imprisonment for any term not exceeding one month, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine not exceeding 200 dollars, or by a fine not exceeding 200 dollars, without imprisonment, and also to be forthwith again deported in manner herein-before provided.

XIV.—REGISTRATION OF BRITISH SUBJECTS.

114. Every British subject resident in China or Japan,—being of the age of twenty-one years or upwards,—or being married, or a widower or widow, though under that age,—shall, in the month of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and every subsequent year, register himself or herself in a register to be kept at the Consulate of the Consular district within which he or she resides,—subject to this qualification, that the registration of a man shall be deemed to include the registration of his wife (unless she is living apart from him), and that the registration of the head of a family, whether male or female, shall be deemed to include the registration of all females, being relatives of the head of the family (in whatever degree of relationship), living under the same roof with the head of the family at the time of his or her registration.

Every British subject not so resident arriving at any place in China or Japan where a Consular Office is maintained, unless borne on the muster roll of a British Vessel there arriving, shall within one month after his or her arrival, register himself or herself in a register to be kept at the Consular Office,—but so that no such person shall be required to register himself or herself more than once in any year, reckoned from the first day of January.

Any person failing so to register himself or herself, and not excusing his or her failure to the satisfaction of the Consular Officer, shall not be entitled to be recognized or protected as a British subject in China or Japan, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten dollars for each instance of such failure.

115. Every person shall on every registration of himself or herself pay a fee of such amount as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State from time to time by order under his hand appoints, such amount either to be uniform for all persons, or to vary according to the circumstances of different classes, as the Secretary of State from time to time by such order directs.

116. The Consular Office shall issue to every person so registered a certificate of registration under his hand and Consular seal; and the name of a wife (unless she is living apart from her husband) shall be indorsed on her husband's certificate; and the names and descriptions of females whose registration is included in that of the head of the family shall be indorsed on the certificate of the head of the family.

XV.—FOREIGNERS. FOREIGN TRIBUNALS.

117. Where a foreigner desires to institute or take any suit or proceeding of a civil nature against a British subject, the Supreme or other Court, according to its jurisdiction, may entertain the same, and where any such suit or proceeding is entertained shall hear and determine it according to the provisions of this Order and of the rules made under it applicable in the case,—either by the Judge, Assistant Judge, Law Secretary, or proper Consular Officer sitting alone (or with Assessors when the case so requires),—or, if (in any case where a trial with a jury may be had under this Order) all parties desire, or the Court thinks fit to direct, a trial with a jury, then, but not otherwise, by the Judge, Assistant Judge, Law Secretary, or proper Consular Officer, with a jury.

118. Where it is shown to any of Her Majesty's Courts that the attendance of a British subject to give evidence, or for any other purpose connected with the administration of justice, is required in a Chinese or Japanese Court, or before a Chinese or Japanese judicial officer, or in a court or before a judicial officer in China or Japan of any State in amity with Her Majesty, the Court may, in cases and under circumstances which would require the attendance of that British subject before one of Her Majesty's Courts in China or Japan, and if it seems to the Court just and expedient so to do, make an order for the attendance of the British subject in such court, or before such judicial officer, and for such purpose as aforesaid,—but so that a Provincial Court shall not have power to make an order for such attendance of a British subject at any place beyond the particular jurisdiction of the Court.

Any British subject, duly served with such an order, and with reasonable notice of the time and place at which his attendance is required, failing to attend accordingly and not excusing his failure to the satisfaction of the court making the order, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding 500 dollars, or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding one month, in the discretion of the court.

XVI.—APPEAL TO SUPREME COURT.

I.—In Civil Cases.

119. Where any decision of a Provincial Court, sitting with or without Assessors, is given in a civil case in respect of a sum or matter at issue of the amount or value of 250 dollars or upwards,—or determines, directly or indirectly, any claim or question respecting property of the amount or value of 250 dollars or upwards,—any party aggrieved by the decision may apply to the Provincial Court for leave to appeal to the Supreme Court, and shall be entitled to leave on the terms prescribed by the rules made under this Order, and subject to any restrictions and exceptions therein contained.

In any other case the Provincial Court may, if it seems just and expedient, give leave to appeal on like terms.

In any case the Supreme Court may give leave to appeal on such terms as seem just.

II.—In Criminal Cases.

120. When any person is convicted otherwise than in a summary way of a crime or offence, the Court or Officer trying the case may, if it seems fit, reserve for the consideration of the Supreme Court any question of law arising on the trial.

The Court or Officer shall then state a special case setting out the question reserved, with the facts and circumstances on which it arose, and shall send the case to the Supreme Court.

121. Where any person is convicted in a summary way of a crime or offence, and is dissatisfied with the conviction as being erroneous in point of law, the Court or Officer trying the case may, on his application in writing, and on compliance by him with any terms prescribed by the rules made under this Order, state a special case, setting out the facts and the grounds of the conviction, for the opinion of the Supreme Court, and send it to that Court.

122. Where a special case is stated, the Court or Officer stating it shall, as seems fit, either postpone judgment on the conviction, or respite execution of the judgment, and either commit the person convicted to prison, or take proper security for him to appear and receive judgment, or to render himself in execution (as the case may require) at an appointed time and place.

123. The Supreme Court shall hear and determine the matter, and thereupon shall reverse, affirm, or amend the judgment, conviction, or sentence in question,—or set aside the same, and order an entry to be made in the minutes of proceedings to the effect that, in the judgment of the Supreme Court, the person convicted ought not to have been convicted,—or arrest the judgment,—or order judgment to be given at a subsequent sitting of the Court or Officer stating the case,—or make such other order as justice requires,—and shall also give all necessary and proper consequential directions.

124. The judgment of the Supreme Court shall be delivered in open court after the public hearing of any argument offered on behalf of the prosecution or of the person convicted.

125. Before delivering judgment, the Supreme Court may, if necessary, cause the special case to be amended by the Court or Officer stating it.

126. If on an application for a special case, on a summary conviction, it seems to the Court or Officer that the application is merely frivolous, but not otherwise, the Court or Officer may refuse to state a case.

A Court or Officer so refusing shall forthwith send to the Supreme Court a report of the sentence, with a copy of the minutes of proceedings and notes of evidence, and any observations the Court or Officer thinks fit, and with a copy of the application for a special case.

The Supreme Court shall examine the report and documents so sent, and, unless the Supreme Court is of opinion that the application was merely frivolous, shall on the application in that behalf of the appellant, if made within one month after the refusal of a special case, proceed to hear and determine the matter according to the foregoing provisions, as nearly as may be as if a special case had been stated.

XVII.—RULES OF PROCEDURE.

127. The Judge of the Supreme Court may, from time to time, frame rules for any purpose for which it is before in this Order expressed or implied that rules of procedure or practice are to be made, and also for the regulation of procedure and pleading, forms of writs, and other proceedings, expenses of witnesses and prosecutions, costs and fees, in civil and in criminal cases, in the Supreme Court and other Courts, including the regulation of cross-suits and the admission of counter-claims, and the regulation of proceedings thereon, and for the regulation of appeals to the Supreme Court from the other Courts in civil and in criminal cases, and of rehearings before the Judge of the Supreme Court, and may thereby impose reasonable penalties.

Rules affecting the conduct of civil suits shall be so framed as to secure, as far as may be, that cases shall be decided on their merits, according to substantial justice, without excessive regard to technicalities of pleading or procedure, and without necessary delay.

Rules framed by the Judge shall not have effect unless and until they are approved by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State,--save that in case of urgency declared in any Rules framed by the Judge, with the approval of Her Majesty's Minister in China, the same shall have effect, unless and until they are disapproved by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and notification of such disapproval is received and published by the Judge.

128. A copy of the Rules for the time being in force shall be kept exhibited conspicuously in each Court and Consulate in China and Japan.

Printed copies shall be provided and sold at such reasonable price as the Judge of the Supreme Court from time to time directs.

No penalty shall be enforced in any Court for the breach of any Rule until the Rule has been so exhibited in the Court for one month.

129. A printed copy of any Rule, purporting to be certified under the hand of the Judge of the Supreme Court and the seal of that Court, shall be for all purposes conclusive evidence of the due framing, approval, and publication of the contents thereof.

130. From and after the commencement of any Rules made by the Judge of the Supreme Court under this Order, all Rules and Regulations theretofore made by the Chief Superintendent of Trade in China, or by Her Majesty's Consul-General in Japan, in respect of any matter in respect whereof the Judge of the Supreme Court is by this Order authorized to make Rules shall cease to operate.

XVIII.—APPEAL TO HER MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

131. Where any final decree or order of the Supreme Court is made in a civil case in respect of a sum or matter at issue of the amount or value of 2,500 dollars or upwards,—or determines directly or indirectly any claim or question respecting property of the amount or value of 2,500 dollars or upwards,—any party aggrieved by the decree or order may within fifteen days after the same is made, apply by motion to the Supreme Court for leave to appeal to Her Majesty in Council.

132. If leave to appeal is applied for by a party adjudged to pay money or perform a duty, the Supreme Court shall direct either that the decree or order appealed from be carried into execution, or that the execution thereof be suspended, pending the appeal, as the Court considers to be in accordance with substantial justice.

133. If the Court directs the decree or order to be carried into execution, the party in whose favor it is made shall, before the execution of it, give security to the satisfaction of the Court for the due performance of such order as Her Majesty in Council may think fit to make.

134. If the Court directs the execution of the decree or order to be suspended pending the appeal, the party against whom the decree is made shall, before any order for suspension of execution, give security to the satisfaction of the Court for the due performance of such order as Her Majesty in Council may think fit to make.

135. In all cases security shall also be given by the appellant to the satisfaction of the Court to an amount not exceeding 2,500 dollars for the prosecution of the appeal, and for payment of all such costs as may be awarded to any respondent by Her Majesty in Council, or by the Lords of the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council.

136. If the last-mentioned security is given within one month from the filing of the motion-paper for leave to appeal, then, and not otherwise the Supreme Court shall give leave to appeal.

137. In any case other than the cases hereinbefore described, the Supreme Court may give leave to appeal on the terms and in the manner aforesaid if it considers it just or expedient to do so.

138. In every case where leave to appeal is given as aforesaid the appellant shall be at liberty to prefer and prosecute his appeal to Her Majesty in Council according to the rules for the time being in force respecting appeals to Her Majesty in Council from Her Colonies, or such other rules as Her Majesty in Council from time to time thinks fit to make concerning appeals from the Supreme Court.

139. Nothing in this Order shall affect the right of Her Majesty at any time, on the humble petition of a party aggrieved by a decision of the Supreme Court in a civil case, to admit his appeal thereon on such terms and in such manner as Her Majesty in Council may think fit, and to deal with the decision appealed from in such manner as may be just.

140. Where any judgment, order, or sentence of the Supreme Court is given, made, or passed in the exercise of either original or appellate criminal jurisdiction, the party charged with the crime or offence, if he considers the judgment order or sentence to be erroneous in point of law, may appeal therefrom to Her Majesty in Council, provided that the Supreme Court declares the case to be a fit one for such appeal, and that the appellant complies with such conditions as the Supreme Court establishes or requires, subject always to such rules as from time to time Her Majesty in Council thinks fit to make in that behalf.

XIX.—GENERAL PROVISIONS.

141. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to affect Her Majesty's prerogative of pardon.

142. Except as in this Order expressly provided, nothing in this Order shall preclude any of Her Majesty's Consular Officers in China or in Japan from performing any act not of a judicial character, that Her Majesty's Consular Officers there might by law, or by virtue of usage or sufferance, or otherwise, have performed if this Order had not been made.

143. Every of Her Majesty's Consular Officers shall, as far as there is proper opportunity, promote reconciliation and encourage and facilitate the settlement in an amicable way, and without recourse to litigation, of matters in difference between British subjects in China or in Japan.

144. Every signature or seal affixed to any instrument purporting to be the signature of the Judge of the Supreme Court, or of any officer or person acting under this Order, or to be the seal of any of Her Majesty's Courts in China or in Japan, shall, for all purposes under this Order, without any proof thereof, be presumed to be genuine, and shall be taken as genuine until the contrary is proved.

145. In every case, civil or criminal, heard in any Court, proper minutes of the proceedings shall be drawn up, and shall be signed by the Judge or Officer before whom the proceedings are taken, and sealed with the seal of the Court, and shall, where Assessors are present, be open for their inspection and for their signature if concurred in by them.

The minutes, with depositions of witnesses and notes of evidence taken at the trial by the Judge or Officer, shall be preserved in the public office of the Court.

146. In a civil case any Court may order such costs, or costs, charges, and expenses, as to the Court seem reasonable, to be paid by any party to the proceedings, or out of any fund to which the proceeding relates.

147. Any Court, either of its own motion, or in civil cases, on the application of any party to any suit or proceeding or reference, may summon as a witness any British subject in China or Japan,—but so that a Provincial Court shall have power so to summon British subjects in its own district only.

Any British subject, duly served with such a summons and with reasonable notice of the time and place at which his attendance is required, failing to attend accordingly and not excusing his failure to the satisfaction of the Court, shall, over and above any other liability to which he may be subject, be liable to a fine not exceeding 500 dollars, or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding one month, in the discretion of the Court.

148. In civil cases any Court may, where the circumstances appear to justify it, order that the expenses of a witness, on his appearing to give evidence, shall be defrayed by the parties or any of them.

149. Any person appearing before a Court to give evidence in any case, civil or criminal, may be examined or give evidence on oath in the form or with the ceremony that he declares to be binding on his conscience.

150. Any British subject wilfully giving false evidence in any suit or proceeding, civil or criminal, or on any reference, shall, on conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury.

151. All costs and all charges and expenses of witnesses, prosecutions, punishments, and deportations, and other charges and expenses, and all fees, fines, forfeitures, and pecuniary penalties payable under this Order, may be levied by distress and seizure and sale of ships, goods, and lands; and no bill of sale, or mortgage, or transfer of property, made with a view to security in regard to crimes or offences committed, or to be committed, shall be of any avail to defeat any provision of this Order.

152. All fees, fines, forfeitures, confiscations, and pecuniary penalties levied under this Order, except confiscations and pecuniary penalties by treaty appropriated or payable to the Government of China or to that of the Tycoon of Japan, shall be carried to the public account, and be applied in diminution of the public expenditure on account of Her Majesty's Courts in China and Japan; but if the Government of China or that of the Tycoon of Japan declines to receive any confiscation or pecuniary penalty by treaty appropriated or payable to it, the same shall be applied as other confiscations and pecuniary penalties are applicable.

153. Whenever under this Order any person is to be taken in custody or otherwise, for trial or imprisonment, or by way of deportation, or for any other purpose, to the Supreme Court or elsewhere in China or Japan, or to Hong Kong, England, or elsewhere, the Court or other authority by this Order authorized to cause him to be so taken, may for that purpose (if necessary) cause him to be embarked on board one of Her Majesty's vessels of war, or if there is no such vessel available, then on board any British or other fit vessel, at any port or place whether within or beyond the particular jurisdiction or district of that Court or authority, and in order to such embarkment may (if necessary) cause him to be taken, in custody or otherwise, by land or by water, from any place to the port or place of embarkment.

The writ, order, or warrant of the Supreme Court for China and Japan, or of a Provincial Court in China or Japan, or of the Supreme Court of Hong Kong, or the warrant of the Governor or person administering the government of Hong Kong (as the case may be), by virtue whereof any person is to be so taken, shall be sufficient authority to every constable, officer, or other person acting thereunder, and to the commander or master of any vessel of war, or other vessel (whether the constable, officer, or other person, or the vessel, or the commander or master thereof, is named therein or not), to receive, detain, take, and deliver up such person, according to the writ, order, or warrant.

Where the writ, order, or warrant is executed under the immediate direction of the Court or authority issuing it, the writ, order, or warrant shall be delivered to the constable, officer, or other person acting thereunder, and a duplicate thereof shall be delivered to the commander or master of any vessel in which the person to whom the writ, order, or warrant relates is embarked.

Where the writ, order, or warrant issues from the Supreme Court for China and Japan, and is executed by a Provincial Court in China or Japan—and where the writ, order, or warrant issues from the Supreme Court of Hong Kong, and is executed by any of Her Majesty's Courts in China or Japan,—a copy thereof certified under the seal of the Court executing the same shall be delivered to the constable, officer, or other person acting thereunder, and to the commander or master of any vessel in which the person taken is embarked; and any such copy shall be for all purposes conclusive evidence of the Order of which it purports to be a copy.

154. Subject to the other provisions of this Order, all expenses of removal of prisoners and others from or to any place in China or Japan, or from or to Hong Kong, and the expenses of deportation and of the sending of any person to England, shall be defrayed as the expenses relating to distressed British subjects are defrayed, or in such other manner as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State from time to time directs.

155. If any British subject wilfully obstructs by act or threat an officer of a Court in the performance of his duty,—

Or within or close to the room or place where a Court is sitting, wilfully behaves in a violent, threatening, or disrespectful manner, to the disturbance of the Court, or the terror of the suitors or others resorting thereto,—

Or wilfully insults the Judge, Assistant Judge, or Law Secretary of the Supreme Court, or any Consular Officer, or any Juror or Assessor, or any clerk or officer of a Court, during his sitting or attendance in Court, or in going to or returning from Court,—

He shall be liable to be immediately apprehended by order of the Court, and to be detained until the rising of the Court, and further on due inquiry and consideration, to be punished with a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars, or imprisonment for any term not exceeding seven days, at the discretion of the Court, according to the nature and circumstances of the case.

A minute shall be made and kept of every such case of punishment, recording the facts of the offence and the extent of the punishment ; and in the case of a Provincial Court, a copy of such minute shall be forthwith sent to the Judge of the Supreme Court.

156. If any clerk or officer of a Court acting under pretence of the process or authority of the Court is charged with extortion, or with not duly paying any money levied, or with other misconduct, the Court may (without prejudice to any other liability or punishment to which the clerk or officer would in the absence of the present provision be liable) inquire into the charge in a summary way, and for that purpose summon and enforce the attendance of all necessary persons in like manner as the attendance of witnesses and others may be enforced in a suit, and may make such order thereupon for the repayment of any money extorted or for the due payment of any money levied, and for the payment of such damages and costs, as the Court thinks just ; and the Court may also, if it thinks fit, impose such fine upon the clerk or officer, not exceeding fifty dollars for each offence, as seems just.

157. Any suit or proceeding shall not be commenced in any of Her Majesty's Courts in China or Japan or in any Court in Hong Kong against any person for anything done or omitted in pursuance or execution or intended execution of this Order, or of any regulation or rule made under it, unless notice in writing is given by the intending plaintiff or prosecutor to the intended defendant one month at least before the commencement of the suit or proceeding, nor unless it is commenced within three months next after the act or omission complained of, or in case of a continuation of damage within three months next after the doing of such damage has ceased.

The plaintiff in any such suit shall not succeed if tender of sufficient amends is made by the defendant before the commencement thereof; and if no tender is made the defendant may by leave of the Court at any time pay into Court such sum of money as he thinks fit, whereupon such proceeding and order shall be had and made in and by the Court as may be had and made on the payment of money into Court in an ordinary suit.

XX.—HONG KONG.

158. Where a warrant or order of arrest is issued by any of Her Majesty's Courts in China or Japan for the apprehension of a British subject who is charged with having committed a crime or offence within the jurisdiction of the Court issuing the warrant or order, and who is, or is supposed to be, in Hong Kong, and the warrant or order is produced to any of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace in and for Hong Kong, such Justice may back the warrant or order, and the same when so backed shall be sufficient authority to the person to whom the warrant or order was originally directed, and also to any constable or other peace officer in and for Hong Kong, to apprehend the accused in Hong Kong and to carry him to and deliver him up within the jurisdiction of the Court issuing the warrant or order, according to the warrant or order.

159. The Supreme Court of Hong Hong may take cognizance of offences committed by British subjects within the peninsula of Macao, and of suits originating there, when the party offending or the party sued comes or is found within the jurisdiction of that Court; but that Court shall not have power to issue any warrant or writ to be executed or served within that peninsula.

160. Save as expressly provided by this Order, all jurisdiction power and authority of the Supreme Court of Hong Kong exercisable in relation to British subjects resident in or resorting to China or Japan shall, from the commencement of this Order, absolutely cease.

XXI.—REPEALS.

161. From and immediately after the commencement of this Order, the Orders in Council and Consular Ordinances described in the schedule to this Order shall be repealed; but this repeal shall not affect the past operation of any such Order or Ordinance, or any appointment made, or thing done, or right, title, obligation, or liability acquired or accrued thereunder before the commencement of this Order.

XXII.—PENDING PROCEEDINGS.

162. Nothing in this Order or in any rules made under it shall apply to or in any manner affect any suit or proceeding, either of a civil or of a criminal nature, pending at the commencement of this Order, either with reference to the original proceedings therein, or with reference to any appeal therein, or otherwise, subject, nevertheless, to the following provisions and qualifications:—

- (1.) All suits and proceedings, whether of a civil or of a criminal nature, instituted or taken before the commencement of this Order in the district of the Consulate of Shanghai, and pending at the commencement of this Order, are hereby transferred to the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court, and the same may be carried on and shall be tried, heard, and determined in and by the Supreme Court in like manner as nearly as may be in all respects as if the same had been instituted or taken in the district of the Consulate of Shanghai after the commencement of this Order:

- (2.) In any suit or proceeding, whether of a civil or of a criminal nature, the Court before which the same is pending at the commencement of this Order, after hearing the parties, either of its own motion, or on the application of either party, or by consent, may, if it seems fit, from time to time direct that the procedure and practice prescribed by this Order, or by any rule made under it, be followed in any respect.

163. Nothing in this Order shall take away any right of appeal in any suit of a civil nature pending at the commencement of this Order, or interfere with the bringing or prosecution of any appeal in any such suit that might have been brought or prosecuted if this Order had not been made, — or take away or abridge any jurisdiction, power, or authority of any Court, Judge, Officer, or person in relation to any appeal in any such suit, or to the execution or enforcement of any judgment, decree, or order made before or after the commencement of this Order, in or respecting any appeal in any such suit; and, notwithstanding this Order, any appeal in any such suit shall lie and may be brought and prosecuted, and any such judgment, decree, or order may be made, executed, and enforced in like manner and with the like effect and consequences in all respects as if this Order had not been made, subject only to this qualification,—that in case of any appeal which, if this order had not been made, would have lain to or been heard and determined by the Chief Superintendent, or to or by Her Majesty's Consul-General in Japan, the same shall lie to and be heard and determined by the Supreme Court in a like course of procedure as nearly as may be in all respects as if this Order had not been made.

XXIII.—COMMENCEMENT AND PUBLICATION OF ORDER.

164. This Order shall commence and have effect as follows :—

- (1.) As to the making of any warrant or appointment under this Order,—immediately from and after the making of this Order:
- (2.) As to the framing of Rules by the Judge of the Supreme Court and the approval thereof by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State,—immediately from and after the first appointment under this Order of a Judge of the Supreme Court:
- (3.) As to all other matters and provisions comprised in and contained in this Order,—immediately from and after the expiration of one month after this Order is first exhibited in the public office of Her Majesty's Consul at Shanghai ; for which purpose Her Majesty's Consul at Shanghai is hereby required forthwith, on receipt by him of a copy of this Order to affix and exhibit the same conspicuously in his public office, and he is also hereby required to keep the same so affixed and exhibited during one month from the first exhibition thereof ; and of the time of such first exhibition notice shall, as soon thereafter as practicable, be published in every Consular District in China and Japan, in such manner as Her Majesty's Ministers there respectively direct ; and, notwithstanding anything in this Order, the time of the expiration of the said month shall be deemed to be the time of the commencement of this Order.

165. A copy of this Order shall be kept exhibited conspicuously in each Court and Consulate in China and in Japan.

Printed copies shall be provided and sold at such reasonable price as Her Majesty's Minister in China directs.

And the Right Honourable the Earl Russell, and the Right Honourable Edward Cardwell, two of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Edmund Harrison.

And furthermore, We do by these presents give and grant to you, or any three or more of you, full power and authority to nominate and appoint other persons to be Commissioners, and to name and appoint jurors for the said Exhibition :

And Our further will and pleasure is, that for the purpose of aiding you in such matters, We hereby appoint Our Trusty and Well-Beloved Henry Cole, Esquire, Companion of Our Most Honourable Order of the Bath, to be Secretary to this Our Commission :

And Our further will and pleasure is, that you, or any three or more of you, when and so often as need or occasion shall require, so long as this Our Commission shall continue in force, do report to Us, in writing, under your hands and seals respectively, all and every the several proceedings of yourselves had by virtue of these presents :

And lastly, We do by these presents ordain that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue until the close of the said Exhibition, and that you, Our said Commissioners, or any three or more of you, shall and may, from time to time, and at any place or places, proceed in the execution thereof, and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the twenty-seventh day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the twenty-eighth year of Our Reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,
G. Grey.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
May 3, 1865.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the following translation of a joint Austrian and Prussian Provisional Ordinance respecting the Navigation Dues for the Duchies of Schleswig Holstein and Lauenburg:—

PART I.

No. 59.—Provisional Ordinance for the Duchies of Schleswig-Holstein and Lauenburg respecting the Navigation Duties.

We have resolved to make an alteration in the navigation duties; and order as follows:—

SECTION 1.

In the place of tonnage charges, light charges, and charges for clearing ships, and likewise of the buoy and beacon dues for the West Coast, ordered by Letters Patent of July 25, 1845, as well as of the buoy, beacon, and light dues charged on the navigation of the River Stör, the following dues shall be paid by ships; that is to say:—For every commercial last of the goods loaded in and unloaded from such ships, viz.: —

I. For a voyage from one place to another lying within the Duchies and the Principality of Lubeck, also for a voyage between the West Coast of the Duchies and foreign Elbe Ports and Heligoland, as well as for a voyage from and to the open sea for the purpose of fishing — presuming merely the produce of such fishing is brought back—2 schillings* Schleswig-Holstein currency.

II. For a voyage to and from German Ports in the Baltic and North Sea which do not fall under Head I., as far as the Oder and Ems, both rivers included; also for a voyage to and from ports in the Kingdom of Denmark, exclusive, however, of the Danish dependencies and colonies, 4 schillings.

III. For other voyages, 1 mark 4 schillings.

Vessels of unprivileged nations, in so far as they do not come from places out of Europe, shall pay the navigation dues at a 50 per cent. higher rate; likewise Swedish ships importing salt.

This navigation duty shall be paid at every Custom-house, according to the terms of Section 2, for all goods which are loaded or unloaded at such places.

Ship's stores, and other articles used on board a ship for each respective voyage—e.g., coals in steamers and fishing tackle—are, however, not included amongst the articles which have to pay duties.

Section 2.

The quantity of goods, loaded or unloaded, shall be calculated in commercial lasts† in accordance with the stowing regulations; that is to say, the amount of lasts shall in no case be taken as larger than that obtained in measuring the burden of the vessel, and in cases where such amount does not reach the full figure given in the certificate of measurement as the burthen of the vessel (which shall also serve as a guide when it is given in fractions of a last), the number of lasts shall only be calculated according to whole lasts, inasmuch as amounts less than half a commercial last shall not be reckoned at all, and half of a commercial last and above it shall be reckoned as a full commercial last.

* 13 schillings Schleswig-Holstein currency is equal to 12 pence, or 1 shilling sterling.

The deck cargo shall only be taken into consideration when the vessel is not fully stowed below the deck, when in cases in which the navigation duties have to be paid according to different rates, or in which the cargo is partly subject to duty and partly duty free (see Sec. 4), a larger number of lasts is obtained in estimating the quantity of goods in commercial lasts (according to the stowing regulations), than that given in measuring the ship, then the lower navigation duty shall only be applied to the number of lasts which would be obtained by deducting from the amount realized by measuring the burthen of the ship the number of lasts of goods (obtained according to the stowing regulations) in reference to which the rules respecting the navigation duties are most favourable to the Customs' revenue.

When less than half of a commercial last is loaded or unloaded in the same Customs' district on the same voyage, then such circumstance shall be regarded as if no loading or unloading had taken place at all.

Section 3.

When a ship, after having been cleared, but before she has left the Customs' district in which she received such clearance, unloads the whole or a part of her cargo taken in in such Customs' district, in consequence of an alteration in her course, then the navigation duty already paid on leaving for the amount again unloaded shall be repaid.

Moreover, the Customs' authorities shall be authorized, in other cases of alterations in ship's course, after investigating the circumstances, to order the repayment of any amount overpaid for navigation duties.

Section 4.

The following are the exemptions from payment in general of the navigation duties :—

I. In navigating the River Trave, the navigation duty fixed (Art. IV., Sec. 7), of the Treaty with the Free and Hanseatic City of Lubeck on July 8, 1840, shall be paid so long as this Treaty remains in force.

II. Exempt from the duty mentioned in Section 1, III., are on entering such parts of the hold of a ship as are stowed with goods which are intended to be taken directly through the Customs' territory (that is to say, without being provided with transit permits as having given a bond), and on leaving such parts of the ship's hold which is stowed with transit goods, both directly conveyed through the Customs' territory, as well as that charged with transit or bond duty, or which are stowed with wood which has paid duty.

III. Fishing boats shall only pay navigation duties to the amount of one-half of their admeasured burthen, presuming the fish-wells remain in them, and the holes of these wells are not stopped up.

IV. Entirely exempt from navigation duties are :—

(a). The voyage from one place to another within the same Customs' district ; the navigation of the Schlei, of the Kiel-Föhrde, of the Schleswig-Holstein Canal, and the Eider ; the navigation between the Kiel-Föhrde and places on the Schleswig-Holstein Canal and the Eider, and vice versâ ; likewise the navigation of the Stör, and similar inland waters.

(b). The navigation between the west coast of the Duchy of Schleswig, and the Islands and Halligen lying opposite, as well as between the Islands and the Halligen.

(c). That part of the hold of a vessel of the country which is stowed with the following articles, in so far as these are taken off the coast of the Customs' territory ; viz. :—Fish, directly brought home, after having been caught, shells, sands, stones, or sea-weed.

(d). Boats of two commercial lasts burthen, and less, employed on voyages mentioned under Sec. 1, Par. II.

(e). That part of a ship's hold which is stowed with mails, or with travelling carriages or baggage, if the travellers accompany it themselves, or with carriers' goods on routes authorized, which are taken according to rates sanctioned.

(f). Ships stranded on the coasts of the Customs' territory, or having entered on account of contrary winds, ice, damage at sea, or other accidents, or for preserving their cargo, or in search of winter berths, however, on entering or on leaving only, for the stowage of such goods which are exported in the same ship in which they were imported.

(g). Ships-of-war and other Government ships, either of the country or foreign, in so far as they are not used for carrying cargo.

Section 5.

The officers of the Customs shall have the right in every case to make the ship liable for the payment of the navigation duty, in so far, namely, that in cases of collision and stranding, they may also make the goods (which are respectively loaded or unloaded) liable for the same.

Section 6.

This Ordinance shall come into force on the 1st of April of this year. From and after that date, all former regulations which are contradictory to the present Ordinance shall be cancelled.

THE Queen, Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, having been pleased by a Commission under Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual and the Great Seal of the Order, to constitute and appoint The Right Honourable Francis Thomas de Grey, Earl Cowper, Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary, on a Special Mission to this Court. and Sir Charles George Young, Knight, Garter Principal King of Arms, to be Her Majesty's Plenipotentiaries for Investing His Majesty, Christian the Ninth, King of Denmark, with the Ensigns and Habit of that Most Noble Order, they proceeded to this City, and arrived with their respective Suites on the 21st instant.

On the 22nd instant, Earl Cowper was honoured with an audience of His Majesty, at the Royal Palace in the Amalienborg, after which Garter and the Members of their respective Suites were severally presented to His Majesty.

On the 24th instant, Earl Cowper was honoured with an audience of Her Majesty The Queen Dowager, at her Palace in the Amalienborg, after which Garter and the respective Suites were presented by his Lordship.

The requisite arrangements for the Investiture having been made, His Majesty was pleased to appoint Tuesday, the 25th instant, for that purpose, on which day, at two o'clock, the several persons appointed to take part in the Ceremony assembled at the Hotel of Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary, and from thence proceeded to the Royal Palace, in the Amalienborg, in four of the Royal Carriages.

Upon arriving at the Palace, the Mission was received by M. Holten, His Majesty's Gentleman of the Bed-Chamber, and, ascending the Staircase, lined by a detachment of the Royal Horse Guards, was received in the Saloon adjoining the Throne-Room by His Majesty's High Steward, the Chamberlain Lövenskiöld. The arrival of the Mission being announced to the King, and the Ministers having passed into His Majesty's Presence, the Procession advanced into the Royal Presence, with due reverences, in the following manner, the Insignia of the Order being carried on Velvet Cushions :—

George Glynn Petre, Esq.,
 Secretary to the British Legation, carrying the Book of the Statutes.

Lieutenant-Colonel Harvey Tower, carrying the Sword.

The Honourable Evelyn Ashley, carrying the Star of the Order.

Albert William Woods, Esq., Lancaster Herald, in his Tabard and Collar of S.S., bearing The Garter with the Riband and George.

William Courthope, Esq., Somerset Herald,
 Secretary to the Garter Mission, in his Tabard and Collar of S.S., carrying the Sovereign's Commission.

Sir Charles George Young, Knight, Garter
 King of Arms, in his Mantle, Chain, and Badge, bearing his Sceptre and the Sovereign's Letters of Credence.

The Honourable James Stuart Wortley, carrying the Hat and Plume.

James Hamilton, Esq., commonly called Viscount Hamilton, carrying the Collar of the Order.

The Honourable Edward Scott Gifford,
 Secretary to Her Majesty's Envoy
 Extraordinary, bearing the Mantle and Cordon of the Order.

 de Grey, Earl Cowper, Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary, on a Special Mission.

The Gentlemen bearing the Insignia having arranged themselves behind the Plenipotentiaries, the Secretary to the Mission remained near to the Plenipotentiaries, to deliver to them the Insignia.

The First Plenipotentiary, Earl Cowper, then made an Address to His Majesty, declaratory of the object of the Mission, to which His Majesty graciously replied, and expressed his gratification at the reception of the Order; Garter then delivered to his Lordship the Letters of Credence, which his Lordship presented to the King, who placed the same in the hand of Monsieur Quaade, in the absence of the Minister for Foreign Affairs. The Statutes were then in like manner presented to the King, and next the Commission, both of which were delivered by His Majesty to Monsieur de Scheele, Vice-Chancellor of the Order of the Dannebrog, by whom the latter was subsequently returned to Garter.

Garter then taking the Garter, delivered it to Earl Cowper, who buckled the same around His Majesty's left leg; Garter reading the Admonition.

His Majesty was next invested with the Riband and George appendant; Garter reading the Admonition.

The King then delivered his Sword, which Garter received and retained as an ancient Fee appertaining to his office; and His Majesty was invested with the Sword of the Order.

His Majesty being then divested of the Riband and George, which was received by an Officer of the Court, Garter presented to Earl Cowper the Mantle with which His Majesty was invested by the Plenipotentiaries.

His Majesty was in like manner invested with the Collar of the Order; Garter then delivered to Earl Cowper the Hat and Feathers, which were presented by his Lordship to the King, and his Lordship immediately after delivered the Star of the Order to His Majesty.

The ceremony of the Investiture being completed, the Plenipotentiaries, with their respective Suites, making their reverences, withdrew from the Royal Presence.

A Banquet took place in the evening, at which His Royal Highness Prince John of Glucksborg, His Highness the Landgrave of Hesse, the Plenipotentiaries and their Suites, the Ministers of State, and Great Officers of the Court, were present, as also Her Britannic Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of Copenhagen, and the Secretary of the Legation.

The King appeared wearing the Ensigns of the Order of the Garter, and drank to the health of Her Majesty Queen Victoria ; the First Plenipotentiary then drank the health of His Majesty the King of Denmark, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

CHAS. GEO. YOUNG,
Garter.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
May 9, 1865.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Washington, enclosing copies of the following proclamations issued by the President of the United States :

OFFICIAL.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by my Proclamation of the nineteenth and twenty-seventh days of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, the ports of the United States in the States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, and Texas, were declared to be subject blockade ; but whereas the said blockade has, in consequence of actual military occupation by this Government, since been conditionally set aside or relaxed in respect to the ports of Norfolk and Alexandria, in the State of Virginia ; Beaufort, in the State of North Carolina ; Port Royal, in the State of South Carolina ; Pensacola and Fernandina, in the State of Florida, and new Orleans, in the State of Louisiana :

And whereas, by the fourth section of the Act of Congress, approved on the thirteenth of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, entitled "An Act further to provide for the collection of duties on imports and for other purposes," the President, for the reasons therein set forth, is authorised to close certain ports of entry :

Now, therefore, be it known that I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, do hereby proclaim that the ports of Richmond, Tappahannock, Cherrystone, Yorktown and Petersburg, in Virginia ; of Camden (Elizabeth City), Edenton, Plymouth, Washington, Newbern, Ocracoke, and Wilmington, in North Carolina ; of Charleston, Georgetown, and Beaufort, in South Carolina ; of Savannah, St. Mary's, and Brunswick (Darien), in Georgia ; of Mobile, in Alabama ; of Pearl River (Shieldsborough), Natchez, and Vicksburg, in Mississippi ; of St. Augustine, Key West, St. Mark's (Port Leon), St. John's (Jacksonville), and Apalachicola, in Florida ; of Teche (Franklin), in Louisiana ; of Galveston, La Salle, Brazos de Santiago (Point Isabel), and Brownsville, Texas : are hereby closed, and all right of importation, warehouseing, and other privileges, shall, in respect to the ports aforesaid, cease until they shall have again been opened by order of the President ; and if, while said ports are so closed, any ship or vessel from beyond the United States, or having on board any articles subject to duties, shall attempt to enter any such port, the same, together with its tackle, apparel, furniture, and cargo, shall be forfeited to the United States.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this eleventh day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and of the Independence of the United States of America the eighty-ninth.

(L.S.) ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

By the President :

WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

OFFICIAL.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by my Proclamation of this date, the port of Key West, in the State of Florida, was inadvertently included among those which are not open to commerce ;

Now, therefore, be it known that I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, do hereby declare and make known that the said port of Key West is and shall remain open to foreign and domestic commerce upon the same conditions by which that commerce has there hitherto been governed.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this eleventh day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and of the Independence of the United States of America the eighty-ninth.

(L.S.) ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

By the President :

WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

OFFICIAL.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS for some time past vessels of war of the United States have been refused, in certain foreign ports, privileges and immunities to which they were entitled by treaty, public law, or the comity of nations, at the same time that vessels of war of the country wherein the said privileges and immunities have been withheld have enjoyed them fully and uninterruptedly in ports of the United States ; which condition of things has not always been forcibly resisted by the United States, although, on the other hand, they have not at any time failed to protest against and declare their dissatisfaction with the same ; in the view of the United States no condition any longer exists which can be claimed to justify the denial to them by any one of said nations of customary naval rights such as has heretofore been so unnecessarily persisted in ;

Now, therefore, I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, do hereby make known, that if after a reasonable time shall have elapsed for intelligence of this proclamation to have reached any foreign country in whose ports the said privileges and immunities shall have been refused, as aforesaid, they shall continue to be so refused, then and thenceforth the same privileges and immunities shall be refused to the vessels of war of that country in the ports of the United States ; and this refusal shall continue until war vessels of the United States shall have been placed upon an entire equality in the foreign ports aforesaid with similar vessels of other countries. The United States, whatever claim or pretence may have existed heretofore, are now, at least, entitled to claim and concede an entire and friendly equality of rights and hospitalities with all maritime nations.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this eleventh day of April, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and of the Independence of the United States of America the eighty-ninth.

(L.S.) ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled “An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage,” power is given to the Postmaster-General to remit any of the rates of British postage, for the time being, payable by law on the transmission of post letters, newspapers, or other printed papers, to such extent as the Lords of the Treasury shall from time to time direct; and power is also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

And whereas by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled “An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office," further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and power is also given to the Postmaster-General (amongst other things) to collect and receive the foreign and colonial postage charged or chargeable on any letters sent by the post, and also, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to require the postage, British, colonial, or foreign, of any letters sent by the post to be prepaid, either in money or in stamps, as he might think fit, on the same being put into the Post Office, and also, with such consent, to abolish or restrict the prepayment in money of postage on letters sent by the post, either altogether or on certain letters, and to require the prepayment thereof to be in stamps, and also to refuse to receive or send by the post any letters tendered contrary to any regulations thereby made; and power is also given to the Postmaster-General and any officer of the Post Office to detain any letters which should be posted or sent by the post, contrary to the regulations therein mentioned, and to open such letters, and either to return them to the senders thereof, or to forward them to the places of their destination, charged in either case with such rates of postage as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, should from time to time direct.

And whereas, by the laws now in force, seamen and soldiers employed in Her Majesty's service are entitled to certain privileges of sending and receiving by the post letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, subject to certain regulations and restrictions in respect thereof, but letters exceeding half an ounce in weight, sent or received by such privileged persons, are chargeable with the ordinary rates of postage, and it is expedient to remit such ordinary rates of postage in certain cases to the extent hereinafter mentioned, and to make such regulations as are hereinafter contained

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the power or authority in us for such purpose vested in and by the said Act, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant (under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), order and direct as follows ; that is to say:—

1. That on every letter exceeding half an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, posted in or addressed to any part of the United Kingdom, and sent from or to any seaman in Her Majesty's Navy, or any serjeant, corporal, drummer, trumpeter, fifer, or private soldier in Her Majesty's Royal Marines, employed in any of Her Majesty's ships or vessels on any foreign or colonial station, and transmitted by the post between any place in the United Kingdom and any such ships or vessels direct, or through any colony or foreign country (the sea conveyance being by British packet boat), there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of any rates of postage now payable by law on such letters, an uniform British rate of postage of one shilling.

2. That on every letter exceeding half an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, sent from or to any seaman in Her Majesty's Navy, or any serjeant, corporal, drummer, trumpeter, fifer, or private soldier in Her Majesty's Royal Marines, employed in any of Her Majesty's ships or vessels on any foreign or colonial station, and transmitted by the post between any such ships or vessels and any of Her Majesty's ships or vessels on any other foreign or colonial station, through the United Kingdom direct, or through any colony or foreign country (the sea conveyance being by British packet boat), there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of any rates of postage now payable by law on such letters, an uniform British rate of postage of two shillings.

3. That on every letter exceeding half an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, sent from or to any seaman in Her Majesty's Navy, or any serjeant, corporal, drummer, trumpeter, fifer, or private soldier in Her Majesty's Royal Marines, employed in any of Her Majesty's ships or vessels on any foreign or colonial station, and transmitted by the post between any such ships or vessels and any of Her Majesty's colonies or any foreign country, through the United Kingdom direct, or through any colony or foreign country (the sea conveyance between any such ships or vessels and the United Kingdom being by British packet boat), there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of any rates of postage now payable by law on such letters, the rates of British postage following (that is to say):—

For the conveyance of every such letter between Her Majesty's ships or vessels on any such foreign or colonial station, and any part of the United Kingdom, a rate of one shilling; and for the conveyance of every such letter between the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet boat or vessel (not being a packet boat) conveying the same, and the colony or foreign country to or from which the same shall be forwarded, such a further or additional rate of postage as shall from time to time be charged and payable for British postage on letters exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted or delivered at the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet boat or vessel (not being a packet boat) conveying the same, and transmitted direct between such port and any such colony or foreign country.

4. That on every letter transmitted as is mentioned in this Warrant, exceeding one ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid progressive and additional rates of postage as follows (that is to say) :—

On every such letter exceeding one ounce and not exceeding one ounce and a half in weight, one rate and the half of another rate of postage.

On every such letter exceeding one ounce and a half and not exceeding two ounces in weight, two rates of postage.

And for every additional half an ounce in weight above the weight of two ounces, there shall be charged and taken an additional half rate of postage, and every fractional part of such additional half an ounce in weight shall be charged as an additional half an ounce, and each progressive and additional half rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at one half the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding one ounce in weight.

5. That all letters which shall be sent by the post, under the regulations of this Warrant, shall be subject, in addition to the British rates hereby fixed, to the payment of any foreign postage which shall be chargeable thereon.

6. On every letter posted in any part of the United Kingdom for transmission by the post under the authority of this Warrant, addressed to any seaman in Her Majesty's Navy, or to any serjeant, corporal, drummer, trumpeter, fifer, or private soldier in Her Majesty's Royal Marines, employed in any of Her Majesty's ships or vessels on any foreign or colonial station, the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted, either in money or by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps being affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such letter near the address, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon, under or by virtue of this Warrant.

7. On every letter addressed to any part of the United Kingdom and sent for transmission by the post, under the authority of this Warrant, from any seaman in Her Majesty's Navy, or from any serjeant, corporal, drummer, trumpeter, fifer, or private soldier in Her Majesty's Royal Marines, employed in any of Her Majesty's ships or vessels on any colonial station, the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted, by means of the proper postage stamp or stamps being affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such letter near the address, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon, under or by virtue of this Warrant.

8. If any letter shall be posted in any part of the United Kingdom for transmission by the post, under the authority of this Warrant, addressed to any seaman in Her Majesty's Navy, or to any serjeant, corporal, drummer, trumpeter, fifer, or private soldier in Her Majesty's Royal Marines, employed in any of Her Majesty's ships or vessels on any station at any colony to which ordinary unpaid letters may be forwarded without any postage having been paid thereon, either in money or in postage stamps, every such letter shall be forwarded, charged with the amount of postage to which it would have been liable under this Warrant if the postage had been paid when posted, together with a further and additional rate of postage of sixpence.

9. If any letter shall be posted in any part of the United Kingdom for transmission by the post, under the authority of this Warrant, addressed to any seaman in Her Majesty's Navy, or to any serjeant, corporal, drummer, trumpeter, fifer, or private soldier in Her Majesty's Royal Marines, employed in any of Her Majesty's ships or vessels on any station at any colony to which ordinary unpaid letters may be forwarded, and the postage paid thereon, or postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto shall represent a less amount than the rate of postage to which such letter would be liable, under and by virtue of this Warrant, every such last-mentioned letter shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the difference between the postage so paid thereon, or postage stamp or stamps so being thereon or affixed thereto, and the postage to which such letter would be liable as aforesaid, together with a further and additional rate of postage of sixpence.

10. If any letter addressed to any part of the United Kingdom, and sent for transmission by the post under the authority of this Warrant, from any seaman in Her Majesty's Navy, or from any serjeant, corporal, drummer, trumpeter, fifer, or private soldier in Her Majesty's Royal Marines, employed in any of Her Majesty's ships or vessels on any colonial station, shall be posted without any postage having been paid thereon by means of the proper postage stamp or stamps being affixed thereto, every such letter shall be forwarded charged with the amount of postage to which it would have been liable under this Warrant if the postage had been paid when posted together with a further and additional rate of postage of sixpence.

11. If any letter addressed to any part of the United Kingdom and sent for transmission by the post under the authority of this Warrant, from any seaman in Her Majesty's Navy, or from any serjeant, corporal, drummer, trumpeter, fifer, or private soldier in Her Majesty's Royal Marines, employed in any of Her Majesty's ships or vessels on any colonial station, shall be posted, and the postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto shall represent a less amount than the rate of postage to which such letter would be liable under and by virtue of this Warrant, every such last-mentioned letter shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the difference between the value of the postage stamp or stamps so being thereon or affixed thereto, and the postage to which such letter would be liable as aforesaid, together with a further and additional rate of postage of sixpence.

12. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

13. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, and conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

14. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the fourth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

INVESTITURE OF HIS MOST FAITHFUL MAJESTY LOUIS, KING OF PORTU-GAL, WITH THE ENSIGNS AND HABIT OF THE MOST NOBLE ORDER OF THE GARTER.

Lisbon, May 4, 1865.

THE Queen, Sovereign of the Most Noble
Order of the Garter, having been pleased by a Commission under Her Majesty's Sign Manual and the Great Seal of the Order to constitute and appoint the Right Honourable William Philip, Earl of Sefton, Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary on a Special Mission to this Court, and Sir Charles George Young, Knight, Garter Principal King of Arms, or his Deputy for this occasion, Walter Aston Blount, Esquire, Norroy King of Arms, to be Her Majesty's Plenipotentiaries for Investing His Most Faithful Majesty Louis, King of Portugal, with the Ensigns and Habit of the Order of the Garter.

The Earl of Sefton and Deputy Garter embarked at Portsmouth, on the 17th of April last, on board Her Majesty's ship "Edgar," together with their respective Suites, for this City, and landed on the 22nd.

On the 24th, the Earl of Sefton was honoured with an audience of His Most Faithful Majesty at the Palace of the Ajuda, at which Deputy Garter and the Members of their respective Suites were severally presented to His Majesty.

On the 2nd of May, the Earl of Sefton, Deputy Garter, and the Members of their respective Suites, had the honour of being presented to His Majesty the King Don Ferdinand, at the Palace of the Necessidades.

The requisite arrangements for the Investiture having been made, His Majesty was pleased to appoint Thursday, the 4th instant, for that purpose, on which day, at half-past ten o'clock, the several persons appointed to take part in the ceremony assembled at the Residence of the Earl of Sefton, and from thence proceeded to the Royal Palace of the Ajuda, in four of the Royal State Carriages, under an Escort of Lancers.

On arriving at the Palace, the Mission was received by a Guard of Honour, and, advancing through the Hall, was met by the Marquis de Bemposta Suberra, Introducer of Ambassadors, and the Duke de Palmella (Archerio-Mör), and conducted to a Saloon of the Palace, where the Procession was formed, and passed through an Ante-Chamber into the Royal Presence, with due reverences, in the following manner; the Insignia of the Order being carried on Velvet Cushions:—

carrying the Mantle of the Order.

Rear-Admiral Sydney Colpoys Dacres, K.C.B., carrying the Sword of the Order.

George Edward Adams, Esq.,

Rouge Dragon Pursuivant of Arms, in his Tabard, carrying the Garter with the Riband and George.

James Robinson Planché, Esq., Rouge Croix
Pursuivant of Arms, Secretary to the Garter Mission, in his Tabard, carrying The Sovereign's Commission.

Walter Aston Blount, Esq., Deputy Garter, in the Mantle, Chain, and Badge, and bearing the Sceptre of Garter, carrying The Sovereign's Letters of Credence.

Colonel Dudley Wilton Carleton,
carrying the Hat and Plume.

Major-General Lord Henry Percy, carrying the Collar and Star of the Order.

Charles Stuart Aubrey Abbott, Esq.,
Secretary to Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary, carrying the Book of the Statutes.

The Right Honourable William Philip,
Earl of Sefton, Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary on a Special Mission.

The Mission was received by His Most Faithful Majesty, standing in front of the Throne, and surrounded by the Ministers of State and the Great Officers of the Court. The Gentlemen bearing the Insignia divided to the right and left, the Plenipotentiaries advancing between them and passing to the right of the Throne, the Secretary to the Mission remaining near to the Plenipotentiaries to deliver to them the Insignia.

The First Plenipotentiary, The Earl of Sefton, then made an address to His Majesty, declaratory of the object of the Mission, to which His Majesty made a most gracious reply; Deputy Garter then delivered to his Lordship the Letters of Credence, which his Lordship presented to The King, who delivered them to The Count D'Avila, Minister for Foreign Affairs. The Statutes were then in like manner presented to The King, and next the Commission, which latter was subsequently returned to The Secretary. Deputy Garter then taking the Garter, delivered it to The Earl of Sefton, who buckled the same round His Majesty's left leg; Deputy Garter reading the Admonition.

His Majesty was next invested with the Riband and George appendant; Deputy Garter reading the Admonition.

The King then delivered His Sword, which Deputy Garter received and retained as an ancient fee appertaining to the office of Garter, and His Majesty was invested with the Sword of the Order.

His Majesty being then divested of the Riband and George, which was received by an Officer of the Court, Deputy Garter presented to the Earl of Sefton the Mantle with which His Majesty was invested by the Plenipotentiaries.

His Majesty was in like manner invested with the Collar of the Order; Deputy Garter then delivered to the Earl of Sefton the Hat and Plume, which was presented by his Lordship to the King, and immediately afterwards the Star of the Order, which was in like manner presented to His Majesty

The ceremony of Investiture being completed, the Plenipotentiaries, with their respective Suites, making their reverences, withdrew from the Royal Presence.

There was present during the Investiture Her Majesty The Queen ; The King Don Ferdinand ; The Infant Don Augusto ; The Count D'Avila, Prime Minister and Minister for Foreign Affairs ; The Marquis de Sa da Bandeira, Minister of War ; Senhor Don Julio Gomez da Silvia Sanchez, Minister of the Interior ; Senhor Don Carlos Bento da Silva, Minister of Public Works ; The Duke de Palmella ; D. Manuel de Camara, Chamberlain to the King ; The Marquis de Ficalho, Chamberlain to the King ; Count de Valde Reiz, Chamberlain to Her Majesty the Queen ; General Feliciano da Cortas, First Aide-de-Camp to His Majesty ; General Caula, Aide-de-Camp to His Majesty ; Lieutenant-General Count de Campanhaa, Aide-de-Camp to the King Don Ferdinand ; The Marquis de Fronteira ; The Count da Ponte, Grand Master of the Household ; The Marquis de Bemposta Suberra, Introducer of Ambassadors, and other Officers of the Household ; The Councillors of State ; Sir Arthur Charles Magenis, K.C.B., Her Britannic Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of Lisbon ; William Smith, Esq., the British Consul ; The Foreign Ministers at the Court of Lisbon, and other Distinguished Personages ; also the Principal Officers of Her Britannic Majesty's Squadron in the Tagus.

A Banquet took place at the Ajuda Palace in the evening, at which were present The King, wearing the Ensigns of the Order of the Garter, His Majesty King Don Ferdinand, The Infant Don Augusto, The Plenipotentiaries and their Suites, The Ministers of State and Great Officers of the Court, The British Minister, Admiral Sir George Rose Sartorius, K.C.B., Rear-Admiral Sydney Colpoys Dacres, K.C.B., Rear-Admiral Frederick Warden, C.B., and the Captains of Her Britannic Majesty's Squadron in the Tagus.

WALTER ASTON BLOUNT, Norroy,
Deputy Garter.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 19, 1865.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the State Apartments of Windsor Castle will be opened to the public on and after Monday, the 29th instant, under the usual regulations.

At the Court at Windsor, May 17, 1865.

The Queen, as Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, hath been graciously pleased, by Letters Patent under Her Royal Sign Manual and the Great Seal of the Order, bearing date this day, to dispense with all the statutes and regulations usually observed in regard to Installation, and to grant unto His Most Faithful Majesty Louis, King of Portugal, Knight of the said Most Noble Order, and duly invested with the Ensigns thereof, full power and authority to exercise all rights and privileges belonging to a Knight Companion of the said Most Noble Order of the Garter, in as full and ample a manner as if His Majesty had been formally installed, any decree, rule, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

At the Court at Windsor, May 17, 1865.

The Queen, as Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, hath been graciously pleased, by Letters Patent under Her Royal Sign Manual and the Great Seal of the Order, bearing date this day, to dispense with all the statutes and regulations usually observed in regard to Installation, and to grant unto His Majesty Christian the IX., King of Denmark, Knight of the said Most Noble Order, and duly invested with the Ensigns thereof, full power and authority to exercise all rights and privileges belonging to a Knight Companion of the said Most Noble Order of the Garter, in as full and ample a manner as if His Majesty had been formally installed, any decree, rule, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Foreign Office, May 18, 1865.

*Foreign Office,
May 11, 1865.*

MY LORDS,

I HAVE the honour to acquaint you, that, in the existing state of the civil war in America, and the uncertainty which may be felt as to its continuance, it appears to Her Majesty's Government that the time has arrived for ceasing to enforce so much of the orders, which, in pursuance of my letter of the 31st of January, 1862, were issued by the several departments of Her Majesty's Government, as empowered the authorities of any Port belonging to Her Majesty, either in the United Kingdom or in the Channel Islands, or in any of Her Majesty's colonies or foreign possessions or dependencies, to require any ship of war or privateer of either belligerent which might enter any port, roadstead, or waters belonging to Her Majesty, in order to obtain provisions or things necessary for the subsistence of her crew, or to effect repairs, to put to sea as soon as possible after the expiration of a period of twenty-four hours, without permitting her to take in supplies beyond what might be necessary for her immediate use; and not to suffer any such vessel as might have been allowed to remain within British waters for the purpose of repair to continue in any port, roadstead, or waters belonging to Her Majesty, for a longer period than twenty-four hours after her necessary repairs should have been completed; and also so much of the same orders as limited the quantity of coal and the period within which it might be obtained, to be embarked on board any such ship of war or privateer of either belligerent.

I have addressed a similar letter to the Secretaries of State for the Home, Colonial, War, and India Departments, and to the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

(Signed) RUSSELL.

NOTE.—A similar letter has been addressed to the Secretaries of State for the Home, Colonial, War, and India Departments, and to the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

At the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of
May, 1865,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Her Majesty in Council was this day pleased, on a representation of the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education, to appoint the Reverend David Thomas, Vicar of Dwygyfylchi, Carnarvonshire, M.A., to be one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools.

Arthur Helps.

At the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of
May, 1865,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by the Foreign Deserters' Act, 1852, it is provided that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that due facilities are or will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British merchant ships, in the territories of any foreign power, Her Majesty may by Order in Council, stating that such facilities are or will be given, declare that seamen, not being slaves, who desert from merchant ships belonging to a subject of such power when within Her Majesty's dominions, shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships, and may limit the operation of such Order, and may render the operation thereof subject to such conditions and qualifications (if any) as may be deemed expedient :

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty, that due facilities will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen, not being Turkish subjects, who desert from British merchant ships in the territories of the Sublime Porte :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said Foreign Deserters' Act, 1852, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that from and after the publication hereof in the London Gazette, seamen not being slaves, and not being British subjects, who desert from merchant ships belonging to subjects of the Sublime Porte within Her Majesty's dominions, shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships; provided always, that if any such deserter has committed any crime in Her Majesty's dominions, he may be detained until he has been tried by a competent Court, and until his sentence (if any) has been fully carried into effect.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, the Secretary of State for the Colonies, and the Secretary of State for India in Council, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Arthur Helps.

At the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of
May, 1865.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council was pleased to order that the dues to be paid in respect of a light-vessel on the Little Basses Rock, in the colony of Ceylon, for every ship which derives benefit therefrom, except ships belonging to Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, shall be one penny per ton of the burthen of every such ship.

At the Court at Wind:or, the 18th day of
May, 1865.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council was pleased to approve and ratify a representation of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England for altering the boundaries of the chapelry district of Tansley, in the county of Derby, and in the diocese of Lichfield, called "The Chapelry District of Tansley."

Also, a scheme, duly prepared by the said Commissioners, for constituting a separate district, for spiritual purposes, out of the parish of Long Benton, in the county of Northumberland, and in the diocese of Durham, to be named "The District of Killingworth."

Also, a scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parochial chapelry of Gosforth, in the parish of Saint Nicholas, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in the county of the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and in the diocese of Durham, and out of the parish of Long Benton, in the county of Northumberland, and in the said diocese of Durham, to be named "The District of North Gosforth."

Also, a representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate at Willaston, in the parish of Neston, in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester, to be named "The District Chapelry of Willaston."

Also, a representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint George, situate at Mossley, in the parish of Ashton-under-Lyne, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, to be named "The District Chapelry of Saint George, Mossley."

At the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of
May, 1865.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council was pleased to order that the Local Board of Health for the District of March, in the county of Cambridge, shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board, in accordance with the provisions of the Act intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," passed in the Session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign.

(526.)

Board of Trade, Whitehall,
May 18, 1865.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of an Act of the United States' Congress amending certain Acts relating to Customs Duties, and of which the following are the principal provisions:—

SEC. 1.—Second. On all manufactures of cotton (except jeans, denims, drillings, bed tickings, gingham, plaids, cottonades, pantaloons, stuff, and goods of like description,) not bleached, colored, stained, painted, or printed, and not exceeding one hundred threads to the square inch, counting the warp and filling, and exceeding in weight five ounces per square yard, five cents per square yard, and in addition thereto, if coloured, stained, painted, or printed, five cents and a half per square yard, and, in addition thereto, ten per centum ad valorem. On finer and lighter goods of like description, not exceeding two hundred threads to the square inch, counting the warp and filling, unbleached, five cents per square yard ; if bleached, five and a half cents per square yard ; if coloured, stained, painted, or printed, five and a half cents per square yard, and in addition thereto, twenty per centum ad valorem. On goods of like description, exceeding two hundred threads to the square inch, counting the warp and filling, unbleached, five cents per square yard ; if bleached, five and a half cents per square yard ; if coloured, stained, painted, or printed, five and a half cents per square yard, and, in addition thereto, twenty per centum ad valorem.

Third. On all cotton-jeans, denims, drillings, bed tickings, gingham, plaids, cottonades, pantaloons, stuffs, and goods of like description, or for similar use if unbleached, and not exceeding one hundred threads to the square inch, counting the warp and filling, and exceeding five ounces to the square yard, six cents per square yard ; if bleached, six cents and a half per square yard ; if coloured, stained, painted, or printed, six cents and a half per square yard ; and in addition thereto, ten per centum ad valorem. On finer or lighter goods of like description, not exceeding two hundred threads to the square inch, counting the warp and filling, if unbleached, six cents per square yard ; if bleached, six and a half cents per square yard ; if coloured, stained, painted, or printed, six and a half cents per square yard ; and in addition thereto fifteen per centum ad valorem. On goods of lighter description, exceeding two hundred threads to the square inch, counting the warp and filling if unbleached, seven cents per square yard ; if bleached seven and a half cents per square yard ; if coloured, stained, painted, or printed, seven and a half cents per square yard ; and, in addition thereto, fifteen per centum ad valorem : Provided, that upon all plain woven cotton goods, not included in the foregoing schedule, unbleached, valued at 'over sixteen cents per square yard, bleached, valued at over twenty cents per square yard, coloured, valued at over twenty-five cents per square yard, and cotton jeans, denims, and drillings, unbleached, valued at over twenty cents per square yard ; and all other cotton goods of every description, the value of which shall exceed twenty-five cents per square yard, there shall be levied, collected, and paid a duty of thirty-five per centum ad valorem : And, provided further, that no cotton goods having more than two hundred threads to the square inch, counting the warp and filling, shall be admitted to a less rate of duty than is provided for goods which are of that number of threads.

Fourth. On spool thread of cotton, six cents per dozen spools, containing on each spool not exceeding one hundred yards of thread, and in addition thereto, thirty per centum ad valorem ; exceeding one hundred yards, for every additional hundred yards of thread on each spool, a fractional part thereof in excess of one hundred yards, six cents per dozen, and thirty-five per centum ad valorem. On cotton thread or yarn, when advanced beyond single yarn, by twisting two or more strands together, if not wound upon spools four (4) cents per skein, or hank of eight hundred and forty (840) yards ; and thirty per centum ad valorem.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, that from and after the day when this Act takes effect, in addition to the duties heretofore imposed by law on the importation of the articles mentioned in this section, there shall be levied, collected, and paid the following duties and rates of duty, that is to say :

On brandy, rum, gin, and whiskey, and on cordials, liquors, arrack, absynthe, and all other spirituous liquors and spirituous beverages, fifty cents per gallon of first proof, and less strength, and shall be increased in proportion for any greater strength that [than] the strength of first proof.

On spun silk for filing, in skins or cops, ten per centum ad valorem.

On iron bars for railroads or inclined planes, ten cents per one hundred pounds.

On wrought iron tubes one cent per pound.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, that from and after this Act takes effect, in lieu of the duties heretofore imposed by law on the importation of the articles mentioned in this section, there shall be levied, collected, and paid the following duties and rates of duty, that is to say:

On cotton, five cents per pound.

On illuminating oil and naphtha, benzine, and benzole, refined or produced from the distillation of coal, asphaltum, shale, peat, petroleum, or rock oil, or other bituminous substances used for like purposes, forty cents per gallon.

On crude petroleum or rock oil, twenty cents per gallon.

On crude coal oil, fifteen cents per gallon.

On tobacco stems, fifteen cents per pound.

On ready made clothing of silk, or of which silk shall be a component material of chief value, sixty per centum ad valorem.

On quicksilver, fifteen per centum ad valorem.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, that section fifteen of an Act entitled "An Act increasing, temporarily, the duties on imports, and for other purposes," approved July fourteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, be, and the same hereby is, amended so as to impose a tax or tonnage duty of thirty cents per ton in lieu of "ten cents," as therein mentioned: Provided, that the receipts of vessels paying tonnage duty shall not be subject to the tax provided in section one hundred and three of "An Act to provide internal revenue to support the government, to pay interest on the public debt, and for other purposes," approved June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, nor by any Act admendatory thereof: Provided, further, that no ship, vessel, or steamer having a license to trade between different districts of the United States, or to carry on the bank, whale, or other fisheries, or any ship, vessel, or steamer to or from any port or place in Mexico, the British provinces of North America, or any of the West India Islands, or in all these trades, shall be required to pay the tonnage duties contemplated by this Act more than once a year.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, that the term "statuary," as used in the laws now in force, imposing duties on foreign importations, shall be understood to include professional productions of a statuary, or of a sculptor only.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, that there shall be hereafter collected and paid on all goods, wares, and merchandise of the growth or produce of countries of the Cape of Good Hope (except raw cotton and raw silk as reeled from the cocoon, or not further advanced than tram, thrown, or organzine), when imported from places west of the Cape of Good Hope, a duty of ten per centum ad valorem, in addition to the duties imposed on any such article when imported directly from the place or places of their growth or production.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, that in all cases where there is, or shall be imposed any ad valorem rate of duty on any goods, wares, or merchandise, imported into the United States, and in all cases where the duty imposed by law shall be regulated by, or directed to be estimated or based upon the value of the square yard, or of any specified quantity or parcel of such goods, wares, or merchandise, it shall be the duty of the collector within whose district the same shall be imported or entered, to cause the actual market value or wholesale price thereof, at the period of the exportation to the United States, in the principal markets of the country from which the same shall have been imported into the United States, to be appraised, and such appraised value shall be considered the value upon which duty shall be assessed. That it shall be lawful for the owner, consignee, or agent of any goods, wares, or merchandise, which shall have been actually purchased or procured otherwise than by purchase, at the time and not afterwards, when he shall produce his original invoice or invoices to the collector and make and verify his written entry of his goods, wares, or merchandise, as provided by section thirty-six of the Act of March two, seventeen hundred and ninety-nine, entitled "An Act to regulate the collection of duties on imports and tonnage," to make such addition in the entry to the cost or value given in the invoice as in his opinion may raise the same to the actual market value or wholesale price of such goods, wares, or merchandise, at the period of exportation to the United States, in the principal markets of the country from which the same shall have been imported, and it shall be the duty of the collector within whose district the same may be imported or entered, to cause such actual market value or wholesale price to be appraised in accordance with the provisions of existing laws, and if such appraised value shall exceed, by ten per centum or more, the value so declared in the entry, then, in addition to the duties imposed by law on the same, there shall be levied, collected, and paid a duty of twenty per centum ad valorem on such appraised value: Provided, that the duty shall not be assessed upon an amount less than the invoice or entered value, any Act of Congress to the contrary notwithstanding: And provided further, that the sections twenty-third and twenty-fourth of the Act approved June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, entitled "An Act to increase duties on imports, and for other purposes," and all Acts and parts of Acts requiring duties to be assessed upon commissions, brokerage, cost of transportation, shipment, trans-shipment, and other like costs and charges incurred in placing any goods, wares, or merchandise on shipboard, and all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, that so much of an Act entitled "An Act to authorize protection to be given to citizens of the United States who may discover deposits of Guano," approved August eighteen, eighteen hundred and fifty-six, as prohibits the export thereof, is hereby suspended in relation to all persons who have complied with the provisions of section second of said Act, for two years from and after July fourteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-five.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, that this Act shall take effect on and after the first day of April, eighteen hundred and sixty-five.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, that so much of sections thirty-nine, forty, forty-one, forty-two, forty-three, and forty-four of the Act entitled "An Act to regulate the [collection of] duties on imports and tonnage," approved March second, seventeen hundred and ninety-nine, as requires the branding or marking, and certifying of casks, chests, vessels, and cases containing distilled spirits or teas, be, and the same is hereby revived, to be executed under such rules and regulations as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, that flax and hemp machinery and steam agricultural machinery, as designated in section twenty-one of the Act "to increase duties on imports, and for other purposes," approved June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, may be imported free from duty for one year from the passage of this Act.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, that in all proceedings brought by the United States in any Court for due recovery as well of duties upon imports alone, as of penalties for the non-payment thereof, the judgment shall recite that the same is rendered for duties, and such judgment, interest, and costs shall be payable in the coin by law receivable for duties, and the execution issued on such judgment shall set forth that the recovery is for duties, and shall require the marshal to satisfy the same in the coin by law receivable for duties, and in case of levy upon, and sale of the property of, the judgment debtor, the marshal shall refuse payment from any purchaser at such sale in any other money than that specified in the execution.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, that the eighth section of the Act of March twenty-third, eighteen hundred and fifty-four, "to extend the warehousing system by establishing private bonded warehouses, and for other purposes," which authorized the Secretary of the Treasury, in case of the actual injury or destruction of goods, wares, or merchandisc by accidental fire, or other casualty, while in warehouse under bond, &c., to abate or refund the duties paid or accruing thereon, be extended so as to include goods, wares, or merchandise injured or destroyed in like manner, while in the custody of the officers of the customs, and not in bond, and also to goods, wares, and merchandise so injured or destroyed after their arrival within the limits of any port of entry of the United States, and before the same have been bonded under the suspension [supervision] of the officers of the customs: Provided that this Act shall apply only to cases arising from and after its passage, and to cases where the duties have not already been paid.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of MAY 23,
1865.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of
May, 1865.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council was pleased to order upon the representation of the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that burials be forthwith discontinued in the Friends' Burial-ground at Hammersmith.

Also that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parish without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parish shall be discontinued (except as is herein otherwise directed), as follows, viz.:

TUNSTALL, WOLSTANTON.—In the churchyard, on the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, except in existing vaults and walled graves which are free from water, and in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal and separately enclosed by brickwork or stone properly cemented. In the meantime the conditions under which burials are allowed in the churchyard by Order in Council of twenty-first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, are to be observed.

At the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of
May, 1865.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council was pleased to order that the churchwardens of the parish of St. Pancras do adopt, or cause to be adopted, the following measures, in the undermentioned burial-ground, viz:—

That the entire surface of the WHITFIELD CHAPEL BURIAL-GROUND, Tottenham Court-road, in the parish of St. Pancras, excepting such portion as may be occupied by paths or by the covering of vaults, or by gravestones, or monuments above the present level, respectively, be properly levelled and covered with fresh earth, on which a living vegetation shall be hereafter maintained, and that where necessary such paths be raised; and that the feneing be repaired and maintained in proper order; and that the churchwardens, or any persons employed by them, shall, at all reasonable times, have free access to the said burial-ground from the public road, for the purpose of exeeuting the works hereby directed to be done, and for maintaining hereafter such living vegetation and fencing.

Also that the time for the diseontinuance of burials in the under-mentioned ehurehyards and burial-grounds be postponed as follows, viz.:

In Saint John's Churehyard, and in the Methodist New Connexion Chapelyard, Dukinfield, to the first of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six. In the Churchyard, and in the Independent Chapel Burial-ground, Chipping Ongar, to the thirtieth of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

And whereas by an Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, burials were, with certain exeptions, directed to be diseontinued in the Parish Churehyard, in the Independent Burial-ground, in Saint John's Churchyard, and in Saint James's Churehyard, Wednesbury; and whereas it seems fit that the said Order be varied:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the adviee of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order of the twenty-fourth of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, be varied by the substitution, in the fifth and sixth, and in the eighteenth, nineteenth, and twentieth lines of that portion of the Order relating to burials in Wednesbury, of the words, "except in vaults and walled graves which can be formed and opened without," instead of the words "except in now existing vaults and walled graves which can be opened without."

At the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of
May, 1865.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council was pleased to order that the representation of the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes of Batcombe, Brize Norton, and Hounslow, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that interments in the same should be discontinued, with the following modifications, viz.:

BATCOMBE, SOMERSET.—Forthwith, in the church (reserving, however, to Mrs. Ernst the right of burial for herself only in her family vault), and in the churchyard, except in now existing vaults and walled graves in which each coffin shall be separately enclosed by stone or brickwork, properly cemented, and, except in earthen graves which can be opened to the depth of four and a half feet without exposing coffins or disturbing remains. BRIZE NORTON. — In the church, forthwith, and in the churchyard from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six. HOUNSLOW. — Wholly, forthwith, in the church and also in the churchyard, from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, except in then existing vaults and walled graves, and in family earthen graves which can be opened at least five feet deep without exposing coffins or disturbing remains, and, in the meantime, no vault or walled grave to be made except in ground not previously used for burial; and all coffins buried in vaults or walled graves to be embedded in charcoal and separately enclosed by brick or stonework properly cemented. BERKELEY.—In the old part of the churchyard, on the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately entombed in brick or stonework, properly cemented.

should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the third day of July next.

Windsor Castle, May 18, 1865.

The Queen was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood upon Montague Edward Smith, Esq., one of the Justices of the Court of Common Pleas.

Windsor Castle, May 18, 1865.

Foreign Office, May 19, 1865.

The Queen has been pleased to approve of M. Eduard Chrestien as Consul at Akyab for the Free Hanseatic City of Hamburgh.

Downing Street, May 20, 1865.

The Queen has been pleased to ratify and confirm the appointment of Edward Jordon, Esq.,

C.B., to be a Member of the Privy Council of the Island of Jamaica.

Her Majesty has also been pleased to appoint Edward Jordon, Esq., C.B., to be Secretary for the Island and Secretary to the Governor, and Hugh Williams Austin, Esq., to be Receiver-General, for the Island of Jamaica; Edward Hutchinson Pollard, Esq., to be one of Her Majesty's Counsel for the Colony of Hong Kong; and Horace Watts, Esq., M.D., to be Colonial Surgeon for the Falkland Islands.

ANNEXÉ to the Treaty of Commerce concluded between France and the United Kingdoms of Sweden and Norway.

DUTIES ON IMPORTS INTO NORWAY.

THE conversion into French units of the monies, weights, and measures of Sweden and Norway, although intended to facilitate commercial operations, has not an official character. They are established upon the following bases :—

FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE of MAY 30,
1865.

Whitehall, May 29, 1865.

THE following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by Robert Montgomery, Lord Belhaven, K.T., Her Majesty's Commissioner, to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to the Queen, which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:—

To Her Most Gracious Majesty QUEEN VICTORIA.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, convened in the General Assembly, have received with the most lively sentiments of respect and gratitude the gracious letter conveying your Majesty's satisfaction at the prospect of the annual meeting of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, and the renewal of your Majesty's assurance of your sanction and protection.

We feel grateful for your Majesty's confidence in our loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's person and Government, and we humbly trust that, through Divine Grace, our deliberations may be guided by a spirit of enlightened wisdom and christian charity, and that all our proceedings may be marked by an earnest desire to promote the best interests of the people committed to our charge.

We hail with satisfaction the re-appointment of Robert Montgomery, Lord Belhaven, Knight of the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle, as the representative of your Majesty's person in this General Assembly, a nobleman who from his prudence and courtesy, as well as his long personal and hereditary connection with, and bountiful liberality to, the Church of Scotland, cannot fail to be acceptable to us in executing the trust committed to his care.

The Royal Donation of two thousand pounds for the reformation of the Highlands and Islands we receive with unfeigned thankfulness, and we assure your Majesty that no effort shall be wanting on our part, by a faithful application of it, to accomplish the pious and benevolent purpose for which it has been bestowed.

That the God and Father of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, the Supreme King and Head of the Church, may enrich your Majesty with all temporal and spiritual blessings, that He may bless the Prince and Princess of Wales and all the Members of the Royal Family, and that, after a long and prosperous reign, you may receive the recompense of an heavenly Crown, are the sincere prayers of,

May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, obedient, and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders in this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by

J. Macfarlane, D.D., Moderator.

Edinburgh, May 20, 1865.

War Office, May 30, 1865.

FROM THE SUPPLEMENT

TO THE

LONDON GAZETTE of JUNE 2,
1865.

Marlborough House, June 3, 1865.

THIS morning, at eighteen minutes past one o'clock, Her Royal Highness The Princess of Wales was happily delivered of a Prince.

His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, the Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, and the Lady of Her Royal Highness's Bedchamber, were in attendance. The Secretary of State for the Home Department arrived at Marlborough House immediately after.

Her Royal Highness and the infant Prince, God be praised, are doing perfectly well.

This happy event was made known by the firing of the Park and Tower Guns.

FROM THE
LONDON GAZETTE of JUNE 6, 1865.

Foreign Office, June 6, 1865.

COPY of a Letter from Earl Russell to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty :—

MY LORDS, Foreign Office, June 2, 1865.

I HAVE the honour to state to your Lordships, that since the date of my letter of the 11th ultimo, intelligence has reached this country that the late President of the so-called Confederate States has been captured by the military forces of the United States, and has been transported as a prisoner to Fort Monroe, and that the armies hitherto kept in the field by the Confederate States, have for the most part surrendered or dispersed.

In this posture of affairs Her Majesty's Government are of opinion that neutral nations cannot but consider the civil war in North America as at an end.

In conformity with this opinion, Her Majesty's Government recognize that peace has been restored within the whole territory of which the United States of North America before the commencement of the civil war were in undisturbed possession.

As a necessary consequence of such recognition on the part of Her Majesty's Government, Her Majesty's several authorities in all ports, harbours, and waters belonging to Her Majesty, whether in the United Kingdom or beyond the seas, must henceforth refuse permission to any vessel of war carrying a Confederate flag to enter any such ports, harbours, and waters; and must require any Confederate vessels of war which, at the time when these orders reach Her Majesty's authorities in such ports, harbours, and waters may have already entered therein on the faith of Proclamations heretofore issued by Her Majesty, and which, having complied with the provisions of such Proclamations, may be actually within such ports, harbours, and waters, forthwith to depart from them.

But Her Majesty's Government consider that a due regard for national good faith and honour requires that Her Majesty's authorities should be instructed, as regards any such Confederate vessels so departing, that they should have the benefit of the prohibition heretofore enforced against pursuit of them within twenty-four hours by a cruizer of the United States lying at the time within any such ports, harbours, and waters, and that such prohibition should be then and for the last time maintained in their favour.

If, however, the Commander of any Confederate vessel of war which may be found in any port, harbour, or waters of Her Majesty's dominions at the time these new orders are received by Her Majesty's authorities, or may enter such port, harbour, or waters, within a month after these new orders are received, should wish to divest his vessel of her warlike character, and, after disarming her, to remain without a Confederate flag within British waters, Her Majesty's authorities may allow the Commander of such vessel to do so at his own risk in all respects, in which case he should be distinctly apprised that he is to expect no further protection from Her Majesty's Government, except such as he may be entitled to in the ordinary course of the administration of the law in time of peace.

The rule as to twenty-four hours would of course not be applicable to the case of such vessel.

I have addressed a similar letter to the Secretaries of State for the Home, Colonial, India, and War Offices, and also to the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, requesting them, as I do your Lordships, to issue instructions in conformity with the decision of Her Majesty's Government to the several British authorities at home or abroad who may be called upon to act in the matter.

I am, &c.,
(Signed) RUSSELL.

NOTE.—A similar letter was addressed to the Secretaries of State for the Home, Colonial, War, and India Departments, and to the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Westminster, June 2, 1865.

This day the Lords being met a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorized by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by Her Majesty, for declaring Her Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, and at any time after the passing of that Act, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office."

And whereas, by a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the 19th day of September, 1855, certain rates of packet postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable upon letters transmitted by the post direct by British packet boat between any ports in the British colonies or between any ports in the British colonies and any foreign port (not in any such cases passing through the United Kingdom), and it is expedient to alter certain of the said rates on certain letters transmitted as hereinafter mentioned, and to fix certain other rates in lieu thereof as are hereinafter contained.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers vested in us in and by the said recited Acts, and each of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant (under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided) order and direct as follows :—

1. That on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight transmitted by the post direct by British packet boat, or partly by British packet boat and partly by French packet boat, between any port in the Cape of Good Hope, Natal, Saint Helena, Ascension, or the Mauritius, and any port in the East Indies, China, or Australia, or between any port in Australia, and any port in the East Indies or China (not in any such cases passing through the United Kingdom), there shall be charged and taken a packet rate of postage of ten pence.

2. That on every letter, transmitted as is mentioned in this Warrant, exceeding half an ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, progressive and additional rates of postage as follows (that is to say) :

On every such letter exceeding half an ounce in weight and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage ;

On every such letter exceeding one ounce and not exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce in weight, three rates of postage ;

On every such letter exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage ;

And for every half of an ounce in weight above the weight of two ounces, there shall be charged and taken one additional rate of postage, and every fraction of half an ounce above the weight of two ounces shall be charged as one additional half of an ounce, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

3. That the rates of postage chargeable on such letters as aforesaid, for the sea conveyance thereof, shall be charged in addition to any inland colonial rates that may be payable thereon.

4. That nothing in this Warrant contained shall in anywise alter, prejudice, or affect the exemptions and privileges granted by the said recited Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, nor in anywise prejudice or affect the privilege which officers, seamen, and soldiers employed in Her Majesty's service now by law enjoy of sending and receiving letters by the post, subject to the regulations and restrictions in respect of the same.

5. That the term "East Indies," used in this Warrant, shall be construed to mean every port in Her Majesty's dominions in Asia (China, the Mauritius, Java, Borneo, and Australia excepted), and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

6. That so much of the said recited Warrant of the 19th day of September, 1855, as relates to or affects letters transmitted by the post direct by British packet boat between any port in the Cape of Good Hope, Natal, Saint Helena, Ascension, or the Mauritius, and any port in the East Indies, China, or Australia, or between any port in Australia and any port in the East Indies or China (not in any such cases passing through the United Kingdom) is hereby repealed.

7. That this Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

8. That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, by Warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter, to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby altered, or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

Whitehall, Treasury-chambers, the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
June 9, 1865.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Washington, enclosing a copy of the following notice issued by the President of the United States, removing various restrictions on the trade of Southern States :

Washington, April 29, 1865.

Being desirous to relieve all loyal citizens and well-disposed persons residing in insurrectionary States from unnecessary commercial restrictions, and to encourage them to return to peaceful pursuits, it is hereby ordered :

I. That all restrictions upon internal, domestic, and coastwise commercial intercourse be discontinued in such parts of the States of Tennessee,

Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, and so much of Louisiana as lies east of the Mississippi river, as shall be embraced within the lines of national military occupation, excepting only such restrictions as are imposed by Acts of Congress and regulations in pursuance thereof, prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, and approved by the President ; and excepting also from the effect of this Order the following articles contraband of war, to wit:—Arms, ammunition, all articles from which ammunition is manufactured, grey uniforms and cloth, locomotives, cars, railroad iron, and machinery for operating railroads, telegraph wires, insulators, and instruments for operating telegraphic lines.

II. All existing military and naval orders in any manner restricting internal, domestic, and coastwise commercial intercourse and trade with or in the localities above named be, and the same are hereby, revoked ; and that no military or naval officer, in any manner, interrupt or interfere with the same, or with any boats or other vessels engaged therein, under proper authority, pursuant to the regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
June 9, 1865.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of the following regulations respecting passengers' luggage at Odessa, and which has been forwarded by Her Majesty's Consul-General at that port :—

REGULATIONS respecting Passengers' Luggage, supplying the Articles 1169–1211 of Civil Law of the Custom House, volume VI., edition of 1857.

GENERAL DISPOSITIONS.

§ 1. Under the denomination of passengers' luggage are understood used things, brought by the passengers, and which are indispensable for them during the voyage. These things not being used for trading purposes, are free of duty.

Observation. The importation of prohibited articles does not refer to those which passengers bring with them on arrival free of duty.

§ 2. The following, when brought by passengers, are admitted free of duty.

(1.) Dresses, shoes and boots, wearing linen if used and not exceeding the necessary wants of passengers.

Observation. Cushions, pillows, mattresses, and table or bed linen, even if used, are admitted free of duty but in a quite restricted quantity.

(2.) Fur clothes, such as pelisses, fur caps, muffs, &c., one set to each passenger.

(3.) Gold, silver, and other metal objects for household use, not more than three pounds weight for each passenger; travelling, dressing cases, or work-boxes of every kind, one for each passenger.

(4.) Haberdashery, gold or silver articles and others—two pieces of each denomination for every person; retail articles of toilet, such as rings, pins, buttons, &c., in such quantity as the passengers bring, if they are evidently brought not for sale.

Observation to the paragraphs 3 and 4.

(a.) All used silver articles, manufactured in the empire or in the kingdom of Poland, and stamped by Russian assay-offices, can be imported free of duty in unlimited quantities.

(b.) Gold and silver articles, which the passengers can bring with them free of duty, are delivered to them without any investigation of the standard; the things of this kind, which can be imported only by paying the duty, are admitted when they are of fixed standard; in contrary case, it is allowed to re-export them.

(5.) All objects not before mentioned, serving for personal use during the voyage, in double number; new gloves not more than one dozen pairs.

Observation. Kitchen utensils, table and tea services, bronzes, table clocks, curtains, door curtains, carpets, and generally all articles serving for room furniture and adornment, are not understood as objects of personal use.

(6.) With physicians—medical instruments; with artisans—tools belonging to their profession; with artists—all objects necessary to their arts; with musicians—their manual musical instruments, if those objects are evidently not brought for sale.

(8.) Victuals in small quantities.

(9.) Caskets, coffers, chests, trunks, cloak-bags, etc., containing passengers' luggage in any quantity.

Observation. Caskets and other objects of the same kind, if they are perfectly new, with bronze and other adornments, and are filled only for feigning to serve for packing, are not allowed to pass duty free.

(10). Carriages, conveyed out of the empire or the kingdom, if the passenger presents a certificate from the custom-house, through which the carriage was exported, are admitted duty free. All other carriages must pay the tariff-duty; but if the passenger intends to leave again with the carriage, for which he paid the duty, it will be returned to him on his departure if he presents the receipt, which, for that purpose, must be delivered to him by the custom-house, to whom he paid the said duty. These receipts are valid for two years from their date.

§ 3. For all other articles belonging to passengers, which are not free of duty, according to the above paragraph, the duty must be paid according to the tariff. In this occasion is to be observed what follows:—(1st) this duty can be claimed only for the surplus of things, surpassing the passengers' luggage free of duty; (2nd) that this duty will not be required for articles if the passenger can furnish proof that they are exported from the empire or the kingdom of Poland; and (3rd) the duty will not be claimed at all when it does not exceed three roubles for all the objects.

§ 4. The Custom-house officers, before they begin the search of passengers' luggage, will ask the passenger if he has amongst his luggage wares or objects like those, such as stuffs in pieces or segments, or tacked together like sheets, cloaks, or other dressing articles, objects for adornment of rooms, etc., etc. If the passenger answers that he has none of such wares or objects, and in the meantime they are found during the search amongst his luggage, he will have to pay for such things a double duty fixed by the tariff. Objects concealed by the passengers in hiding places, such as double bottoms or partitions of cases or caskets, in carriage axles drilled out, etc., or under their clothes, in boots or shoes, in filthy linen, etc., will be confiscated according to general rules, like objects imported fraudulently.

§ 5. Objects liable to duty, imported by the passengers in such a quantity that they are evidently not designed for sale, and if the duty, which they are liable to, will not exceed 60 roubles for one person or one family, can be examined without written declarations presented and delivered by the custom-house, after being registered in a special book, according to the fixed form. If the passenger does not wish to pay the duty fixed for such things, it will be in his option to send them back. If the amount of duty, for imported objects belonging to passengers, surpasses 60 roubles for one person or one family, these objects will be treated like goods, according to paragraph 6.

§ 6. Goods imported by passengers, who are not entitled to trade, are subject to one and a half time the duty (if not concealed from the search), or they can be sent back again abroad, if the passenger wishes to do so. In this case the declaration must be presented according to the rules, by the passenger himself or by his delegate. If in the passengers' luggage will be found wares, not hidden from the search, liable to duty, the amount of which is less than 60 roubles, these wares will pay only the single tariff duty, according to § 5, without augmentation of the half.

§ 7. Objects, which are not imported with passengers, but are sent to them separately, are not admitted as passengers' luggage, except things evidently used, imported through custom-houses of seaports, or through custom-houses adjoining railways, or through the entrepôt custom-houses of Moscow and Warsaw. Such things can be delivered free of duty, according to rules of passengers' luggage, after decision of the directors of the above-mentioned custom-houses, if proof is furnished to them that the things belong really to passengers arrived from abroad.

§ 8. Rules about passengers' luggage apply to all custom and toll-houses of the frontier of Europe, without distinction of prerogatives, which general rules grant to them for the application of the tariff to the collection of entry duties upon goods. In consequence, if amongst passengers' luggage will be found objects, the introducing of which is prohibited by general rules through that custom or toll-house to which the goods were brought, this custom or toll-house can clear them in any quantity not exceeding 60 roubles of duty, for one person or one family. If the quantity of these goods, imported by the passenger to this custom or toll-house, is such, that the duty exceeds 60 roubles, they will be treated like goods imported to custom or toll-house, to which their importation is prohibited.

§ 9. If a passenger wishes that any packages of his luggage may not be examined in the entry custom-house, these packages, with leads affixed to each of them, must be surrendered to him, according to the rules upon parcels, to be presented for examination at the custom warehouse; this last custom-house will be immediately informed by the entry custom-house what things have been already delivered to the passenger free of duty, amongst those which can be imported by the passenger free of duty only in a limited quantity, and the entrepôt custom-house, to which the packages with the affixed leads will be then presented, must conform itself, at the delivering of these things, with the information of the entry custom-house.

§ 10. The rules concerning passengers' luggage in Russian and in all principal languages of Europe must be posted up in custom-houses and other places, where the search takes place and they must be shown to the passengers before the beginning of the search of their luggage.

II. Exceptions from general rules concerning Passengers' Luggage.

§ 11. Persons, who remove to Russia or the Kingdom of Poland for constant dwelling, also Russian subjects, who return to their country after a long sojourn abroad (not less than two years) or persons who receive from abroad an inheritance, can obtain from the Minister of Finance or from the Lord-Lieutenant of the Kingdom of Poland, the permission to pass free of duty articles of house use and other objects, which are not duty free, according to rules concerning passengers' luggage, if those objects are used for the amount of duty, viz. :—For one person not exceeding 500 roubles, and for one family not exceeding 900 roubles. Russian diplomatists returning from their posts can be let passed things free of duty also for a larger sum. In all cases goods cannot be subject to such immunities.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

Notice is given in this Gazette by the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that the Local Government Act, 1858, has been duly adopted within the district of Parr, in the parish of Prescott, in the county of Lancaster.—Dated the 7th day of June, 1865.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of JUNE 13,
1865.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, June 10, 1865.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the State Apartments of Windsor Castle will be closed on and after Thursday, the 15th instant, until further orders.

Whitehall, June 10, 1865.

The Queen has been pleased to appoint Robert Rawlinson, Esq., John Thornhill Harrison, Esq., and John Thomas Way, Esq., to be Her Majesty's Commissioners for the purpose of inquiring how far the present use of rivers or running waters in England for the purpose of carrying off the sewage of towns and populous places and the refuse arising from industrial processes and manufactures can be prevented without risk to the public health or serious injury to such processes and manufactures, and how far such sewage and refuse can be utilized or got rid of otherwise than by discharge into rivers or running waters or rendered harmless before reaching them ; and also for the purpose of inquiring into the effect on the drainage of lands and inhabited places, of obstructions to the natural flow of rivers or streams caused by mills, weirs, locks, and other navigation works, and into the best means of remedying any evils thence arising.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
June 12, 1865.*

OFFICIAL.

Department of State.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, by the Proclamation of the President of the 11th day of April last, certain ports of the United States therein specified, which had previously been subject to blockade, were, for objects of public safety, declared, in conformity with previous special legislation of Congress, to be closed against foreign commerce during the national will, to be thereafter expressed and made known by the President ; and whereas events and circumstances have since occurred which, in my judgment, render it expedient to remove that restriction, except as to the ports of Galveston, La Selle, Brazos de Santiago (Point Isabel), and Brownsville, in the State of Texas.

Now, therefore, be it known, that I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do hereby declare that the ports aforesaid not excepted as above shall be open to foreign commerce from and after the 1st day of July next ; that commercial intercourse with the said ports may, from that time, be carried on, subject to the laws of the United States, and in pursuance of such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. If, however, any vessel from a foreign port shall enter any of the before-named excepted ports in the State of Texas, she will continue to be held liable to the penalties prescribed by the Act of Congress approved on the 13th day of July, 1861, and the persons on board of her to such penalties as may be incurred, pursuant to the laws of war, for trading or attempting to trade with an enemy.

And I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do hereby declare and make known that the United States of America do henceforth disallow to all persons trading, or attempting to trade, in any ports of the United States in violation of the laws thereof, all pretence of belligerent rights and privileges ; and I give notice, that from the date of this Proclamation, all such offenders will be held and dealt with as pirates.

It is also ordered, that all restrictions upon trade heretofore imposed in the territory of the United States east of the Mississippi River, save those relating to contraband of war, to the reservation of the rights of the United States to property purchased in the territory of an enemy, and to the 25 per cent. upon purchasers of cotton, are removed. All provisions of the internal revenue law will be carried into effect under the proper officers.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this 22nd day of May, in the year of our Lord 1865, and of the Independence of the United States of America the eighty-ninth.

(L.S.) ANDREW JOHNSON

By the President :

W. HUNTER, Acting Secretary of State.

INVESTITURE OF HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS
THE GRAND DUKE OF HESSE, WITH THE ENSIGNS AND HABIT OF THE MOST NOBLE ORDER OF THE GARTER.

Darmstadt, June 7, 1865.

HER MAJESTY, Sovereign of the Most Noble
Order of the Garter, having been pleased by a Commission under the Great Seal of the Order, to constitute and appoint Their Royal Highnesses Prince Alfred and Prince Louis of Hesse, Knights of the said Most Noble Order, to be Her Majesty's Plenipotentiaries for Investing His Royal Highness The Grand Duke of Hesse, with the Ensigns and Habit of the said Most Noble Order, and to direct and command Sir Charles George Young, Knight, Garter Principal King of Arms, to attend and assist Their Royal Highnesses in the Ceremony of Investiture, the Plenipotentiaries and Garter, with their respective Suites, assembled at Darmstadt on the 2nd instant.

On the following day, Garter and the Secretary to the Mission had the honour of being presented to His Royal Highness The Grand Duke, by His Royal Highness Prince Alfred.

The preliminary arrangements having been made, Tuesday, the 6th instant, was fixed for the Investiture.

Their Royal Highnesses the Plenipotentiaries, Garter, and their respective Suites, assembled at half-past Two o'clock, in the State Apartments of the Grand Ducal Palace, from whence the Princes Plenipotentiaries, in a Royal State Carriage drawn by Six Horses, and the Gentlemen appointed to take part in the Ceremony, preceded by the Grand Master of the Ceremonies, Von Werner, all in Royal Carriages, proceeded to the Grand Ducal Residence (Schloss), under an Escort of Cavalry.

Upon arrival at the Schloss, the Mission was received by the Grand Marshal of the Court, the Count Ysenburg, and conducted to the Fahnen-Saal, where it waited until the Grand Master of the Ceremonies announced the Grand Duke's readiness for its reception in the Kaiser Saal.

The Procession being formed, advanced into the Royal Presence in the following order:—

Two Officers of the Court.

Chamberlains, Gentlemen of the Bedchamber, and Page in Waiting.

The Grand Master of the Ceremonies and Grand Marshal of the Court.

Percy Mitford, Esq., Second Secretary of Legation, accredited to the Court of the Grand Duke, carrying the Sword of the Order on a Velvet Cushion.

Lieutenant Arthur Balfour Haig, R.E., Equerry in attendance on H.R.H. Prince Alfred, carrying the Hat and Star of the Order on a Velvet Cushion.

Edwin Corbett, Esq., Secretary of Legation, accredited to the Court of the Grand Duke, carrying the Book of the Statutes on a Velvet Cushion.

Major John Clayton Cowell, R.E., C.B., Governor of H.R.H. Prince Alfred, carrying the Mantle and Collar of the Order on a Velvet Cushion.

Captain Von Westerweller,

Master of the Household to His Royal Highness Prince Louis of Hesse, carrying the Garter and the Riband and George on a Velvet Cushion.

William Courthope, Esq., Somerset Herald,

Secretary of the Garter Mission, in his Tabard and Collar of S.S., carrying 'The Sovereign's Commission.

Sir Charles George Young, Knt.,

Garter Principal King of Arms, in his Mantle, Chain, and Badge, and carrying his Sceptre.

THE PRINCES PLENIPOTENTIARIES,

His Royal Highness Prince Louis of Hesse, K.G., in the full Habit and Ensigns of the Order.

His Royal Highness Prince Alfred, K.G., in the full Habit and Ensigns of the Order.

Advaneing into the Royal Presence with due reverenees, the Mission was received by the Grand Duke upon his Throne. The Gentlemen bearing the Insignia, divided to the right and left, the Plenipotentiaries advaneing between them, the Secretary to the Commission, Somerset Herald, remaining near to Garter and the Plenipotentiaries to deliver the Insignia.

After a short pause, His Royal Highness Prince Alfred made an address to His Royal Highness The Grand Duke, to which the Grand Duke made a graecious response.

The Commission was then presented and returned to Garter, who delivered it to the Seecretary. The Garter being next handed to the Plenipotentiaries, Their Royal Highnesses buckled the same round the Grand Duke's Left Leg, Garter reading the Admonition. The Grand Duke was then invested with the Riband and George, Garter reading the Admonition.

The Grand Duke then delivered his Sword to Lieutenant-General Baron Von Trotha, Grand Steward of the Court, which Garter received and retained as an ancient Fee pertaining to his Office. His Royal Highness the Grand Duke was then invested with the Sword of the Order. His Royal Highness was then divested of the Riband and George, which was received by the Baron Von Doernberg. Garter then presented to the Plenipotentiaries the Mantle, with which their Royal Highnesses invested the Grand Duke, and afterwards with the Collar of the Order. The Plenipotentiaries next presented the Hat and Star, and lastly the Book of the Statutes of the Order.

The eeremony of Investiture being coneluded, the Plenipotentiaries, with Garter and their respective Suites, making their reverenees, withdrew from the Royal Presence, and were recon-ducted to the Grand Ducal Palace, in the order in which they had arrived.

The ceremony was witnessed by Her Royal Highness The Princess Louis of Hesse (Princess Alice of Great Britain and Ireland), His Grand Ducal Highness Prince Charles of Hesse, His Grand Ducal Highness Prince Alexander of Hesse, Their Grand Ducal Highnesses the Princes Henry and William of Hesse, the Great Officers and Ministers of State, General Officers, and Aides-de-Camp, Sir Alexander Malet, Bart., Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Germanic Diet, accredited at the Court of The Grand Duke, and other persons of distinction.

A banquet was afterwards given, at which the Grand Duke appeared, wearing the Collar of the Order. During the Banquet, His Royal Highness drank to the health of the Sovereign Queen Victoria, and His Royal Highness Prince Alfred afterwards drank to the health of His Royal Highness the Grand Duke, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of JUNE 20,
1865.

At the Court at Windsor, June 17, 1865.

THE Queen, as Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, has been graciously pleased by letters patent under Her Royal Sign Manual and the Great Seal of the Order, bearing date this day, to dispense with all the Statutes and regulations usually observed in regard to installation, and to give and grant unto His Royal Highness The Grand Duke of Hesse, Knight of the said Most Noble Order, and invested with the Ensigns thereof, full power and authority to exercise all rights and privileges belonging to a Knight Companion of the said Most Noble Order of the Garter, in as full and ample a manner as if he had been formally installed, any decree, rule, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Foreign Office, June 20, 1865.

THE following Despatch has been received from Her Majesty's Minister at Washington :—

Washington,

MY LORD,

June 3, 1865.

I HAVE the honour to enclose copy of a Notification issued by the United States Government, declaring that passports will no longer be required from persons entering the United States from foreign countries.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) FREDERICK W. A. BRUCE.

The Earl Russell, K.G.,

&c., &c., &c.

(Inclosure)-

Department of State,

Washington, June 2, 1865.

WHEREAS, pursuant to the order of the President, and as a means required by the public safety, directions were issued from this Department, under date of the 17th of December, 1864, requiring passports from all travellers entering the United States, except immigrant passengers directly entering an American port from a foreign country; and whereas, the necessities, which required the adoption of that measure, are believed no longer to exist, now, therefore, the President directs that, from and after this date, the order above referred to shall be, and the same is hereby rescinded.

Nothing in this regulation, however, will be construed to relieve from due accountability any enemies of the United States or offenders against their peace and dignity, who may hereafter seek to enter the country, or at any time be found within its lawful jurisdiction.

WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

Notice is given in this Gazette by the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that it is expedient that the Local Government Act, 1858, should be adopted by the township of Ovenden, in the West Riding of the county of York, excluding from the operation of such Act all that portion thereof outside of and adjoining to the Old Borough that lies within a boundary or line commencing at and including Old-lane Bridge on the Ovenden Brook; thence for a distance of three hundred and eight yards up the centre of Ovenden Brook; and thence westwardly, by the northerly fence of a close of land adjoining Shaw-lane, called The Holme; thence into and including the following lanes, Shaw-lane and Nursery-lane, across the Halifax and Keighley turnpike-road, by Nursery-lane, to Wheatley-lane Ends; thence by Scarr Wood-road to Wheatley Bottoms; and thence along the highway leading to the bridge over the Hebble Brook, at the bottom of Wood-lane; thence up Wood-lane to Doctor Hill-lane Bottom; thence south-westward by the fence-wall immediately opposite Wood-lane Top to Moor End-road; and thence northward along that road for a distance of thirty-three yards; and thence westward by private occupation-road leading to the Vicar's allotments; and thence south-westwardly by the fence-wall westward of that occupation-road in a straight line to the boundary between the townships of Ovenden and Warley; and thence eastward by that boundary to where that boundary meets the boundary of the Old Borough; thence by the Old Borough boundary to the boundary of the township of Skircoat.—Dated the 16th day of June, 1865.

By a Provisional Order in this Gazette the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, it is directed that the rate of interest shall be reduced from four pounds ten shillings to one pound per centum per annum upon the bonded or mortgage debt of three thousand six hundred and sixty pounds charged or secured upon the tolls or revenues of the Hardingstone and Old Stratford Turnpike Road, and that the whole of the arrears of interest due and remaining unpaid upon the said debt at that date shall be extinguished.

LONDON GAZETTE of JUNE 23,

Foreign Office, June 23, 1865.

THE following Correspondence has passed between Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs and Her Majesty's Minister at Washington :—

No. 1.

Sir F. Bruce to Earl Russell.—(Received June 7).

Washington,

MY LORD,

May 26, 1865.

I HAVE the honour to inclose herewith, a Proclamation opening to foreign trade the ports on the seaboard of the United States, with the exception of those in Texas, after the 1st of July. The delay of a month is required, in order to reorganize the Customs establishments at the ports.

Two considerations will operate strongly in the restoration of unrestricted commerce with the Southern States. The rebellion having been suppressed, the North seeks for compensation for the sacrifices it has made in trade with those regions, and demands the cessation of the abuses and favouritism which have characterized the system of trading under Treasury permits which was initiated during the war.

Moreover the introduction of Northern capital and energy will give employment to the Southern people, who are now starving, and it is hoped will tend to develop the resources of the States, and thus promote the restoration of tranquillity.

I feel convinced that in a short time all attempts to impose restrictions on trade in any shape will be found impracticable.

The South is destitute of everything, and the Government is obliged to issue rations in many places to prevent the people from dying of famine.

In order to induce the people to resume cultivation, and to enable them to provide for themselves, it is necessary that the holders of cotton in the plantations should be induced to bring it to market by withdrawing the threat of seizure, and it appears to me that vague threats of confiscation of property cannot be kept hanging over the heads of the proprietors in general. An amnesty which shall reassure the masses cannot be long withheld.

The clause in the Proclamation, stating that persons trading with the ports of the United States in violation of the laws will be regarded as pirates is to me unintelligible, nor can I obtain any satisfactory explanation of it. I think it is inserted in terrorem, as such offences must be dealt with according to law, and no tribunal would consider persons guilty of such acts as guilty of piracy.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) FREDERICK W. A. BRUCE,

Inclosure in No. 1.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, by the Proclamation of the President of the eleventh day of April last, certain ports of the United States therein specified, which had previously been subject to blockade, were, for objects of public safety, declared, in conformity with previous special legislation of Congress, to be closed against foreign commerce during the national will, to be thereafter expressed and made known by the President ; and whereas events and circumstances have since occurred which, in my judgment, render it expedient to remove that restriction, except as to the ports of Galveston, La Salle, Brazos de Santiago (Point Isabel), and Brownsville, in the State of Texas :

Now, therefore, be it known that I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do hereby declare that the ports aforesaid not excepted as above shall be open to foreign commerce from and after the 1st day of July next ; that commercial intercourse with the said ports may, from that time, be carried on, subject to the laws of the United States and in pursuance of such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. If, however, any vessel from a foreign port shall enter any of the before-named excepted ports in the State of Texas, she will continue to be held liable to the penalties prescribed by the Act of Congress approved on the 13th day of July, 1861, and the persons on board of her to such penalties as may be incurred pursuant to the laws of war for trading or attempting to trade with an enemy.

And I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do hereby declare and make known that the United States of America do henceforth disallow to all persons trading or attempting to trade in any ports of the United States in violation of the laws thereof, all pretence of belligerent rights and privileges; and I give notice that, from the date of this Proclamation, all such offenders will be held and dealt with as pirates.

It is also ordered, that all restrictions upon trade heretofore imposed in the territory of the United States east of the Mississippi River, save those relating to contraband of war, to the reservation of the rights of the United States to property purchased in the territory of an enemy, and to the twenty-five per cent. upon the purchases of cotton, are removed. All provisions of the internal revenue law will be carried into effect under the proper officers.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this twenty-second day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and of the Independence of the United States of America the eighty-ninth.

(L.S.) ANDREW JOHNSON.

By the President,

W. HUNTER, Acting Secretary of State.

Earl Russell to Sir F. Bruce.

SIR, Foreign Office, June 16, 1865.

THE clause in the President's Proclamation of the 22nd of May which threatens certain offenders as pirates, and which you justly describe in your despatch of the 26th ultimo as unintelligible, seems to have arisen from a confusion of two very separate offences.

The one would be the offence of attempting to trade, to carry manufactures or provisions, for instance, into such ports as Charleston, Mobile, or Wilmington, ports in the possession of the United States. This would be an offence of violating laws and regulations of the nature of Custom-house regulations, and punishable as such.

The other would be the offence of attempting by armed vessels, such as the "Stonewall," to break into the ports of Galveston and Brownsville, then in the possession of the Confederates, with a view of aiding them in their insurrection.

This would be an offence against the sovereignty of the United States, and the state of war having ceased, would amount to the crime of high treason.

Neither offence could constitute piracy, which is a crime against all mankind.

But as, since the date of the Proclamation, Galveston and the other ports excepted have been reduced within the obedience of the United States, it will probably not be necessary that you should point out this error in the Proclamation of the 22nd of May.

You will take care, however, to attend to any case in which a British subject may be wrongfully detained in prison, after the more recent Proclamations of the President, of which I have not, however, received from you official copies.

I am, &c.,
(Signed) RUSSELL.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of JUNE 30, 1865.

Windsor Castle, June 28, 1865.

THIS day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor of London, several Members of the Court of Aldermen, the Sheriffs, some Members of the Court of Common Council, the Recorder, the Common Serjeant, the Town Clerk, the City Solicitor, the Remembrancer, and the Keeper of the Guildhall, waited upon Her Majesty with the following Address, which was handed to Her Majesty :—

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled, desire humbly to approach your Majesty with our earnest and sincere congratulations on the safe delivery of Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales, and the birth of a second Prince.

We earnestly hope that every addition to your Royal House may give increased stability to the Throne, and augment the domestic happiness of your Majesty.

We fervently pray that the Almighty will vouchsafe to bless the infant Prince and his Royal Parents, and that your Majesty may have the gratification of witnessing a development of those virtues for which your Majesty's family is so eminently distinguished.

That your Majesty may long be spared to reign over a loyal and affectionate people is the sincere prayer of the citizens of London.

Signed by order of the Court.

Frederick Woodthorpe, Town Clerk.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :—

"I thank you very sincerely for your congratulations on the birth of the Prince, my grandson, and I receive with much gratification your assurances of loyal and affectionate attachment to myself and my family."

They were all very graciously received, and the Lord Mayor and the Mover and Seconder of the Address had the honour of kissing Her Majesty's hand.

Windsor Castle, June 28, 1865.

THIS day a Deputation from the Court of Lieutenancy of the City of London waited upon Her Majesty with the following Address, which was handed to Her Majesty :—

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, and other your Majesty's Lieutenants for the City of London.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, and other your Majesty's Lieutenants for the city of London, humbly approach the Throne with the strongest feelings of loyalty and attachment to your Majesty, to offer our hearty congratulations on the birth of a second Son to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

Attached as we are to your Majesty's person and Government, by every tie of loyalty and gratitude, we cannot but rejoice in an event which affords an additional guarantee for the continuance, in a direct line, of your Majesty's illustrious house, and for the stability of those free institutions under which we have the happiness to live.

It is our fervent prayer that your Majesty's personal and domestic happiness may be largely increased, and that God in His infinite mercy may deign to bless the infant Prince and his illustrious Parents.

By order,
Henley Smith, Clerk and Treasurer.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :—

“ I have received with much satisfaction your loyal and dutiful Address of Congratulation on an event affecting alike the happiness of my family and the interests of my people, and I thank you very sincerely for your renewed assurances of devoted attachment to my person and Government.”

They were all very graciously received, and the Mover and Seconder of the Address had the honour of kissing Her Majesty's hand.

Windsor Castle, June 28, 1865.

THIS day the Right Honourable the Lord Provost of Edinburgh, accompanied by two of the Magistrates (the Mover and Seconder of the Address), waited upon Her Majesty with the following Address, which was handed to Her Majesty :—

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the city of Edinburgh, humbly approach your Majesty to offer our sincere congratulations on the birth of the infant Prince.

In the domestic happiness and virtue of their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, your Majesty has the high satisfaction of witnessing at once the fruit and the reward of the careful culture which His Royal Highness has been privileged to receive. It is our humble and earnest hope that all the members of the Royal Family may be enabled to transmit to their offspring the lessons of piety and virtue which they themselves received from your Majesty and your illustrious Consort.

We earnestly pray that every addition to your Majesty's Royal House may prove a new source of happiness and comfort to your Majesty, and that your Majesty may long be spared to reign over a happy and a grateful people.

Signed in name and by appointment of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council, and the Seal of the City affixed hereto,
at Edinburgh, the 20th day of June, 1865 years.

Chas. Lawson, Lord Provost.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer : —

“I accept with much satisfaction your congratulations on the birth of the Prince, my grandson, and your assurances of loyal and affectionate interest in all that concerns the happiness of myself and my family.

“I earnestly join in your prayer that all the members of my Royal House may prove themselves worthy of their high station, by the practice of those virtues which are the best security for the loyal attachment of my faithful people.”

They were very graciously received, and the Lord Provost and the Mover and Seconder of the Address had the honour of kissing Her Majesty's hand.

By the QUEEN,
A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS by Our Order in Council of this day's date, We were graciously pleased to annul, from and after the thirtieth day of September next, Our Royal Proclamation of the twenty-ninth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, regulating, according to the scheme set forth therein or recognized thereby, the distribution of the net proceeds of prizes captured from the enemy, of captures and seizures under the several Acts of Parliament passed relating to the revenues of customs, and to trade and navigation, for the abolition of the slave trade, for the capture and destruction of pirates and piratical vessels, and of the rewards conferred for the same; as also of the awards for all salvage granted to the crews of Our ships and vessels of war, when not otherwise specially apportioned by the terms of the respective awards and allowances; and, in consequence of several new ratings and denominations, and certain alterations having been introduced and made in Our Royal Naval Service since the date of Our said former Proclamation, and for other causes, it is expedient that provision should be made for the future distribution of such net proceeds and salvage not otherwise specially apportioned, and all other moneys whatsoever granted to be shared among the officers and crews of Our ships and vessels in the manner of prize money.

We do, therefore, now make known to all Our loving subjects, and to all others whom it may concern, by this Our Proclamation, by and with the advice and consent of Our Privy Council, that Our Royal will and pleasure is, and We do hereby direct, that ships or vessels being in sight of a prize, as also of the captor, under circumstances to cause intimidation to the prize and encouragement to the captor, shall be alone entitled to share as joint captors, and that the distribution of all such net proceeds of prizes, rewards, allowances, salvage awards, and of all bounties and grants whatsoever distributable to Our Royal Navy in the manner of prize money, shall be made as follows, viz. :—

That the flag officer or officers shall have one-twentieth part of the whole net proceeds arising from prizes captured from the enemy, and from all other captures and seizures, &c., as aforesaid, made by any of the ships or vessels under his or their command, and of the rewards conferred for the same, according to the following conditions and modifications, save and except as hereinafter provided and directed ; that is to say :—

When there is but one flag officer he shall have the entire one-twentieth part ; when two flag officers shall be sharing together, the chief shall have two-thirds, and the other flag officer shall have the remaining one-third of the one-twentieth part ; and when there shall be more than two flag officers, the chief shall have one-half of the said one-twentieth part, and the remaining half shall be equally divided among the junior flag officers ; commodores of the first class and captains of the fleet to share as flag officers : Provided always, that no flag officer, unless actually on board any of Our ships or vessels of war, and at the actual taking, sinking, burning, or otherwise destroying any ship or ships of war, privateer or privateers belonging to the enemy, shall share in the distribution of any head money or bounty money granted as a reward for the taking, sinking, burning, or otherwise destroying any such ship or vessel of the enemy.

That no flag officer, unless actually present at the capture or destruction of any pirates or piratical ship, vessel, or boat, shall share in any distribution of the proceeds or bounty in respect of such pirates, or of the crews of such piratical ship, vessel or boat.

That no flag officer shall share in any remuneration or reward conferred or awarded to the crew of any of Our ships or vessels as salvage, unless he shall have been actually on board the ship or vessel to which the award shall be made, or have personally aided and assisted in the transaction at the time the service was rendered.

That no flag officer commanding in any port in the United Kingdom shall share in the proceeds of any prize captured from the enemy, or in other captures, seizures, rewards, or any distributive proceeds as aforesaid, made by any ships or vessels which shall sail from or leave such port by order of the Lord High Admiral, or of Our Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral.

That when ships or vessels under the command of several flag officers belonging to several stations shall be joint captors, &c., each flag officer shall receive a proportion of the one-twentieth part, according to the number of officers and men present under the command of each such flag officer ; and when ships or vessels under orders from the Lord High Admiral, or from Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, are joint captors, &c., with other ships or vessels under a flag or flags, the like regulations as to the apportionment of the flag share to the flag officer or officers are to be observed.

With reference to flag officers it is to be noted, —

rior flag officer shall not share in any prize taken by the inferior flag officer before he has arrived within the limits of that station, unless the inferior officer shall have received some order directly from, and shall be acting in execution of some order issued by such superior flag officer.

No chief flag officer quitting any station, except upon some definite urgent service, and with the intention of returning to the station as soon as such service is performed, shall share in any prize taken by Our ships or vessels left behind after he has passed the limits of the station, or after he has surrendered the command to another flag officer appointed by the Admiralty to command in chief upon such station.

An inferior flag officer quitting any station (except when detached by orders from his commander-in-chief upon a special service, accompanied with orders to return to such station as soon as the service has been performed), shall have no share in prizes taken by the ships and vessels remaining on the station after he has passed the limits thereof.

In like manner flag officers remaining on such station shall not share in the prizes taken by such inferior officer, or by ships or vessels under his immediate command, after he has quitted the limits of the station, except he has been detached as aforesaid.

A commander-in-chief or other flag officer belonging to any station, shall not share in any prize or prizes taken out of the limits of that station by any ship or vessel under the command of a flag officer of any other station, or under orders from Our Commissioners of the Admiralty, unless such commander-in-chief or flag officer is expressly authorized by Our said Commissioners to take the command of that station in which the prize or prizes is or are taken, and shall actually have taken upon him such command.

Every commodore having a captain under him, shall be esteemed a flag officer with respect to the twentieth part of prizes taken, whether he be commanding-in-chief or serving under command.

The first captain to the admiral and commander-in-chief of Our fleet, and also the first captain to any flag officer appointed to command a fleet of ten ships of the line or upwards, shall be deemed to be a flag officer for the purpose of sharing in prize, and shall be entitled to share therein as the junior flag officer of such fleet.

Any officer on board any of Our ships of war at the time of capturing any prize or prizes who shall have more commissions than one, shall be entitled only to share in such prize or prizes according to the share allotted to him by the above-mentioned distribution in respect to his superior commission or office.

And with reference to these regulations it is to be noted, that a captain, commander, or other commanding officer of a ship or vessel shall be deemed to be under the command of a flag when he shall actually have received some order from, or be acting in the execution of some order issued by, a flag officer, whether he be or be not within the limits of the station of such flag officer; and in the event of his being directed to join a flag officer on any station, he shall be deemed to be under the command of such flag officer from the time when he arrives within the limits of the station, which circumstance is always to be carefully noted in the log book; and it shall be considered that he continues under the flag officer of such station until he shall have received some order directly from, or be acting in the execution of some order issued by, some other flag officer, duly authorized, or by the Lord High Admiral, or Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral.

And We hereby direct, that the captain, commander, lieutenant commanding, staff commander commanding, master commanding, or any other officer duly commanding any ship, sloop, or vessel of war, singly making a capture or seizure, or otherwise entitled to the distributive benefit arising from any proceeds, reward, grant, bounty, salvage, or other award as aforesaid, that is to say, the officer actually in command at the time, shall have one-eighth of the remainder, or if there is no flag, one-eighth of the entire net proceeds, except that if the single capturing ship be a rated ship having a commander under the captain, the commander shall take a portion of the one-eighth part as if he were commander of a sloop according to the proportion hereinafter set forth ; and if more than one commanding officer of the same rank of command, shall be entitled to share as joint captors, &c., the one-eighth shall be equally divided between them ; but when captains, commanders, lieutenants commanding, staff commanders commanding, and masters commanding, respectively, Our ships and vessels of war, and commanders under captains in rated ships, shall share together in whatever variety of combination, the one-eighth shall be so divided into parts for a graduated apportionment as to provide for each captain receiving six parts ; each commander of a sloop, or commander under the captain in a rated ship, three parts ; and each lieutenant commanding, staff commander commanding, or master commanding, or other officer actually commanding a small vessel of war, two parts ; which We hereby direct shall be the proportion in which they shall respectively share ; commodores of the second class, and field officers of marines, or of land forces serving as marines, doing duty as field officers, above the rank of major, to share as captains, and field officers of marines, or of land forces serving as marines, and doing duty in the rank of major, to share as commanders of sloops. And We further direct, that after provision shall thus have been made for the flag share (if any), and for the portion of the commanding officer or officers and others as above specified, the remainder of the net proceeds shall be distributed in ten classes, so that each officer, man, and boy composing the rest of the complements of Our ships, sloops, and vessels of war, and actually on board at the time of any such capture, seizure, &c., as aforesaid, and every person present and assisting shall receive shares, or a share, according to his class, as set forth in the following scale : —

All supernumeraries holding ranks in the service above the ranks or ratings specified in the fifth class of this Our Proclamation, who have been ordered to do duty in any of Our ships and vessels by the Lord High Admiral, by Our Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, by the senior officer of the fleet or squadron, or if none senior, then by the captain or commanding officer of the capturing ship or vessel, if not by special authority employed in higher capacities, shall share according to the ranks which they respectively hold in the service ; but in all cases, to qualify them for so sharing, and not merely as supernumeraries in the ninth class, due notation of their being thus respectively ordered to do duty, must be made on the victualing lists and prize lists.

And with respect to supernumeraries of ratings in the service below the denominations of those specified in the fourth class of this Our Proclamation, and who at full victuals are engaged in the ordinary duties of the ship, it is Our will and pleasure that they shall always share according to the ratings which they bear in the service.

And in order that Our Royal intentions herein may be duly carried into effect, We further direct that when any capture or seizure is made, or service performed, for which a distributable grant or reward is to be, or is expected to be, conferred or awarded to any of Our ships or vessels of war, the Captain or Commanding Officer shall transmit or cause to be transmitted, as soon as may be, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, a true and perfect list of all the officers, seamen, marines, soldiers, and others who were actually on board on the occasion, with a notation thereon, stating whether any other of Her Majesty's ships or vessels was in sight at the time of the capture, accompanied by a separate list containing the names of those belonging to the crew who were absent on duty or otherwise at the time, specifying the cause of such absence ; each list to contain the quality of the service of each person, with their several ratings, to be subscribed by the Captain or Commanding Officer, and three or more of the chief officers on board.

And when a list of those actually on board, with the separate list of persons absent, though belonging to the ship or vessel, shall have been verified on examination with the ship's books lodged as official records, the Accountant-General of Our Navy shall grant a certificate that such lists are correct, or have been corrected, as occasion may require, in order that distribution of the respective prize or other proceeds, payable as prize or salvage money, may be duly made in the Department of the Accountant-General of Our Navy.

And in the event of difficulty arising with respect to any of the regulations hereby ordered, or if any case should occur not herein provided for, or not sufficiently provided for, We are pleased hereby to authorize the Lord High Admiral, or Our Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral for the time being, to issue such directions thereupon as may appear just and expedient ; which directions shall have the same force and effect as if specially provided for in this Our Royal Proclamation : Provided always, and the distribution hereinbefore ordered shall take effect only with respect to the proceeds of captures, seizures, and services as aforesaid, which shall be made and performed on and after the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five ; and that the proceeds arising from all captures, seizures, and services as aforesaid, made or performed prior to that date, shall be distributed in accordance with any Proclamation or Proclamations now in force or in force at the time of such captures, seizures, or services respectively and applicable thereto, which We are pleased hereby to direct accordingly.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, this twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and in the twentieth-ninth year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

At the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1865.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council was pleased to order, on the petition of the Justices of the Peace of the county of Flint, in quarter sessions assembled, that the town of Rhyl shall be an additional polling place for the county of Flint.

At the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the rules and practice observed for the purpose of preventing collisions at sea, which were formerly adopted by maritime nations, have proved insufficient to satisfy the requirements of modern navigation; And whereas various alterations in such rules and practice have from time to time been made by different nations, but the rules so altered have been found to be in some cases inconsistent with each other, and in other cases to have the force of municipal law only; And whereas certain regulations for the purpose aforesaid have been sanctioned by "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," and are contained in the Table C, in the schedule to that Act ; And whereas for the purpose of correcting certain clerical errors the said regulations have, in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, been modified by an Order in Council bearing date the 9th day of January, 1863, and the said regulations, so modified, are appended to the said Order, and to this Order ; And whereas by virtue of the said Act and of the said Order the said regulations so appended as aforesaid, so far as relates to British and French ships and also so far as relates to certain other foreign ships when within British jurisdiction, came into operation on the 1st day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three ; And whereas it is provided by the same Act, that, whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the Government of any foreign country is willing that the regulations for preventing collisions, contained in Table C in the schedule to the said Act, or such other regulations for preventing collisions as are for the time being in force under the said Act, should apply to the ships of such country when beyond the limits of British jurisdiction, Her Majesty may by Order in Council direct that such regulations shall apply to the ships of the said foreign country, whether within British jurisdiction or not. And it is further provided by the said Act that whenever an Order in Council has been issued applying any regulation made by or in pursuance of the said Act to the ships of any foreign country such ships shall, in all cases arising in any British Court, be deemed to be subject to such regulation, and shall for the purpose of such regulation be treated as if they were British ships : And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty, that is willing that the said Regulations appended to the said Order, and to this Order should apply to ships belonging to those islands when beyond the limits of British jurisdiction :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct,

That the said regulations appended to the said Order in Council, bearing date the ninth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and to this Order, shall from the date of this Order apply to ships belonging to the Hawaiian Islands,

whether within British jurisdiction or not.

19. Proviso to save special cases.
20. No Ship under any circumstances to neglect proper precautions.

PRELIMINARY.

Art. 1. In the following Rules every Steam Ship which is under sail and not under steam is to be considered a Sailing Ship; and every Steam ship which is under steam, whether under sail or not, is to be considered a ship under steam.

RULES CONCERNING LIGHTS.

Lights.

Art. 2. The Lights mentioned in the following Articles, numbered 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9, and no others, shall be carried in all weathers, from sunset to sunrise.

Lights for Steam Ships.

Art. 3. Sea-going Steam-ships when under weigh shall carry,

(a.) At the Foremast Head, a bright White Light, so fixed as to show an uniform and unbroken Light over an arc of the horizon of 20 points of the compass; so fixed as to throw the light 10 points on each side of the ship, viz., from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on either side; and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least five miles:

(b.) On the Starboard Side, a Green Light so constructed as to show an uniform and unbroken Light over an arc of the horizon of 10 points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on the starboard side, and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least two miles:

(c.) On the Port Side, a Red Light, so constructed as to show an uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of 10 points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on the port side, and of such a character, as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least two miles:

(d.) The said Green and Red Side Lights shall be fitted with inboard screens, projecting at least three feet forward from the Light, so as to prevent these lights from being seen across the bow.

Lights for Steam Tugs.

Art. 4. Steam Ships, when towing other ships, shall carry two bright White Mast-head Lights vertically, in addition to their side lights, so as to distinguish them from other Steam Ships. Each of these Mast-head Lights shall be of the same construction and character as the Mast-head Lights which other Steam Ships are required to carry.

Lights for Sailing Ships.

Art. 5. Sailing Ships under weigh, or being towed, shall carry the same Lights as Steam Ships under weigh, with the exception of the White Mast-head Lights, which they shall never carry.

Exceptional Lights for small Sailing Vessels.

Art. 6. Whenever, as in the case of small vessels during bad weather, the Green and Red Lights cannot be fixed, these lights shall be kept on deck, on their respective sides of the vessel, ready for instant exhibition; and shall, on the approach of or to other vessels, be exhibited on their respective sides in sufficient time to prevent collision, in such manner as to make them most visible, and so that the Green light shall not be seen on the port side, nor the Red light on the starboard side.

To make the use of these portable lights more certain and easy, the lanterns containing them shall each be painted outside with the colour of the light they respectively contain, and shall be provided with suitable screens.

Lights for Ships at Anchor.

Art. 7. Ships, whether steam ships or sailing ships, when at anchor in roadsteads or fairways, shall exhibit, where it can best be seen, but at a height not exceeding twenty feet above the hull, a White Light, in a globular lantern of eight inches in diameter, and so constructed as to show a clear uniform and unbroken light visible all round the horizon, and at a distance of at least one mile.

Lights for Pilot Vessels.

Art. 8. Sailing Pilot Vessels shall not carry the lights required for other sailing vessels, but shall carry a White Light at the mast head, visible all round the horizon,—and shall also exhibit a Flare-up Light every fifteen minutes.

Lights for Fishing Vessels and Boats.

Art. 9. Open Fishing Boats and other open boats shall not be required to carry the side lights required for other vessels ; but shall if they do not carry such lights, carry a lantern having a Green Slide on the one side and a Red Slide on the other side ; and on the approach of or to other vessels, such lantern shall be exhibited in sufficient time to prevent collision, so that the Green light shall not be seen on the port side, nor the Red light on the starboard side.

Fishing Vessels and open boats when at anchor, or attached to their nets and stationary, shall exhibit a bright White Light.

RULES CONCERNING FOG SIGNALS.

Fog Signals.

Art. 10. Whenever there is fog, whether by day or night, the Fog Signals described below shall be carried and used, and shall be sounded at least every five minutes, viz. :—

(a.) Steam Ships under weigh shall use a Steam Whistle placed before the funnel, not less than eight feet from the deck :

(b.) Sailing ships under weigh shall use a Fog Horn:

STEERING AND SAILING RULES.

Two Sailing Ships meeting.

Art. 11. If Two Sailing Ships are meeting end on or nearly end on so as to involve risk of collision, the helms of both shall be put to port, so that each may pass on the port side of the other.

Two Sailing Ships crossing.

Art. 12. When two sailing ships are crossing so as to involve risk of collision, then, if they have the wind on different sides, the ship with the wind on the port side shall keep out of the way of the ship with the wind on the starboard side ; except in the case in which the ship with the wind on the port side is close hauled and the other ship free, in which case the latter ship shall keep out of the way ; but if they have the wind on the same side, or if one of them has the wind aft, the ship which is to windward shall keep out of the way of the ship which is to leeward.

Two Ships under Steam meeting.

Art. 13. If two ships under steam are meeting end on, or nearly end on, so as to involve risk of collision, the helms of both shall be put to port, so that each may pass on the port side of the other.

Two Ships under Steam crossing.

Art. 14. If two ships under steam are crossing so as to involve risk of collision, the ship which has the other on her own starboard side shall keep out of the way of the other.

Sailing Ship and Ship under Steam.

Art. 15. If two ships, one of which is a sailing ship, and the other a steam ship, are proceeding in such directions as to involve risk of collision, the steam ship shall keep out of the way of the sailing ship.

Ships under Steam to slacken speed.

Art. 16. Every steam ship, when approaching another ship so as to involve risk of collision, shall slacken her speed, or, if necessary, stop and reverse; and every steam ship shall, when in a fog, go at a moderate speed.

Vessels overtaking other Vessels.

Art. 17. Every vessel overtaking any other vessel shall keep out of the way of the said last-mentioned vessel.

Construction of Articles 12, 14, 15, and 17.

Art. 18. Where by the above rules one of two ships is to keep out of the way, the other shall keep her course, subject to the qualifications contained in the following Article.

Proviso to save special cases.

Art. 19. In obeying and construing these rules, due regard must be had to all dangers of navigation; and due regard must also be had to any special circumstances which may exist in any particular case rendering a departure from the above rules necessary in order to avoid immediate danger.

No Ship, under any circumstances, to neglect proper precautions.

Art. 20. Nothing in these Rules shall exonerate any ship, or the owner, or master, or crew thereof, from the consequences of any neglect to carry lights or signals, or of any neglect to keep a proper look-out, or of the neglect of any precaution which may be required by the ordinary practice of seamen, or by the special circumstances of the case.

At the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1865,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament, holden in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and consolidate the laws relating to the Customs of the United Kingdom, and of the Isle of Man, and certain laws relating to trade and navigation, and the British possessions," it is enacted, that, if "the legislature or proper legislative authority, of any of the British possessions abroad, shall present an address to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty to authorise or permit the conveyance of goods or passengers from one part of such possession to another part thereof in other than British ships, it shall thereupon be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, so to authorise the conveyance of such goods or passengers on such terms, and under such conditions, as to Her Majesty may seem good :

And whereas an address has been presented to Her Majesty, by the Legislative Council of St. Lucia, praying Her Majesty to authorize and permit the conveyance of goods and passengers from one part of that island to any other part of the same in other than British ships :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Act, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the day of the date of this Order, goods and passengers may be conveyed from one part of the island of Saint Lucia to another part thereof in other than British ships :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Edward Cardwell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Arthur Helps.
